It was agreed that the following extract from the Conference Notes of this date be printed in the record of the opening meeting:

Mr. Lee made the following statement:

RELIGION IN THE SCHOOLS

"We have grown in numbers, wealth, and power as no other nation has ever grown, but we have forgotten God. We have forgotten the gracious hand that preserved us in peace and multiplied and enriched and strengthened us; and we have vainly imagined, in the deceitfulness of our hearts, that all these blessings were produced by some superior wisdom and virtue of our own. Intoxicated with unbroken success, we have become too self-sufficient to feel the necessity to pray to the God that made us."

That is the statement of Abraham Lincoln.

"It would be peculiarly improper to omit, in this first official act, my fervent supplication to that Almighty Being, who rules over the universe . . . No people can be bound to adore the invisible hand, which conducts the affairs of men, more than the United States."

That is Georg Washington, in his inaugural address—when the Republic started.

Why, now, have we been backsliders?

We have no justification.

For the articles by which we came together as a communion of beings here in Massachusetts enjoin upon us an industrious respect for God.

I read now the opening articles of our agreement.

MASSACHUSETTS CONSTITUTION AND LAW

Preamble

The end of the institution, maintenance, and administration of government, is to secure the existence of the body politic, to protect it, and to furnish the individuals who compose it with the power of enjoying in safety and tranquility their natural rights, and the blessings of life: and whenever these great objects are not obtained the people have a right to alter the government, and to take measures necessary for their safety, prosperity, and happiness.

The body politic is formed by a voluntary association of individuals: it is a social compact, by which the whole people covenants with each citizen, and each citizen with the whole people, that all shall be governed by certain laws for the common good. It is the duty of the people, therefore, in framing a constitution of government, to provide for an equitable mode of making laws, as well as for an impartial interpretation and a faithful execution of them; that every man may, at all times, find his security in them.

We, therefore, the people of Massachusetts, acknowledging, with grateful hearts, the goodness of the great Legislator of the universe, in affording us, in the course of His providence, an opportunity deliberately and peaceably, without fraud, violence, or surprise, of entering into an original, explicit, and solemn compact with each other; and of forming a new constitution of civil government for ourselves and posterity; and devoutly imploring His direction in so interesting a design, do agree upon, ordain, and establish, the following Declaration of Rights, and Frame of Government, as the CONSTITUTION OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS.

CONSTITUTION OF MASSACHUSETTS

Article I. All men are born free and equal, and have certain natural, essential, and unalienable rights; among which may be reckoned the right of enjoying and defending their lives and liberties; that of acquiring, possessing, and protecting property; in fine, that of seeking and obtaining their safety and happiness.

Art. II. It is the right as well as the duty of all men in society, publicly, and at stated seasons, to worship the SUPREME BEING, the great Creator and Preserver of the universe. And no subject shall be hurt, molested, or restrained, in his person, liberty, or estate, for worshipping GOD in the manner and season most agreeable to the dictates of his own conscience; or for his religious profession or sentiments; provided he doth not disturb the public peace, or obstruct others in their religious worship.

Art. III. (As now amended by Amendment XI). As the public worship of God and instructions in piety, religion and morality, promote the happiness and prosperity of a people, and the security of a republican government; therefore, the several religious societies of this commonwealth, whether corporate or unincorporate, at any meeting legally warned and holden for that purpose, shall ever have the right to elect their pastors or religious teachers, to contract with them for their support, to raise money for erecting and repairing houses for public worship, for the maintenance of religious instruction, and for the payment of necessary expenses . . . and all religious sects and denominations, demeaning themselves peaceably, and as good citizens of the commonwealth, shall be equally under the protection of the law; and no subordination of any one sect or denomination to another shall ever be established by law.

Art. XVIII. (As now amended by Amendment XLVI) Section 1. No law shall be passed prohibiting the free exercise of religion.

Section 2. All moneys raised by taxation in the towns and cities for the support of public schools, and all moneys which may be appropriated by the commonwealth for the support of common schools shall be applied to, and expended in, no other schools than those which are conducted according to law, under the order and superintendence of the authorities of the town or city in which money is expended: and no grant, appropriation or use of public money or property or loan of public credit shall be made or authorized by the commonwealth or any political division thereof for the purpose of founding maintaining or aiding any school or institution of learning, whether under public control or otherwise, wherein any denominational doctrine is inculcated . . .

Other laws have been enacted further defining the duties of teachers, in compliance with the above articles of agreement which we call our Constitution.

General Laws, Chapter 71, Section 30— ". . . . All instructors of youth shall exert their best endeavors to impress on the minds of children and youth committed to their care and instruction the principles of piety . . ."

Our Constitution, then, sets forth our duty to worship God. The laws of the Commonwealth, conformingly, require that our teachers impress on our children the principles of piety.

And now comes another law that specifically requires us to teach this Constitution which enjoins upon us the worship of God. In fact, this Constitution of Massachusetts, plus the Federal Constitution, are the only required textbooks in our school that I know of.

Here is the modern law which commands that we teach our own Massachusetts Constitution. It amends Chapter 71, which I just read to you—about teaching piety—by adding some words to Section 2 thereof, as follows:

"In all public, elementary, and high schools, American history and civics, including the Constitution of the United States, and, in all public high schools, the Constitution of the Commonwealth and local history and government, shall be taught as required subjects for the purpose of promoting civic service and a greater knowledge thereof and of fitting the pupils morally and intellectually for the duties of citizenship."

With this wealth of constitutional advice and mandatory legislation, why, then, have we been backsliders?

Now, it may be advanced by some minds, in explanation, that our Constitution is contradictory, or rather that our Constitution stands in contradiction to our General Court's subsequent statutes.

Specifically, it may be advanced that Article XVIII of our amended Constitution, which I read to you—about no public moneys' being allowed for any school in which a denominational doctrine is inculcated—comes into conflict with Section 30 of Chapter 71 in our General Laws, as read you, which commands our teachers to teach piety.

NO CONFLICT INSIDE MASSACHUSETTS

But no: there is no conflict.

We can teach the Constitution of the Commonwealth with its veneration for God and its summons to us, in Article II, to worship the Supreme Being—a Constitution which we must teach, as a required document, in compliance with a subsequent statute—and, likewise, we can teach piety which a lower section of the same statute requires our teachers to impart, without in either case teaching any denominational doctrine.

Indeed, there is a large store of our human respect for God which is not divided or separated by any denominational creed. Indeed, the Jewish religion ministers to the Christian. It was the foundation of it, upon which Jesus of Nazareth built. He stated himself that he came "not to destroy but to fulfill." He repeatedly cites the "law and the prophets." The doings and teachings of the early Jewish patriarchs and prophets are certainly contained in the Christian Bible as much as the subsequent doings and teachings of Jesus. Each testament ministers to the other.

Likewise, the Mohammedan religion reveres Jesus. Page after page of the Koran is devoted by Mohammed to veneration of the life and teachings of Jesus—besides, of course, its basic veneration for Abraham and Moses.

In turn, the Hindu religion, from the language of which our English tongue derives, breathes with worship of the Creator of all that exists and does not exist, the Pervader of all being, the Entirety without parts or attachments.

Buddha, an ancient reformer of the Hindu religion, was hailed as "Saint Buddha" by the Christian Church at Rome, when news of his tranquil and devoted unworldliness was brought to Western attention by Venetian navigators.

What excuse, then, have we for skimping in our classrooms that mighty uprush of reverence for God which starts forth in worshippers from all religions without distinction for denominated creed?

The answer is we have no excuse.

We choose textbooks: and these textbooks show little recognition of whose universe this is.

We have simply, as Abraham Lincoln said, "In the deceitfulness of our hearts . . . forgotten God."

Let us hasten to end this deceit.

UNITED STATES CONSTITUTION THROWS OBSTACLE

But another obstacle soon looms—besides the hardness of our hearts.

To be sure, the Federal Constitution—as distinct from the Massachusetts Constitution, with which alone I have so far treated—originally left it to the several states whether they should make laws establishing and supporting a particular church or not. The first amendment to the Federal Constitution merely talked about Congress, and undertook to say that "Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion or prohibiting the free exercise thereof." In fact, Massachusetts, by the wording of its original third Constitutional article, which I read to you only in its amended form, originally established and required support of a particular religion in Massachusetts up till 1820. There was no interference to such a Massachusetts religion, then or before, from any Federal tribunal.

But in recent times (1925) the United States Supreme Court has begun making the various state governments' treatment of religion the business of the Federal government.

All along, the Federal Government might have taken a hand in State affairs, had certain cases arisen. If a religious cult in Boston had prescribed that its 10 comeliest virgins be thrown to their deaths from the highest building every spring—a human sacrifice so common among early religions—the Federal government probably would have interposed. As it was, in 1879 (Reynolds vs United States, 98 U. S. 145) Chief Justice Waite decided that criminal laws agalnst immorality could be enforced against a member of the Mormon religion who was professing to be conducting himself permissibly within the tenets of his faith.

But it was not until 1925 (Gitlow vs. New York, 268 U. S. 625) that the Federal Government through its Supreme Court went into the business of deciding what a State Government must or must not do in permitting religious practices.

And then it rested more on the Fourteenth Amendment of the Federal Constitution than on the First.

The Fourteenth Amendment of the Federal Constitution says in part that "no state shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges and immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any state deprive any person of life, liberty, or property without due process of law, nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws".

Under this, in 1926, the Supreme Court of the United States (Governor Pierce of Oregon vs the Society of Sisters, 268 U. S. 510) held that the general structure and powers of the government of the states prohibited the enactment of a law which forbade children to attend parochial schools.

Again, in Cantwell vs Connecticut (310 U. S. 296) the Supreme Court at Washington held in 1940 that the Fourteenth Amendment protected religious liberties.

In West Virginia State Board of Education vs Barnette (319 U. S. 624) the Court held in 1943 that members of the Jehovah's Witnesses sect could not be required to salute the flag in violation of their religious principles. Here Justice Jackson said for the Court:

"If there is any fixed star in our constitutional constellation, it is that no official, high or petty, can prescribe what shall be orthodox in politics, nationalism, religion, or other matters of opinion, or force citizens to confess by word or act their faith therein."

In the case of Everson vs Board of Education of New Jersey (330 U. S. 1) the United States Supreme Court in 1947 allowed a local school board to reimburse parents for payments made in transporting children to both public and parochial schools, holding that this was not a direct subsidization of any religion but a method of aiding all parents to get their children to the schools of their own choice.

In McCollum vs. Board of Education of Champaign, Illinois, (333 U. S. 203) a situation had developed where Mrs. McCollum a local taxpayer, had a child in the local public schools, in which religious spokesmen were permitted to use the school buildings during regular hours in order to provide instruction for the pupils in the tenets of their various faiths. Participation in the program was voluntary, and those not participating were sent to other study classes. The Supreme Court of the United States held that this did violate the Constitution of the United States.

Justice Black said for the Court:

"The operation of the State's compulsory education system thus assists and is integrated with the program of religious instruction carried on by separate religious sects. Pupils compelled by law to go to school for secular education are released in part from their legal duty upon condition that they attend the religious classes. This is beyond all question a utilization of the tax-established and tax-supported public school system to aid religious groups to spread their faith . . . And it falls squarely under the ban of the Constitution's First Amendment, made applicable to the states by the Fourteenth . . . For the First Amendment rests upon the premise that both religion and government can best work to achieve their lofty aims if each is left free from the other within its respective sphere."

Where does all this decision-making by the United States States Supreme Court leave us?

NO COMPULSION ON RELIGION

It leaves us, as I see it, with confirmation of the doctrine, ancient in our Republic but new to the world, that no man in our nation may impose his will on any other man. And, by like reading, no group of men, not even the State itself, may impose its will on any man. Rather the State exists to protect every man from every other man, and to protect every man from the State itself.

In particular, it leaves us with the principle that in America the government cannot set religion up nor pull religion down. Religion is not to be the victim of politicians, either in its establishment or in its suppression.

A church is not to be the creature of the State.

The government—to underscore the First Amendment of the Federal Constitution— "shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, nor prohibiting the free exercise thereof".

There shall be no compulsion.

The church—a thing without force of arms—may seek to establish the State.

The State — which does have force of arms — shall not use that force of law to establish religion.

Nor shall it use enforcement of law to stop religion.

NO SCHOOLROOM SESSIONS TO BE SET ASIDE FOR RELIGIOUS TRAINING

So, where does this leave religion in Boston classrooms?

We recall that the second article of our Massachusetts Constitution still enjoins on us the "duty . . . to worship the Supreme Being, the Creator and Preserver of the universe."

And we recall that Section 30 of Chapter 71 of our statutes still provides that "all instructors of youth shall exert their best endeavors to impress on the minds of children and youth committed to their care and instruction the principles of piety . . ." though our children shall not receive in public school, under Article XVIII of our amended Constitution, "any denominational doctrine."

One finding in this melee is clear.

Neither under Massachusetts law nor under recent decisions of the United States Supreme Court do we get a green light for establishing in our schools formal classes in religious instruction.

Indeed, we could not give such organized instruction—especially with pupils awarded high or low credits for responsive scholarship —without such formal instruction's soon constituting some kind of religious creed, in conflict with our Massachusetts Constitution.

And we could not then use our Massachusetts law to compel children's attendance at school, nor to extract supporting monies for schools from taxpayers, without its constituting a governmental establishment of religion, in contravention of the Federal Constitution.

Indeed, if "our instructors of youth" are to carry out Massachusetts law, and "exert their best endeavors to impress on the minds of children . . . the principles of piety," they must do so without using their official position to establish religion.

Can they?

Of course, they can.

UNITED STATES CONSTITUTION NOT ENEMY OF RELIGION

The Constitution gives Congress no particular power to pass a law establishing the sun. But that does not mean that you have to rush into the cellar and pull the shades down. The sun is there already.

And, more specifically, the First Amendment of the Federal Constitution has two parts. It has a first part, and a last part.

The first part says, "Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion."

The last part says, "nor prohibiting the free exercise thereof."

The first part is there not because establishing religion is undesirable.

The first part is there because the free exercise of religion is, verily, desirable: and establishing a religion by law would interfere with the free exercise of religion.

UNDENIABLE PURPOSE OF EDUCATION

Besides this, it turns out inevitably that the purpose of education is the same as the purpose of life. For we educate for life.

The purpose of life is to make man's thinking at one with God's thinking.

It is, at least, to weave man's thinking into a working wisdom watchful of the worth of God.

It is, surely, to come up with that composure than which there is none more absorbing.

If there is any broader, deeper, higher, more encompassing, or better purpose in life, please tell us quick. I am sure that myself and my colleagues would want to adopt it.

The purpose of public school education is to make the growing man's or woman's thinking mindful of the terms of being.

There is no other direction to move in.

OUR CLASSROOMS NOW RESERVOIRS OF RELIGION

And so in our classrooms today we do proceed in that very direction. We aim to settle for nothing less.

We swallow the Ten Commandments whole.

We don't teach our children to lie, and rob, and murder, because those things molest the other person's progress—let alone the suit of thorns such meanness weaves around the perpetrator.

We teach our children arithmetic, so that they can conduct a mutual commerce of helpfulness, instead of conducting life by the villainies of violence.

We teach our children to read, for the same reason, and also so that they can partake of the thinking of gracious spirits.

We teach them automobile mechanics, so that they can help other people to get about—and receive those other person's reciprocation for their kindness.

We teach some children to bake, so that they can mercifully supply their fellows with bread —without penalty for their pains.

In America, we clothe each other's nakedness. And we wash each other's feet.

We have multiplied our mercies upon one another. We deliver far more to each other's doorsteps than any other civilization of present or past — and do so without leaving the supplier unrequited.

The public school system is geared to the doctrines of helpfulness, kindness, love, reciprocation, and vouchsafed immunity for each to proceed to the perfectest fulfillments of being.

If this is a public establishment of religion, the crime has been long in progress, and is today in swing.

SEPARATION OF CHURCH AND CHILD

Yet we fall short of our own fulfillment as a school system by pretending that we do not train children for the blessings of wisdom and virtue and grace, and by keeping it a secret from the students what life and education are about. We publicly proclaim a spiritual neutrality.

We are clubbed into this by the phrase, "Separation of church and state."

The phrase "Separation of church and state" may be a good one.

But it occurs in none of our Constitutions.

The only reference to it that I can discover in our body of law occurs in Reynolds vs. United States (above) in which the Supreme Court held that criminal laws against immorality could be enforced against a member of the Mormon sect, and where the decision, prepared by Chief Justice Waite, briefly alluded to a letter from Thomas Jefferson to some people in Danbury, Connecticut, in which Jefferson had said that "It was the purpose of the First Amendment . . . to build a wall of separation between Church and State". (Nevertheless, Jefferson insisted on religion in education and education in religion, as being the most interesting subject there was.)

The wall between church and state, then, was intended to stay the state from butting into religion, not to have the state eradicate religion. It was not to separate the child from religion.

In fact, you could not have separation of church and state if the church wasn't there to be separate.

The vast majority of our teachers in Boston schools heed some religion.

The majority of our children try to heed some religion.

The classroom is clapped between these two.

The teacher's teaching of what he thinks is right, and the child's acceptance of it is largely a product of their several religions.

To avoid that situation you would have to have only atheistic teachers teaching only atheistic children.

And, even at that, it is notable that the atheists themselves are dreadfully concerned too with man's lot in the solemn circle of being.

If a teacher, in any event, should act in our classroom as though there weren't any such thing as religion, and as though the passing patchworks of pedestrian thinking were the only thing that was, and as though there were no eternal arches to cast the eye upon or bow the heart before, at least neither the Massachusetts Constitution nor the Federal Constitution give him any such sweeping power.

He would then be inventing a technological idolatry of his own. —Or perhaps one authorized by his School Committee.

Maybe, a good many textbooks today do give the pupil the impression that salvation lies in the brass monkeys that our mechanical prowess creates. But the Constitutions espouse no such impression.

The fact is that considerations than which there are none larger or longer—call it religion, or what you will—run in the state, through the state, under the state, above the state, and side by side with the state. The only stipulation is that the state shall not mar them by a law for or against.

WISDOM OF THE AGES NOT MEANT TO BE DRIVEN FROM CLASSROOM

Our Boston school teachers, then, should continue—without Constitutional timidity—to be manifestly mindful in our classrooms of the eternal leewardings alee of life.—Only, with something plus.

That something plus is to make it perfectly clear to the pupils a couple of times a day — no matter what the subject taught — that the purpose of education is the same as the purpose of life, and that the school system does nothing to stop and does its part to help the several pupils toward at-one-ment with the terms of being, of which the finalized forms each can better seek from a preacher of his family's choice.

The borders of our students' thinking and wisdom, then, should be widened, more than now, in the course of his public schooling — without timidity about disregarding our Constitutions.

Man's lot in the immensity of existence should be held up daily in school before the student's eyes.

The very gift of existence should be alluded to more often for classroom contemplation.

It could well be brought out, for instance, in any classroom scrutiny of being, that creation creates causes, if it creates itself.

It is just as unfinal to attribute to a cause the power to produce an effect as it is to attribute to the effect the power to produce itself.

It is a waste of reasoning to say that creation created causes which in turn created creation.

Causes are cross-lines in being —not its creator or Creator.

What, in any case, gave effects the capacity to be, no matter how many causes you choose to attribute to them?

Since things can only be seen by contrast—big by contrast with small, force only in the light of its opposition, a point only in the presence of expanse around it, this moment only by separation from its predecessor, and everything only by the hollow that it fills amongst other things themselves not delineated—how, then, does anything get perceived and what is it that is seen?

Surely, "materialism is the most mystical of all doctrines. It makes a belief in some mythical matter that creates everything out of itself the foundation of everything."

The world did not make mind. The world is what the mind spreads before it. How then can mind be the product of its own output?

These questions, in some form or other, every parent is badgered with, by his young child's exasperating and tireless "why?"

They are not even religion—and certainly not creed.

They are the basic curiosities or equations, of mind and heart, which religion seeks to solve.

That the boundaries of being are as big and elusive as they are should be brought home and not slighted in the classroom.

Philosophical curiosities in the child should not be stamped out or passed over for some superficial preoccupation in the classroom that dodges the basic questions of being—but should be let grow.

Time and space seem to be two diagonals intersecting at each individual's present moment, which lead his mind out to the oneness of totality, which has imagination so rudely slashed with thought.

Our students should come out of school with a sense at least of being citizens of a mighty universe — which they can, in no case, in practice avoid.

The word "holy" was first spelled "wholly," and means the same thing. A "holy" person is a person with a "whole" point of view. Give our children a whole point of view.

While our students' minds, then, should definitely rub up against the basic problems of being, still our teachers should not — and at present they do not — set forth any finalized religious answers known as "creeds," nor any finalized religious ceremonies, because any such wrapped-up finalizations would close doors on the religious freedom of members of the class more than it would leave doors open, let alone the ban placed upon such packaged presentations by our Massachusetts Constitution which would see men led to final religious beliefs by virtue, and not by force of compulsory school attendance.

FURTHER EXAMPLES FOR KEEPING RELIGIOUS DOORS OPEN IN SCHOOL

TO LESS LOCK RELIGION IN THE DOGHOUSE

I can give some further examples for awakening awareness in the pupil of his place in existence.

I pay tribute first, though, to the present lack of religious fanfare in our schools, which is itself a kind of spiritual humility that our public schools should not want to lose.

For further specific examples of greater ventilation of the spirit, in our classrooms, I bring attention again upon Section 2, as amended, in Chapter 71 of the General Laws—which stipulates that the Constitution of Massachusetts shall be taught as a required subject in our schools. I read this section of the law over, on a previous page, as well as the opening parts of our Constitution. As this Constitution cites God as the disposer of existence, and recites our duty to give heed thereto—and it is the law of our land anyway—I suggest we really do teach the Massachusetts Constitution. Specifically, I suggest that as much time be given to the Massachusetts Constitution—or more—in any year of schooling as we give to the Federal Constitution.

After all, Boston was known in every port of the world for dozens of years before the United States was ever dreamed up in the mind of man. Our Constitution was written years before the United States Constitution. We delegated very few of our powers to the Federal Government. Nine of the other thirteen colonies copied our Constitution, as did the Federal Constitution, at least, to a good extent. Outside of fighting wars and organizing a uniform currency that unites the states, the Federal Government has very little bearing on our lives—except insofar as it has recently encroached upon our local territory in the name of regulating interstate commerce. And the United States Constitution engages in no reference to God, short of the oblique reference in the First Amendment. Let us, then, give the Massachusetts Constitution the place in the hearts of our children that it deserves and that the law requires.

Second, as our children are going to read comic horror books anyway, I suggest they get the real thing. The "Divine Comedy," by an Italian gentleman named Durante, who changed his name to Dante, is on our authorized list. We could use it more. There is as much "comedy" in the fearful "Inferno" as there is in drugstore horror "comics." The child's taste for both is his hankering to plumb the depths and perils of existence—amongst which his schooling gives him no abiding address to turn to in supplication of mercy. Dante's work does. I suggest, specifically, that the "Inferno" be plugged more in our literature courses.

Thirdly, I would suggest that our teachers of economics proceed to teach international trade —if they teach it at all—in the words of Admiral Flavel who lived in the early 1800's. Admiral Flavel put it this way:

"The most wise God has so dispensed his bounty to the several nations of the world, that—one standing in need of another's commodities—there might be a sociable commerce and traffic maintained amongst them all: and all, combining in a common league, may, by the help of navigation, establish mutual succors to each other.

". . . God hath distributed the more rich and precious gifts and graces of his Spirit among his people: some excelling in one grace, some in another . . . The head cannot say to the feet, 'I have no need of you'.

"There be precious treasure in these earthen vessels(the Admiral is referring to our bodies) for which we should trade by mutual communion. . . . It behoves us to be enriching ourselves by communication of these things that God has dropt into us, and the improvement of them."

The foregoing words of Admiral Flavel are as much as high school boys can absorb of the complicated subject of international trade anyway.

Fourth, it is in the study of natural science that man's relation to existence should be stressed, in our school rooms—but is not.

We want ears. Here they are. We want eyes. They are here. We want teeth. We have them. I am sure I did not make my ears, nor you, yours. For all any of us at this table had to say about it, we might have all been born Egyptian pottery makers three thousand years ago—or been five fish in the Dead Sea—or been nothing.

What fixed our lives in this our time and shape, and not in some other?

All the scientists in the world cannot fabricate one living cell. Yet the marrow of your bones turns out billions every hour.

It is deadening for our high school girls to dissect frogs' legs—except to learn humility in the face of nature's marvels. Our girls are not going to be making any frogs. Students who hope to serve in later life as animal husbandmen or controllers of pests are not looking to high school classrooms for their special training. Except as a lesson in our tiny place among a world of wonders all about—too vast for the mind to more than marvel at—our courses in natural science can only be thinly justified. —Perhaps, farfetchedly, they may forestall some conceivably hurtful crudescence of misinformation in later life.

Our geology classes, especially, should be windows for looking out, with realism, at the might of the world beyond him—before which the pupil should kneel in wonder. A bookshelf long enough to reach from here to Chicago, loaded with one giant encyclopedia of thin pages—with every page representing a thousand years—would give some idea of the age of our local habitation. Meanwhile, we whip around the sun at 17 miles a second. The soil underfoot whirls the United Shoe Machinery Building and the Boston Common around its axis—like a watchfob—every 24 hours. The nearest star is 26,000,000,000,000 miles away. The heavens declare the glory of the Lord, and the firmament sheweth his handiworks. Who can bind the sweet influences of the Pleiades, or loose the bands of Orion? Whereupon are the foundations of the world fastened, and who has given understanding to the inward parts?

If our science teachers cannot talk the language of the Psalmist or the book of Job, they are wasting their time and their pupils'. The veneration that the realistic mind pays to the grandeur of his creation should find expression, not inhibition, in classrooms.

The word "worship" was originally "worth-ship." The pupil's heart and mind should not be kept from bowing before the immeasurable worthship of the creation in which he precariously perches.

In physics classes, the mystery of the gift of time may well be brought up. In the news reels, "Time Marches Forward." But in real life, what? The future is first ahead, then it moves back toward us: arrives upon us in the form of the "present"; and then moves back into the "past." If time moved forward, would we not soon be witnessing World War I again, and a while after that, the assassination of Julius Caesar?—Does not today follow yesterday, both moving back toward the past? — Rather than yesterday following today and both moving forward?

Creation flows toward us from the inexhaustible well of the future.

Fifth, among specific recommendations for a less stuffy classroom atmosphere, there is the matter of textbooks. These are often shy of source-material. They are reticent on attribution of their authorship. An overdeveloped sense of logic among our school men has caused them to have nothing in an algebra textbook except algebra. But the classicists tell us that mathematics is a sub-division of philosophy. If God did not cause 2 plus 2 to make 4, I do not know what did. As far as I had any say about it, 2 plus 2 might have turned out to be 257.

My suggestion is that without warning or preface, we intersperse the pages of our arithmetic books with quotations from American prophets—and from other sages. Lincoln's statement about the "gracious hand that has preserved us"—with which I opened this presentation—and Washington's too, might be good beginners. Then the last half of Lincoln's Second Inaugural. And so forth. These passages will help remind the pupil of the authorship of being.

If you push God out of arithmetic in the mind of childhood, it is certain he will stay out.

For typographical ease, I would suggest particularly selections from the Book of Proverbs. Incidentally, Solomon's Proverbs seldom mention God. They could, in any case, well be interspersed through all of our books.

After reading in geogrpahy that "an island is a large body surrounded on all sides by water," the child should read in the next paragraph:

"A soft answer turneth away wrath: but grievous words stir up anger."

After reading that John Quincy Adams drafted the Monroe Doctrine, let him read in the next paragraph that:

"He that is slow to anger is better than the mighty: and he that ruleth his spirit, than he that taketh a city."

Or even after having it set out in his spelling book that "supersedes" is spelled with three s's, he could read in the following line that:

"Even a child is known by his doings, whether his work be pure, or whether it be right."

Or, perhaps, after memorizing the formula for ammonium hydrosulphate, he might find out that:

"As a dog returneth to his vomit, so a fool returneth to his folly."

If anyone thinks these recommendations odd, let him look at the book I now lift with my right hand—used in the Boston schools within a hundred years—which used a good many of these quotations, and a lot more. The traditional "primer" is a book of devotional worship. That and the Bible were the only two books in Boston schools until recent years.

I would specify that when our present books are sent back to the binders, pieces of superb wisdom be inserted between the pages

SPIRITUAL HEALTH

Sixth and last, I think we stand indicted for fuzzy shortsightedness in our health courses. All the venerations tendered by any healthy spirit to masterworkmanship when he sees it should be brought out by the teacher, with heartfelt awe, in considering the miracle of the human body. Otherwise, the student may start to preserve a healthy body; but he will stumble on emotional lack of thankfulness for its blessings. The scientific age should afford opportunity for more worship, not less. Truly, we are fearfully and wonderfully made.

But apart from these concerns, what about spiritual health as such?

How much of our health courses are devoted to that?

It is nice to prepare for a healthy body. But what about the time when you won't have your health—and you won't have your body?

What about preparing for that?

What about preparing for death?

To act before pupils as though their life span—in which being protrudes in a particular body—were going to be infinite is hardly honest or realistic education.

I am reasonably sure that a school system should stand for eternal values as well as temporary ones.

And while it is, indeed, a nice element to spiritual health to prepare the pupil for happy relations with other people—as we do, at least, in our civics courses—what about the time when those you most love are no longer with you?

LOVE

And finally, on this matter of spiritual health, I would judge that the part played by love in the range of existence could be pointed up more clearly in our classrooms—without offence to either the Massachusetts or Federal Constitution. Love seems to be a substance that not only binds man to woman, and mother to child, but also people to people, and likewise binds us to the ultimate heart of the existence in which we live. Anyway, it is the cornerstone of Christianity. Jesus said the first rule was: "Thou shalt love the Lord they God with all thy heart and with all thy soul and with all thy mind." He said that the second rule was like unto it: "Thou shalt love they neighbor as thyself." Moses had said the same thing in the same words on several occasions, though with less emphatic billing. Mohammed in his every breath uses "compassionate, mereiful" as descriptive of God. And the Hindu religion demands the concentration upon God, of the entire mind, sense, emotion, and spirit, to the disappearance of all other attachments.

And now the modernest psychologists are getting around to telling us that what each of us most cares about is to love and be loved.—And saying, too, that failure in that direction is what ails us when we ail.

It would seem, anyway, that love was the controlling force in lives of spiritual health, and that those who most win our heart in contemporary circles, or who have won the heart of history, are those whom love takes charge of.—Should each of us put his life within the control of love, or have we tried to subordinate love to us?

It would appear, then, that those preparing youth for spiritual health in the classroom might more discerningly stress to themselves and to their pupils that love is a very important quality—possibly the matrix of existence, in which space, time, self, atoms, ironing-boards, and worlds are but sudden soundings or fitful flashes of faith.

CONCLUSION

The upshot of the whole thing is that God is what people care most about.

God is necessarily the great reality of everyone's life—if God be the disposing figure of their own and entire existenee.

Religion is being's appeal to its own utmost terms.

God is the configuration of that appeal.

God is the personality of existence.

Religion, then, is the utmost toss of wisdom.

My conclusion is that the public schools pretty much do—but more so should—build for ultimate wisdom in the pupil, fine though the spiritual humility of the Federal Constitution is in so rightly forbidding the imposition by law of any creed or theology upon the people. (I make no suggestion here for assigning marks of merit or demerit, upon any child in public school, for his accomplishment of spiritual health—which no elected teacher is competent to sit in judgement on.)

I conclude, second, that our public schools, under our Constitutions, for the most part do not, and certainly should not, hide the wisdom of the ages from our children merely because uttered by some religious leader.

I would conclude, third, that keeping graciously alive, in school, more than at present, the child's prime interest in the depths and heights of being—its perils and hopes—should not be regarded as an establishment, by law, of religion, but as freeing the exercise of religion in each child from the dead weight, dead ends, false fronts, and vain show of superficial facts with which a school curriculum can be cluttered to the child's spiritual suffoeation.

In other words, we must end that deceit on our children whereby we now, to a degree, kiek under the rug those wisdoms toward existence which religion waits to crown with adequate expression.

It is my hope, then, that this School Committee in its action toward the schools will go down not as forgetting God, but as one that remembered.

Chairman: Thank you very much, Mr. Lee, for that presentation. We all have copies of this and I am sure that hearing you read it and following the ext as you read it, we all recognize that you have put in a great deal of effort, thought and time, and you have brought the Committee's attention certainly to an important area and aspeet of education, and that is the formulating in the schools of spiritual values.

Is there any comment that any member has, or has the Superintendent any comment on it?

Superintendent: No, except to congratulate Mr. Lee for a wonderful dissertation.

Mr. Musco: As a supplement to Mr. Lee's discourse I have a report from Mr. Gillis regarding released time from school for "weekday religious education;" and this includes Grades IV through IX. Out of a total enrollment of grades participating of 25,360, the total number who have been released from their classrooms once a week for outside religious instruction is 18,942 which, you will take notice—is almost 75 per cent of the total enrollment of the grades participating, who were released during the year 1954-55

Chairman: Is there any other suggestion the Committee has?

Mr. Carr: Miss Fitzgerald, may I commend Mr. Lee on his splendid presentation; and now that we have taken care of the spiritual being, I suggest that we recess and take care of the physieal being.

Mr. Musco: I would first like your indulgence to say this—that Mr. Lee's discourse should be submitted to a committee of educators, to ask for their eomments; and from there on it should be reviewed by our Committee on Weekday Religious Education, which I believe advises on our released-time system.

Chairman: Mr. Musco, we do have such a eommittee.

Mr. Musco: Then the third step might be to report back to the School Committee; and at that time we might take the recommendation.

Chairman: Will that be agreeable to you, Mr. Lee?

Mr. Lee: Yes.

Chairman: Will you see that that is carried out, Mr. Superintendent?

Superintendent: I will be glad to.

Mr. Lee: . . . . ., Mr. Superintendent, I wondered this: Among the studies that have been given to the religious problem, for example, by the Association of Superintendents of schools in cities over 200,000 in population, and by their executive secretary, and with all the thought that you yourself have given the matter over the years, I didn't know but what you would wish at this time to make comments on the subjeet which my paper dealt with, or whether you would rather do that after further studies with the committees. I would be personally glad to hear what you have to say.

Chairman: Mr. Lee, I am sure that, having seen it for the first time and having heard it for the first time, probably most of the members have signified that they would prefer to take it up when they have had reports—to be studied by them individually and by others.

Mr. Lee: The Superintendent might wish to mention the progress that is going on around the country.

Chairman: In this area, you mean?

Mr. Lee: Yes.

Superintendent: Madam Chairman, do you want me to reaet to it?

Chairman: Yes, Mr. Superintendent.

Superintendent: Madam Chairman and Mr. Lee, I am glad to say that this problem that Mr. Lee is presenting tonight is one that is being studied very carefully by a number of other large school systems, and the Superintendents of schools in the big cities have been together in small groups discussing it. There is a very scholarly gentleman whom these superintendents have chosen to work upon this problem of religion in the public schools, and he has prepared a document which as yet is not official for this group but is certainly very fruitful in its ideas and in its suggestions.

In some of the big cities in the country — Indianapolis, for example—the Superintendent, along with committees, has already prepared certain tentative outlines covering this problem of religion in the schools. All of this data that I am referring to only in a very general manner in this short expression, Mr. Lee, I would be glad to turn over to a committee which we will appoint — Mr. Ohrenberger working on it and working co-operatively. Following Mr. Musco's suggestion, after this appointed committee has made its report, along with the present Committee on Religious Education, that is, our "Committee on Released Time," then we will have a final report.

In other words, I would turn over to this committee Mr. Lee's complete statement. I would turn over what I have just been describing, and I would turn over to Mr. Ohrenberger some of these tentative outlines from such cities as Indianapolis. Then I would ask that committee to work under Mr. Ohrenberger's direction, and report back to this School Committee at some future time.

But apropos of what you have said, Mr. Lee and Madam Chairman, I certainly think it is important. When you began to read, Mr. Lee, I sent upstairs for my inaugural address made back in 1948. I am not going to bore you with it; but I would like to say that I said at that time—in keeping with one of the things that Mr. Lee mentioned here this evening:

"In conclusion, I wish to emphasize that all the material appurtenances of a great school system such as Boston's, would be organized and administered in vain if our method of instruction were not based upon a sound educational philosophy."

Now here is the spiritual side of it:

"A philosophy that recognizes man's true nature, a philosophy that insists not only upon the sharpening of the intellect in its search for what is true, but also the strengthening of the will in its search for what is good. I can assure the people of Boston that our educational practices are formulated upon the salutary doctrine that recognizes spiritual and moral values, and that our unfailing aim is to fulfill the obligation enjoined upon teachers by the memorable Massachusetts law of 1789 (which Mr. Lee quoted)—namely ,to impress on the minds of youths and children committed to their care the principles of piety and justice and the sacred regard for truth, love of their country, humanity and universal beneficence, and those other virtues which are the ornament of human society and the basis upon which our Constitution is founded.

"The co-operation of the staff of teachers, principals and administrators devoted to the highest standards of their profession, with the assistance of equally conscientious employees in every other department of our system, with the invaluable counsel of the members of the School Committee (and I say that we have here this evening the invaluable counsel of the members of the School Committee) with the helpful interest of the general public, and above all with the utmost confidence in the grace of God, I am undertaking my grave responsibilities with the hope and trust that my period of service as superintendent of schools in the City of Boston may be increasingly fruitful in the educational benefits to the boys and girls under our guidance."

So certainly it articulates very well; and I do commend this Committee for what I was sure would be its very helpful suggestions.

PROGRESS REPORT ON NEW SCHOOL CONSTRUCTION

It was agreed that the following extract from the Conferences notes of this date be printed in the record of the meeting:

Mr. Musco: Madam Chairman, at the meeting of Jan. 3, 1955, I asked for the opportunity to present to the Committee a report pertaining to new school buildings. The progress in the erection of school buildings under our current building program has given us grave concern.

In order to facilitate this program, I wish to recommend to the School Committee that a letter be sent to Superintendent of Construction James H. Mooney requesting that the following suggestions be evaluated by his Board and that a report on the same be submitted to the School Committee as early as possible:

I. That a joint meeting be held between the Board of Commissioners of School Buildings and the School Committee to discuss methods of expediting work.

II. That after receipt by Mr. Mooney of a letter of accommodations, a statement by Mr. Mooney giving the approximate date for completion of each project should be filed with the School Committee.

III. Notification by the School Committee when the architectural contract is let.

IV. Shortening the time between the date of the letter of accommodations and the awarding of the architural contract.

V. Monthly reports to the School Committee on the progress of work for each separate project. These program reports should begin with the letting of the architectural contract.

VI. The possibility of including a penalty clause in all contracts (building).

VII. Investigation of the possibility of the architect's producing complete plans including heating, ventilating and electric work for each project.

I leave that with you as it stands at the present time, and would recommend to Mr. Mooney that a two-page form be submitted to us regularly upon our call so that we can follow the progress of our new school building program and also the big alterations that might take place in the very near future.

Chairman: Thank you very much, Mr. Musco. Is there any further comment on that?

Mr. Lee: On this problem here, are we taking action affirmatively on this?

Chairman: Well, I would presume the members are going to discuss it, and then, if the Committee takes action and adopts Mr. Musco's proposals, then I would presume that the Secretary would be instructed to write to the Superintendent of Construction on the matter.

Mr. Lee: That would be a good idea.

Chairman: Is there any further comment from any other members on the subject of the suggestion?

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman, I am just wondering whether a monthly report is necessary and whether it wouldn't be better to have a longer interval. How much can they do in a month?

Suppose we set the time at two months or three months? I don't think we should have them writing reports every month.

Mr. Musco: Mr. Carr, on a works progress report they generally have a clerk who is available for weekly reports. That is included in the works progress as they have done in the past. Now as far as making out a report is concerned, it is just a matter of filling out a two-page form.

We have the specific guarantee of Chairman Joseph O'Connell that the Curtis Guild School in East Boston will be completed by September 1955, and we are now going into February. That only leaves us eight months; and if we don't push right now I am sure that that school is not going to be ready in September, 1955.

Mr. Carr: We have the guarantee—

Mr. Musco: Yes, sir.

Mr. Carr: From the chairman of the Board of Commissioners of School Buildings?

Mr. Musco Yes, sir, at our last meeting, on October 29th; and between October 29th and January 10th we don't have too much progress to report.

Mr. Carr: Are you going to have a regular form that they fill out for these reports?

Mr. Museo: Yes.

Mr. Carr: Asking the specific status of the different work?

Mr. Museo: That is right. If I may digress for just a moment to give you an example—and I have worked with Mr. McMackin on it—he has a number of these reports right up to date and I would like to have him give just one example of how one of the schools stands.

Mr. McMackin: I will take the William E. Russell district in the Columbia Point section. I believe you know the accommodations required.

Now this appropriation was made by the School Committee on January 11, 1954. The appropriation amount was $1,480,660. The site was secured on October 6, 1953, some time prior to your appropriation date.

A letter of accommodations went to the Department of School Buildings on February 11th. Our appropriation was on January 11th. The letter of accommodations went down to them on the 11th of February. That was a very, very busy month here in the School Committee, in the formulation of our budget.

The architectural contract in this case was awarded on March 19, 1954. We received the first set of preliminary plans in this office on April 1st. We received the revised preliminary plans on the 28th of April. We received a second set of revised preliminary plans on the 6th of May and a third set of revised preliminary plans on the 2d of November.

Now I think that the architect at that time felt that his plans were in pretty good shape, that they were close to being perfected—that is, that they could be used as working drawings but we have not as yet received the final plan. The last plan that we received was on November 2d.

Mr. Carr: Is that the type of report that you wish to have every month—just to keep a running account?

Mr. Museo: Yes. That is an example and you can see the date of January 11th, is when we approved that particular construction program and tomorrow will be one full year. Actually there hasn't been any work done at all as far as a feasible amount of work on the location is concerned. That holds true for most of the programs that we have approved.

Mr. McMackin: In all of our building programs back through the years it took almost a year to produce plans for the projects.

Chairman: I would think, Mr. McMackin and members, that in a time when we are going into a big building program—which we are in and which we have been contemplating for these recent years—there ought to be some way of speeding up the work. If we could meet with the Board of Commissioners of School Buildings, as Mr. Museo suggests in Item No. 1, and work out methods of expediting work, it might be possible to cut this time in the production of plans so that we can get started on actual construction sooner.

Mr. McMackin: I think there are many points in Mr. Museo's recommendation.

Mr. Carr: Mr. McMackin, do you happen to know about the construction of these housing projects? They seem to go up in quite a fast manner? Do they have a penalty clause in their contract?

Mr. McMackin: I am not certain.

Mr. Carr: I mean the buildings themselves.

Mr. McMackin: I know several state departments have penalty clauses. I do not know whether the Housing authority has one or not.

Mr. Carr: They really put them up fast enough.

Mr. McMackin: Yes.

Mr. Carr: I know in some of them they went right through the winter. That D Street Project was built within a year, I think. They worked right through the winter on it. I am wondering: Do you think a penalty clause would speed this process up?

Mr. McMackin: Yes, I think so. I think that there could be many things brought out at a meeting with the Board of Commissioners of School Buildings which might help in speeding these things up.

Chairman: Then as there seems to be pretty much agreement that Mr. Museo's points are well taken, the Secretary is directed to carry out or to facilitate the carrying out of these seven suggestions of Mr. Museo with the Board of Commissioners of School Buildings.

The Committee adjourned.

OFFICIAL CHRONICLE OF BOSTON MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS.

VOL. 47 SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 26, 1955. NO. 9

A METROPOLITAN BOSTON IS DESIRABLE, PRACTICAL, AND INEVITABLE, MAYOR HYNES TELLS BOSTON BAR ASSOCIATION GROUP AT LUNCHEON AT PATTEN'S RESTAURANT—EXPLAINS ECONOMIC FEASIBILITY OF WELDING 40 INDIVIDUAL DISTRICTS INTO SUCCESSFUL WHOLE FOR PROGRESS, BENEFIT, AND CONTENTMENT, WITH LESSENING TAX BURDENS.

The following are the remarks of Mayor John B. Hynes before the Boston Bar Association on "A Metropolitan Boston—Why—When—How?"

Boston's own population is only about 800,000. On the other hand, Metropolitan Boston, by which I mean roughly the 40-odd surrounding cities and towns, has a population of about 2½ million.

In those 40 cities and towns you will find 40 police departments, 40 fire departments, 40 school departments, 40 library systems, 40 sewer departments, 40 water departments, 40 public works departments, 40 sets of machinery for

CITY OF BOSTON TO SHARE IN HEARING OF NEW YORK-FLORIDA ROUTE CASE BEFORE THE CIVIL AERONAUTICS BOARD—MAYOR HYNES ANXIOUS TO HAVE NORTHEAST AIRLINES EXTEND ITS ROUTES TO WASHINGTON AND FLORIDA AS VITAL TO FUTURE OF THIS REGION—ASKS CITIZENS TO AID.

The City of Boston will participate in the New York-Florida Route Case before the Civil Acronautics Board, Mayor John B. Hynes has announced. He said that the application of Northeast Airlines to extend its routes to Washington, D. C., and Florida is important to the future of this region, and that the city would bend every effort to prove the merits of the application before the C.A.B.

"Northeast Airlines is Boston's own," he said, "and an example of expanding New England industry. It behooves the City of Boston, and all of New England, to do our utmost to assist local industries aiming at new expansion horizons."

SENATOR PATRICK V. McNAMARA OF MICHIGAN TO BE ORATOR AT ANNUAL EVACUATION DAY HISTORICAL EXERCISES IN SOUTH BOSTON—MAYOR JOHN B. HYNES AND SOUTH BOSTON CITIZENS' ASSOCIATION MAKE ANNOUNCEMENT—EXERCISES IN MUNICIPAL BUILDING, SUNDAY, MARCH 13—SENATOR BORN IN NORTH WEYMOUTH, OCTOBER 4, 1894.

The South Boston Citizens' Association and the Mayor have announced that Senator Patrick V. McNamara of Michigan will be the speaker at the annual Evacuation Day historical exercises to be held at the Municipal Building in South Boston on Sunday afternoon, March 13, at 3 P.M.

The following is a résumé of Senator McNamara's background:

Patrick Vincent McNamara, United States Senator from Michigan (whose first term is from January 3, 1955, for six years), was born in North Weymouth, Mass., October 4, 1894. He attended grade and high schools in Weymouth, transferring before high school graduation to the Fore River Apprentice School, where he was taught the pipe-fitting trade.

After employment as pipe fitter and foreman in the Bethlehem Shipyard at Fore River, he was employed by various mechanical contracting companies, and in 1921 made his home in Detroit, going there as job superintendent for the Grinnell Company, nation-wide mechanical contractors.

From then until his election to the United States Senate Mr. McNamara was associated with the mechanical contracting industry, except for three and one-half years during World War II in which he was Area Rent Director for Detroit under the Office of Price Administration. At the time of his election he was vice president in charge of sales for the Stanley-Carter Company, Michigan's largest mechanical contractors.

Pipe Fitters Union Official.

For eighteen of the twenty-one years preceding his election Mr. McNamara was the unpaid president of the Pipe Fitters Union, Local 636, American Federation of Labor. During the early thirties, he was employed in the Chrysler Kercheval Plant in Detroit, and was president of the first industrial union organized there under the N.R.A. and was later elected president of the state-wide organization of N.R.A. industrial unions. Mr. McNamara was the unpaid president, and Mr. R. J. Thomas (later to become president of the United Automobile Workers, C.I.O.) was secretary of the N.R.A. Chrysler organization.

With the revival of the construction industry, Mr. McNamara left the automobile plants and returned to his own industry. Although always in executive positions within the industry, he became president of the local of his own union, and also was for several terms vice president of the Detroit and Wayne County Federation of Labor. This also was an unpaid post. Mr. McNamara's interest in the people of Michigan as a whole dates back to the middle twenties, when he served as executive secretary of the Michigan Old Age Pension League, which had the late Supreme Court Justice Frank Murphy as its head. Mr. McNamara was a leader in the fight for the passage of Michigan's first old age pension law.

Mr. McNamara gained national recognition for outstanding public service when he served as Detroit Area Rent Director. In that post he was committed to the fearless but fair carrying out of the rent control law. He considered it a war job and resigned on V-J Day.

Ensured by thy sons' and thy daughters' unselfish devotion!"

SENATOR PATRICK V. McNAMARA TO BE ORATOR AT EVACUATION DAY EXERCISES.

In 1946 Mr. McNamara was elected to the Detroit City Council, which has nine members elected city-wide on a nonpartisan basis. He served one term and did not stand for re-election. In 1949 he was elected to the Detroit Board of Education for a six-year term, on which board he was exceedingly active.

Senator McNamara is married and has a son and daughter and nine grandchildren. He is a member of Pipe Fitters Local 636, the Engineering Society of Detroit, the Economic Club of Detroit, the Crisis Club of Detroit, Executive Board of the Detroit Urban League, the Michigan Association of School Boards, the Detroit Area Regional Planning Commission, and the Executive Board of the Camp Committee of the Franklin Settlement for Boys.

MAYOR HYNES' ADDRESS BEFORE BOSTON BAR ASSOCIATION.

municipal apparatus, every one of them more costly and less efficient than if we had one central apparatus.

The real point is that all of us are paying too much for too little—and the time is now approaching when something not only has to be done, but in my opinion will soon be done.

As lawyers you have sometimes participated in corporate reorganizations. Or perhaps a client has asked you to analyze his business operations in order to find out why he is losing money and also losing ground to his competitors.

Suppose your client operated 40 variety stores of different size in the metropolitan area. Suppose you were satisfied that his employees were faithful and diligent, his merchandise was good, and his sales volume was normal. But suppose you also found that he had a separate purchasing department for each store, a separate maintenance department for each store, a separate lawyer for each store, and a separate accountant for each store—instead of one purchasing department, one maintenance department, one legal department, and so on for all the stores as a group.

In this situation I am sure you would have no difficulty in finding out where and why your client was losing money. And I don't believe you would consider yourself a great financial genius to discover what was obvious.

That in brief substance is the story of our own 40 cities and towns.

Overlapping Expenses.

We have all the expense of overlapping facilities, but none of the advantages, nor even the facilities, that combined purchasing power and combined thinking could give us.

This situation is obvious today—but it has been equally obvious for more than 25 years. You may therefore ask why haven't we yet achieved something along the lines of a combined operation for Metropolitan Boston?

The answer lies in local fear and local pride among the surrounding communities. Both of these are real things, and have to be dealt with on that basis.

The fear of a metropolitan system of government has been a fear of being submerged, fear of loss of local autonomy and local opportunity—a fear of being ruled by Boston politicians.

Coupled with this fear has been a pride in local self-government, local institutions, and local traditions.

Well, if people have an aversion for purple toothpaste, you're not going to change their reactions to purple—you've simply got to give them another color.

And if people have such fear and such pride, you've got to offer them a system of metropolitan government which will allay their fears and maintain their local pride. As I will point out later, I think this can be done.

But the important thing is that, despite this fear and pride, we're going to end up fairly soon with a metropolitan system of some kind, at the insistence of, and by demand of, the suburbanites themselves—because they have begun to notice that their own tax rates are mounting, their own fire and police departments languishing, and their own high standards of government becoming intolerably expensive.

Besides, half the Boston politicians have moved into their own backyards—so they're caught between the devil and the deep blue sea.

It is therefore my belief that a Metropolitan Boston will come about sooner than is generally thought, because of a shift of demand and pressure from the Bostonians to the suburbanites.

The reason lies partly in the very process of decentralization—the movement out from the concrete pavements to the green, green pastures.

As the suburbs grow in population—as the ranch houses proliferate—the suburban tax rate climbs up alarmingly.

New Young Couples.

Every time a new group of young couples settles outside Boston, you can reasonably count on a fresh crop of youngsters.

Youngsters mean kindergartens—kindergartens mean more schools, more teachers, more money, and more taxes.

Then you have to add a few more policemen, for traffic control and other purposes.

And what do you end up with? A modern police department, with all the latest technical facilities you need to cope with the motorized bandit? By no means. You can't afford that. All you end up with is a few more policemen.

Eventually, therefore, and perhaps sooner than you think, the suburbanites will wake up to the high cost of the green thumb, and what they now take for local economy is going to prove itself to be money thrown down the sewer—with no sewer system actually, but only a cesspool in the back yard.

And if you present these suburbanites with a plan of metropolitan government, which will overcome their fears, maintain their local initiative, and at the same time give them a better run for their money—I think they'll grab at it like hungry children reach for syrup and pancakes.

The general principle of the metropolitan plan I have in mind is simple.

Let those things be handled locally which are truly local in nature, such as zoning laws, assessments, school systems, and the like.

Let those things which are metropolitan in character be handled through a Metropolitan Public Service District, such as police, fire, hospitals, health, streets, traffic, and, in my opinion, libraries. This would lead to vast economies, better results for each dollar, and more purchasing power for the total dollars.

Let the local tax rates throughout such a district consist of two components:

1. A district tax, uniformly imposed throughout the district on some equitable formula, to pay for the services performed by the district.
2. A local tax, wholly within the control of the local residents, covering the cost of schools and other local governmental services.

Can Forge Ahead.

How such a district should be organized, how the governing members should be selected, how the district tax should be assessed and imposed—whether on population or geographical area or a combination of both—these are significant details, but they still are merely details.

The important thing is that by this means we can forge ahead for our mutual benefit and contentment. Instead of competing with each other, and trying to tax each other, we can improve our facilities and resources and save ourselves money at the same time.

If sales taxes are to be headed off, one way may lie in such a metropolitan solution to common money problems.

If payroll taxes in Boston on nonresidents are to be avoided, a metropolitan plan of government also seems adapted to such an end.

I think some such system is desirable, practical, and inevitable.

I invite you all to work together to realize this goal.

MAYOR HYNES ASKS AID OF PUBLIC IN HEARING BEFORE CIVIL AERONAUTICS BOARD.

Mayor Hynes stated that Northeast Airlines, founded in Boston, and New England's only locally-based scheduled air line, is one of the 16 original carriers certificated for regular schedules in the whole nation. "Its 22-year history is a history of public service to this region," he said. He also pointed out that, while the other 16 original scheduled air lines have expanded their routes to crisscross the nation and the world, Northeast has remained a regional carrier, partially because communities of the region have not fully proved the public convenience and necessity for expanding the local air line.

Mayor Hynes urged every community of New England to get into this route case hearing. "That way," he said, "we will not only point the way for necessary improvement of our public transportation, but also prove conclusively to the rest of the nation that New England is as progressive, community-minded, and alert as any other region, including Texas and California.

"Northeast Airlines," Hynes said, 'employs more than 1,000 people, has an annual payroll of more than $1,000,000, maintains a $1,000,000 hangar in Boston, has a multimillion dollar fleet of 19 airplanes, and carried more than half a million passengers over its New England routes last year.

"That is the kind of progressive business we are proud of in Boston," he said. "and as a community we must stand up to the other regions of the nation in keeping and expanding it."

In a move to combat juvenile crime, Mayor Wagner of New York City asked Corporation Counsel A. P. Burke to seek the aid of the courts in ridding the bookstores and newsstands of comic books which teach disrespect for law and order and incite crime. The state supreme court, it was indicated, will be asked to grant injunctions against publicatiou, distribution, or sale of several magazines in this category. Police Commissioner F. H. Adams laid the blame for recent "terrible juvenile crimes" on the influence of this type of magazine. Many, he said, are published secretly, and sold "under the counter."

Chicago is planning the installation of radio-controlled traffic lights, described as the first of their kind in the world.

In the beginning thirteen intersections will be radio-controlled, with the antenna on top of the Board of Trade Building south of the Loop business area. Traffic lights will be set to favor the prevailing flow of traffic at particular times of day. Neon signs will indicate to the driver how the signals are set. Cable control at 450 intersections would cost about $3,375,000, or several times the cost of the proposed radio control, City Traffic Engineer Leslie Sorenson explains. The cost of the initial radio installations will be $40,000.

Philadelphia is planning the sale of city-owned land, through a nonprofit corporation, to private industry as a means of checking the movement of tax-paying firms to the suburbs.

The plan, according to the Bond Buyer, calls for the offering of about $10,000,000 worth of land to existing industries which wish to expand or to new companies seeking to build in the city. There is no proposal for tax-free sites or tax reduction. The city, it is said, would transfer title to the land to the Redevelopment Authority, which in turn would turn it over to the nonprofit corporation on guarantee of repayment when sold to an industry.

ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES DEPARTMENT.

Purchasing Division.

BOSTON, January 10, 1955.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On January 6, 1955, your Honor approved a contract to the Eastern Salt Company for delivery of 2,000 tons of rock salt to the Public Works Department, as requested, from January 1, 1955, to March 31, 1955. The total amount specified in the contract has been delivered.

The Public Works Department now requires an additional 2,000 tons of rock salt, and the Parks and Recreation Department has submitted a requisition for 100 tons of rock salt. Since the rock salt is needed as soon as possible, written quotations were solicited and received from the only two companies who have bid on bulk rock salt for the past several years. A price of $14.10 per ton was submitted by both companies, which is the same as the price received on the last publicly advertised bid for this item on August 25, 1954.

Inasmuch as this material is needed immediately and since, in my opinion, no advantage would be gained by publicly advertising for prices, it is requested that permission be granted me to dispense with publicly advertising for prices and award contracts, without public advertisement, to the following companies for the amounts and periods indicated below:

Eastern Salt Company, Public Works Department, 1,500 tons of rock salt at $14.10 per ton, $21,150; Parks and Recreation Department, 100 tons rock salt at $14.10 per ton, $1,410—$22,560; net, 30 days; period of contract, February 1, 1955, to March 31, 1955.

The Chemical Corporation, Public Works Department, 500 tons rock salt at $14.10 per ton, $7,050; net, 30 days; period of contract, January 10, 1955, to January 31, 1955.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN V. MORAN,

is presently in receipt of requisitions for 27,000 more vials of the same material on the original contract.

Authority is requested to dispense with publicly advertising for prices at this time and award a contract without public advertisement, to Herbert J. McLellan, doing business as Clough & Shackley, for furnishing drugs for the period from February 1, 1955, to March 31, 1955, inclusive, at the same price as their current contract.

Approximate total amount of contract will be $2,700, less 2 per cent discount, time of payment.

BOSTON, February 18, 1955.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The Boston City Hospital has requested immediate delivery of 5,000 ampules of Heparin, 1 cc. A price has been received from the manufacturer, Organon, Inc., 20 Main street, Orange, New Jersey.

Inasmuch as no other company makes this product and since the manufacturer will sell direct to the City of Boston, it is my opinion that publicly advertising for prices would serve no purpose or result in any saving to the city.

It is therefore requested that permission be granted me to dispense with publicly advertising for prices and award a contract, without public advertisement, to Organon, Inc., 20 Main street, Orange, New Jersey, for 5,000 ampules of Heparin, 1 cc., at 55 cents each, to be delivered immediately to the Boston City Hospital.

Approximate total amount of contract will be $2,750, less 2 per cent discount, time of payment.

Respectfully yours,

EUGENE K. WELSH,
Acting Purchasing Agent.

DEPARTMENT OF SCHOOL BUILDINGS.

BOSTON, February 11, 1955.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

SUBJECT: Thomas F. Leen School Building.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The only urinal available for use of students, a slate contraption installed in 1923, has so disintegrated and separated in its seams that it has become a health nuisance and menace, requiring the discontinuance of its use and replacement with modern fixtures. For many reasons it must be removed from the building immediately, and I consider it to be in the category of an emergency.

For the work involved in removing and replacing the urinal I solicited five competitive bid estimates, as follows:

Powers & Mehegan Company, $1,726; Frank T. McDonald Company, $1,974; J. M. McCusker Company, $2,068; Henry J. Lyons, $2,107; D. J. Rull, $2,259.

That the work of removing and replacing the urinal may be done without delay, I ask your Honor's approval to authorize me to contract, without advertising, with Powers & Mehegan Company, 500 Broadway, South Boston, in the amount of $1,726, on the basis of specifications and drawing submitted for bid solicitations.

Respectfully yours,

JAMES H. MOONEY,
Superintendent of Construction.

PARKS AND RECREATION DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, February 17, 1955.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR:

Each year we find it necessary to make maintenance repairs to the laundry machinery at the Dover Street Laundry. During the past few years we held these repairs to a minimum, waiting to have authority and funds made available to construct a new laundry. We now expect that the new laundry will be completed by the end of this year. In the meantime we must make repairs and replacements to keep us in operation.

We therefore requested the Poland Laundry Machinery Company, which has made annual repairs on these machines for many years, to make a survey of the repairs necessary and to submit an itemized cost estimate for the work required.

As the result of that survey a report has been submitted wherein is quoted an estimated price of $1,960 to perform the necessary work.

After an examination of the report and the estimated cost submitted, we feel that the itemized repairs noted are necessary and that the price submitted for completing the work is fair and reasonable.

As this firm, specialists in this type of work, has taken care of the equipment in the past, knows the existing condition and the work involved, we feel nothing would be gained by publicly advertising for this work and that it would be in the best interests of the city to award a contract to it at the price submitted.

In view of all this, we respectfully request your permission to dispense with public advertising and to award a contract to the Poland Laundry Machinery Division, Mechanics Iron Foundry Company, 38 Kemble street, Boston, for repairs to laundry equipment, Dover Street Laundry, Boston, for a price not to exceed $1,960, same to be charged to regular Parks and Recreation Department budget, Item 279, "Repairs and Servicing of Equipment."

Respectfully yours,

FRANK R. KELLEY,
Commissioner.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, February 17, 1955.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

In connection with the laying of 12-inch steel water pipe between Moon Island and Long Island it will be necessary to send a representative of the Water Division to the plant of the Pipe Protective Service Company, North Arlington, New Jersey, for the purpose of inspecting the coating and the lining that is to be applied to the steel pipe.

I respectfully request your permission to send Edward J. Pinkul, principal civil engineer, to the above-mentioned plant for the purpose of making the inspection. The cost of the trip is not to exceed $60, and the necessary traveling expense vouchers certified to will be submitted to the City Auditor to cover the expenses of the trip.

Respectfully,

GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

REAL PROPERTY DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, February 17, 1955.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On Saturday, February 5, I received a telephone call from the custodian of the Hyde Park Municipal Building that there was a bad leak in the No. 2 boiler.

An examination showed that the rear section was badly cracked. The boiler is thirty-five years old and the same section was welded seven years ago.

Upon the receipt of the above report and in view of the emergency nature, I had specifications made including the installation of an oil burner and I invited six reputable contractors to quote on the above work with the following results:

P. J. Riley Company, 295 Highland street, Roxbury, $5,575; Joseph P. Dwyer, 103 Park street, West Roxbury, $5,640; J. P. O'Hearn Company, 9 Columbia place, Dorchester, $5,685; Fred Williams, Inc., 47 Ellery street, $5,698; Powers & Mehegan Company, 500 Broadway, South Boston, $5,728; J. M. McCusker, 17 Chestnut avenue, Jamaica Plain, $5,860.

This is an emergency and should be done at the earliest possible moment, for if anything should happen to the other boiler a very expensive freeze-up might occur.

As time is of the utmost importance, I respectfully ask permission to award this work without the usual form of advertising to the low bidder, P. J. Riley Company, 295 Highland street, Roxbury, in the sum of $5,575.

I believe the best interests of the city will be protected in this manner.

Respectfully yours,

GEORGE P. DONOVAN,
Assistant Commissioner.

USE OF PARK DEPARTMENT LAND FOR SCHOOL PURPOSES REFUSED

The following communication was presented:

City of Boston
Park Department
33 Beacon Street, Boston
January 12, 1955

Miss Agnes E. Reynolds,
Secretary
School Committee of the City of Boston
15 Beacon Street, Boston, Mass.

Dear Miss Reynolds:

At a meeting of the Parks and Recreation Commission held at this office, 33 Beacon Street, on January 11, 1955, the Commission again considered the request of the School Department for the acquisition of land in the Fenway section of the city for school purposes. Present at the meeting were members of the School Committee and officials of the School Department.

After full discussion between all interested parties, the Parks and Recreation Commissioners voted to reaffirm their position previously taken in this matter, in meeting of July 27, 1954, when they voted unanimously against the transfer of this property.

Very truly yours,
(Signed) Frank R. Kelley
Commissioner

Placed on file.

The following extract from the Conference notes of this date pertaining to the foregoing matter was ordered spread upon the record:

Mr. Ward: I am only talking about park land now, and I say this for the record: I say that it is a question of whether or not the five duly elected members of the School Committee, who are most urgent in their desire for this particular land to preserve the school system of Boston and to preserve in that section of Boston two of our oldest high schools, are to be thwarted: and if four members of the Park Commission—who are appointed not elected—can thwart the entire school system of Boston, then either the law should be changed and appoint the School Committee or else the law should be changed and elect the Park Commission.

I would like that put on the record and give it to the press tonight and then let's see what the Girls Latin School Alumnae do about it.

IN MEMORIAM

The Superintendent regretfully reported the death of the following-named teacher:

Laid over.

In connection with the foregoing nomination for promotion to the rank of head of department, the following extract from the Conference notes of this date was ordered spread on the record:

Chairman: There are two lists for head of department, a men's list and a women's list.

Superintendent: That is true.

Chairman: Is this policy or tradition or custom of the School Department that we have two separate lists from which we draw on promotional appointments?

Superintendent: That is true.

Chairman. Now there is a woman—number one on the head of department science list at the present time—who seems to have had the understanding that when there was an opportunity at a girls' school for a head of department position, she would be considered for that position.

Now that was my understanding from her. Perhaps you can correct me if I am wrong. I just wish to ask that question as a point of information.

Superintendent: Madam Chairman, that is a very good question. Miss Kelley, who is presently number one on the science head of department list for women, is a very, very fine young lady. Back some time ago she talked with me about the possibilities of her being appointed a head of department.

Now at the time I don't recall that I made any definite commitments to her that she would be appointed to an all-girls' school or to a mixed school. I hope that I do have the opportunity, Madam Chairman, of appointing her to some position either in an all-girls' school or a mixed school some time in the future. She is a splendid girl.

Now the position for which I made the nomination is one in an all-girls' school, but it is one that was vacated by a man, so I gave consideration as to whether I should replace Mr. Dunn, who retired, with Miss Kelley, number one on the women's list, in an all-girls' school, or Mr. Donnellan, number one on the men's list, presently in a mixed school. It gave me considerable concern and I don't want to belabor the question too much but finally I arrived at the conclusion that in this particular case I wanted to nominate Mr. Donnellan.

Mr. Donnellan is number one on the list. He has been a very consistent and fine teacher over a period of years; but if he were to rate the next time he would lose points because of his age.

In other words, it is the last list on which he can be in the appointive zone. In view of his fine service and also of the fact that Miss Kelley is a much younger person and a splendid girl, I felt that in fairness to many years of fine service of a fine man who could not rate and be number one because of his age because of our own rulings, I would like to nominate Mr. Donnellan.

In going over the lists of heads of departments in the high schools, there are several women heads of departments in various subjects in mixed schools. For example, at Charlestown High School we have a woman head of the English department. At Hyde Park High School we have a woman head of the English department. At Jamaica Plain High School—and these are three mixed schools—we have a head of the commercial department who is a woman.

So that Miss Kelley will certainly have a chance for consideration, not only at Girls' Latin School, Girls' High School and the Jeremiah E. Burke High School if Mr. Donnellan should vacate the position, but also in the mixed schools: In view of the age of one versus the age of the other, I felt that I wanted to nominate Mr. Donnellan.

There isn't really too strong a policy one way or another. In general, I like to replace a man with a man and a woman with a woman, but, in general, I like to place a head of department, woman, in an all-girls' school. They were in conflict in this particular case and I felt that this would be the wiser plan.

Mr. Musco: Mr. Superintendent, I realize what your problems are and I also realize that this man is working against time. Now could I find out what his cut-off date is in relation to his age?

Superintendent: I would think that his cut-off date is as of this year. Isn't that true, Mr. Bond?

Mr. Bond: I should think so, yes.

Mr. Musco: This academic year, in June?

Superintendent: I think so. When does the new rating for head of science department come, Mr. Bond? Is it going on this year?

Mr. Bond: No, I think it is next year.

Superintendent: I think that he certainly would be beyond it next year.

Chairman: Are there in your opinion, Mr. Superintendent, at the present time, equal opportunities for women for advancement within the service? I think that if we are paying equal wages by law, which is certainly a just principle, there should be equal opportunities as well for advancement even though that was not legislated. It should be a policy in all justice to the women who do rate on these lists, and some definite idea of promotional opportunities for women or some definite thought should be given to having opportunities equal to those for men.

Superintendent: Certainly, Madam Chairman, it is a point very well taken. It is pretty hard to have a fixed rule in regard to whether it should be a man or a woman. There may be extenuating circumstances the next time which would prompt me to feel that it should be a woman even though the position might be in a mixed school.

I would think in general—and Mr. Daley could answer it, and Mr. Bond also—that there are more heads of departments, men, in the high schools, mixed and girls,' than women. Is that true?

Mr. Bond: 65 to 24.

Superintendent: Now, Mr. Bond, you perhaps wouldn't have the answer to this question, but if you were to take the length of the men's lists in these various subjects like commercial branches and history and English and so on, and the number on the women's lists, would you have any idea of the relationship there?

Mr. Bond: Well, of course, the men far outnumber the women. For example, this year in the rating for ancient language there was only one woman rating against half a dozen men.

Superintendent: So in general there are more men who rate for head of department than women, and that isn't necessarily a criterion, Madam Chairman, but at least it does indicate that there are more men aspiring to be heads of departments, and Mr. Bond points out that it is about three to one—would you say that, Mr. Bond?

Mr. Bond: It is not quite three to one. It is 65 to 24.

PROPOSALS REGARDING JUVENILE DELINQUENCY

Miss Fitzgerald presented the following statement:

May I first make it clear that in my considered judgment there is no cure-all for so-called juvenile delinquency. Even the ancient Greeks complained of the misdeeds of a younger generation. But the modern juvenile lawbreaker has so many avenues in which to express his lawlessness that all of us concerned in any way with youth are agreed that some of our modern scientific methods should be brought to bear upon the problem. It is of course the job of courts and other branches of officialdom to deal with the recorded juvenile delinquent. The boy or girl caught in an act of lawlessness is in a 2% minority.

The schools can make the greatest contribution in lessening juvenile defiance of authority if they concentrate on prevention, that is on solution of children's school problems before they can lead to lawlessness. Experts tell us that if only three out of every ten youngsters with problems relating to school are reached effectively juvenile delinquency can be cut by 65%. Isn't this a goal to work toward? If we are economizing in dollars and cents, how about for a change economizing in the area of wasted lives and cutting down the costly expenditures of good human material?

It has been a part of this School Committee's practice for all of its members to stand behind the just teacher or principal when deserved discipline is administered within the school society. This is important in regaining for young minds a lost respect for duly, constituted authority.

Also, here in Boston we have many special services available to the child with a school problem. But first let me list some of the major difficulties of children which I am sure could be much better described by the classroom teachers who face such children every day. This is the kind of thing the classroom teacher must cope with in her everyday work!

1—The academic failure (this may be a capable child who for some reason can't work up to his capabilities).

2—The withdrawn, unsocial child (he is shy, sensitive and insecure and the teacher cannot reach him to draw him out).

3—The aggressive child or "bully" (his teasing often mounts to sharp cruelty toward others and he is a disruption in the classroom).

4—The child who habitually lies or steals.

5—The truant from home and school.

6—The excessively nervous child who is continually twitching.

7—The overly dependent babyish child who has not reached the maturity for his age.

8—The child who regularly displays temper tantrums.

9—The child who escapes from reality through the medium of day-dreaming.

10—The youngster who is excessively fearful of commonplace experiences.

11—The youngster who wants to leave school at 16 to work, or who works and lives under conditions injurious to his personal or social growth.

Our teachers are hired because they are experts at so imparting and instilling knowledge in young minds that educational skills are developed, and instincts of good citizenship are promoted in all of our children. In addition, a number of our good teachers are equipped to handle many or even all of the problems outlined above. The difficulty is that the teacher cannot give over her classroom time to the solution of these problems which mostly always have roots beyond the school into the home and community. The teacher is responsible for every boy and girl in the class. With all the good will, skill and kindness on the part of the teacher, many children with school problems are not helped.

That is why in Boston we have services available for the classroom teacher to meet an individual child's particular difficulty. The list of such services is impressive:

We have teachers for physically handicapped

We have teachers for the hard of hearing, for those with poor eyesight, for those with reading difficulties, and for those with speech deficiencies

We have testing services to determine a child's ability and to find out if he is living up to them

We have individual guidance counseling (both educational and vocational at high school level only)

We have the M. Gertrude Godvin School which is a very special school and doing a very special job

We have school social service workers

We have medical facilities

We have supervisors of attendance who do home visiting

We have special and sub-special class teachers for children who are slow learners and cannot achieve in the regular school environment.

In all of these services the school system of Boston is showing concern for children with school, personal, home and community problems. If a child is unhappy at home, if the tensions are high at home, if the social climate of his community is low that child needs help.

My question, as a member of this School Committee is, can we all be sure that we are effectively reaching all the children with problems? We do have the services outlined above. Are these services in need of expansion? For example, should individual guidance counseling extend not only to secondary schools but also to elementary schools? Are we using our special services in a logical, orderly coordinated way, bringing them all to bear on each youngster who is troubled? Are we, in other words, standing behind each classroom teacher and saying: You are not alone in your concern for the children you know who need extra help.

Legislation is anticipated in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts which will provide, among other things, additional funds and support for school systems making an improved attack on the prevention and handling of juvenile delinquency. Here in Boston we must make maximum use of those facilities in our school system which I have just mentioned in order to be making an improved attack on juvenile delinquency.

If the Boston schools and all of the personnel charged with giving special services to children direct their attention to coordinating our present services so that we may meet more adequately our present and future needs and so that we may prevent the juvenile lawlessness which inevitably grows out of maladjusted, unhappy children, we may lead the State as its largest city dealing effectively with juvenile difficulties.

I, therefore, make the following proposal to my fellow Committee members and hope that they will approve it:

IN ORDER THAT we may carry out the objective of preventing juvenile delinquency and of helping children who need extra assistance in the solution of their difficulties, it is proposed that the department heads of the following special services:

Department of Adult Educational and Recreational Activities
Department of Attendance
Department of Educational Investigation and Measurement
Department of Physical Education
Dtpartment of School Hygiene
Department of Special Classes
Department of Vocational Guidance
Division of Juvenile Adjustment
Horace Mann School for the Deaf
M. Gertrude Godvin School
Conservation of Eyesight Classes
Remedial Reading Classes
Speech Improvement Classes

meet with the members of the School Committee, the Superintendent of Schools and the Board of Superintendents, so that this entire group may explore and develop a re-organization and coordination of special services for children in the Boston Public Schools.

SCOPE OF THE PLAN

Mr. Musco: Madam Chairman, we know too well that this particular problem is not a local one or even a national one. It is an international one, and I believe for the interest of all the teaching personnel and the parents and the general public that your remarks should be placed in the public record so that they can be absorbed and so that we shall also sustain the teachers' authority in the classroom, and I underline that third paragraph that you have here in that we will stand behind the teaching staff.

Chairman: Thank you very much, Mr. Musco.

May I point out that there are twelve cities, or there are even more than twelve cities, which have coordinated their special services in this way. There will be and there perhaps has already been presented legislation to our General Court which comprehends giving more funds to school systems to do something about improving their methods of dealing with children with problems.

Of course, I think that it is probably a misnomer to say that this proposal regards only youngsters who are juvenile delinquents. It actually means youngsters who have any kind of school problem, no matter how small, and whether it stems rom mental, emotional, or physical roots

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman, before we recess, in the text of the order here it is proposed that the department heads of these different departments meet together with the School Committee members. Is it your intent to have them meet collectively or individually?

Chairman: I would say collectively, Mr. Carr.

Mr. Carr: I see. How would you have these meetings?

Chairman: I would think it could be arranged as a formal or an informal conference at the beginning, to explore the proposal I have made, namely, a co-ordination or reorganization of all these services, so that each youngster who has a problem anywhere in the city gets taken care of right away.

Mr. Carr: Very good.

Superintendent: Madam Chairman, in order to have the full impact of this very fine dissertation which you have prepared, all of these persons concerned should be here together. That is my opinion.

My thought is that there should be a special meeting set aside here in this room with the groups mentioned, and you will have them officially notified that there is a meeting for this particular purpose.

Miss Reynolds might notify these persons, and say that in the public record they will find a copy of Miss Fitzgerald's suggestions; and then I think you will stimulate a great deal more activity.

Later you may decide, Madam Chairman and Members, that you would want to break it down into committee assignments of two or three departments to work on this plan that the Committee has in mind—two or three departments, perhaps, under a group of the assistant superintendents.

Chairman: Of course, my thought in presenting it in just this way was that I felt that it would, as a statement of policy, stimulate discussion. If I should have the good fortune to have the support of my fellow members, I shall look forward to this contemplated meeting among all these department heads, together with the School Committee members and the administrators at the top, to stimulate discussion as to ways in which we could serve the children better with all of the special services that we do have.

It is just a proposal to stimulate thought. Actually I did not make any specific proposal with regard to administration of this kind of coordinated program, for the very reason that I felt that all of the services that are involved should have a say in the matter.

Mr. Musco: Madam Chairman, I for one, I know, and the rest of the members heartily endorse your proposal; and we would like to continue it. I am sure that you could get the department heads together and the administration staff and the School Committee members and others who may be interested and set aside a day and specify a particular meeting for that in the very near future.

Chairman: We will set a date that is agreeable to all of us.

The Conference recessed from 6:50 to 8:15 P. M.

Mr. Lee: Madam Chairman and Members, I go along wholly with what Miss Fitzgerald has said. I think the subject is one of wide boundaries and intimate insides —so much so that it is a good deal of a propostion for any community to handle—this question of the frequent evil doings of our youngsters.

But it seems to me that we have lived with this subject long enough to be able to come to pretty definite conclusions and not to grope as much as our community has been groping. My overall feeling is as follows:

A STRAIGHT DEAL FOR OUR YOUTH

If you offer the youngster a straight deal, he will play it straight. In other words, if you show a youngster that he will benefit by keeping the rules, and that the other fellow will benefit too, then he will keep the rules, even if it takes hardship and discipline for him to do so.

But if he doesn't know what the rules are, or he does know what they are but sees that they will not benefit him and will only benefit the other fellow, then it is pretty hard to get that youngster to follow the rules.

Another way of putting that is to say that in order for this community, either through its school system or its parents, to handle this subject, both parent and community — which includes the teacher—must have some grounds to stand on where they can assure the youngster that he has a fair deal ahead of him,—that is, a proposition which the teacher or parent can put before the child and say: "This is a proposition which is to your benefit. Here is how it works. Now carry it out."

If we don't have a proposition that we can put before the youngster in that way—that is, if we can only offer him an empty prospect or a bad one—then we cannot expect cooperative response.

It seems to me that at present we in some cases do not offer the youngster a good proposition, and in other cases there is a good proposition ahead of him but we don't make it clear to him, so that in a sense we don't offer it.

I would think that probably our school system as a whole needs to make up its mind as to what sort of a future they are offering youth and then proceed to submit the proposition to the growing boy in clearer terms than we have in the past.

I think we have got to begin perhaps by carrying out the matters we talked over at the last meeting — that we probably have to change the conception of schooling from that of mere learning more to that of showing the youngster how to carry on the business of life in a way that is good for him and good for the other fellow.

In other words, we can ask: "What profiteth it a boy to gain all the learning in the world and lose his own soul?" I rather think we have to reorient our emphasis in school, and sacrifice some scholarship here and there, and bend our efforts to see that the youngster is learning a way of life and learning judgments and learning attitudes that will carry him along as a happy and a successful citizen.

Now that all sounds rather vague so far. Part of the changes I would recommend would be changes in our civics courses with those objectives in view; and part of what I recommend would be the exact same thing that Miss Fitzgerald is recommending.

To speak for a moment of that latter matter, I think probably the scale of her recommendations must be taken by us to be very large. I daresay we will have to not only increase and strengthen the departments she referred to but greatly magnify them. I have some clippings recalling or recounting the measures taken in other cities which I shall refer to in a few minutes that indicate a much more profuse and adequate staff for those special departments to meet the growing boy's problems and the growing girl's problems.

ADULTS ARE BOTH DELINQUENT AND JUVENILE

But before I get to these more specific things which our schools can perhaps do, I want to show or indicate where I think the parent is not offering the youngster at present a straight proposition. And that leaves the parent without any platform to talk on which is convincing to the youngster. If we can't stand on some ground that is convincing we can't very well impart out thoughts to our children.

Now the Massachusetts Bar Association is having—maybe it is this week—a meeting in the central part of the state. The chief speaker is going to be the Honorable Samuel Leibowitz, who is, I believe, thought by many to have once been the greatest lawyer defending criminal cases in New York, and since has sat on the bench, and probably has a closer experience with more cases of juvenile trouble than any other jurist in America.

Anyway, he was called upon in a nationwide quiz by the United States News and World Report —which is trying to make some sense out of this subject—for his opinion. Among other things he said this. Judge Leibowitz said:

"We haven't caught up with the know-how of bringing up children in this crazy, topsy-turvy world we live in today. The automobile has tended to destroy community life. People worship new automobiles and television sets and such instead of God. Naturally the children follow suit."

To me it's very significant that the main playground in America has always been the street. And now that playground has been taken away from the younster. It's the adults who are both delinquent and juvenile. Our streets have been made into play streets in entirety—at least after working hours—and the adults come out with their very expensive toys called automobiles, and play game on all the streets, so that the kids can't play any more.

Most of the older generation in this room grew up playing games like "kick the bar" or "relievo" or "white men and Indians" and "tag" and just plain running races or jumping from curb to curb, on the streets; and in the winter we punged on the streets. That was the playground. The streets occupy about a tenth of the city's area, a good deal more than our parks do.

But now the adults have taken over the streets as play streets for themselves; and they play a sort of game of polo every night. Some of them line up in West Roxbury and charge in to the center of the city; and those who live in the center of the city line up and charge out to West Roxbury. Sometimes they make an off-tackle play down through South Boston. Occasionally they make an end run clean out around Route 128.

They sit there behind the wheels and go "honk, honk," and "jingle," "jingle," and just have a wonderful time with their toys. As we went down to lunch, I noticed that some of the finer cars have bullet-heads about the size of the end of a football which they stick on to the front of the car so as to play "choo-choo train," or armored vehicles, a little more realistically.

Well, the result is that the adults play with their toys or pleasure cars all the time, and the youngsters no longer get to play.

Now it is my contention that you cannot sell or you cannot persuade a teen-age boy to behave in a lawful way if you don't give that boy a chance for violent exercise. The history of the race shows that young men need violent exercise. In a more simple civilization, this was the age when he first went on the warpath with his father, or went on the hunt; and it's an age of adventure and daring and courage and the full exertion of prowess. You just can't ask a youngster to sit on the sidewalk or stand on the sidewalk and bar him from strong exercise.

It is only one boy in ten who is on the first team, on a competitive team, in our high schools. We don't have floodlights on our playgrounds for night use. We have floodlights only on the adult play streets for pleasure cars. We ask the youngster—we, the parents—to give up the streets. In order to play with our toys on the street, the parents kick the youngster off the streets on to the sidewalk. Then the cop kicks him off the sidewalk into his home. In the meantime mother and father have both been working in order to buy a car, and are out driving around in the car, so that they don't have any home that is a home. Poppa is on the night shift, and Momma is on the day shift, and the youngster is on the street shift.

So we are offering our youngsters an impossible and a false proposition. I submit that you cannot expect youngsters to grow up into men if you don't give them a chance for violent exercise; and by taking over the streets for the toys of the grown-ups, and making them all play-streets for adults, and for the juvenile amusements of adults, you have deprived the youngster of the natural outlets he used to have.

Now I think the community has just got to face that. If they are going to offer such a poor proposition to the boy, they must expect his relaxedness, his enforced relaxedness, to explode sooner or later. It's going to explode sometime against the law and against the community, which at least is a challenging sort of adventure.

In fact, it would be very bad if youngsters did or were content merely to stand on the street corner and spend their young lives and their young, vigorous manhood in so passive a pursuit.

AN AFTERNOON SCHOOL SPORTS PROGRAM FOR EVERY HIGH SCHOOL BOY

I realize that this is not wholly or perhaps in any sense the fault of the School Department. It nevertheless is one of the big realities today. I am sure you are not going to get boys to take hold of life in a constructive, vigorous way, if you deny them their heritage and birthright of vigorous exercise. So, one of my concrete suggestions is that we incorporate afternoon sports as a regular part of our school program for all teen-age boys.

Now the grown-ups spent about a hundred million dollars last year on giving their play streets a velvet-smooth polish, and making them bigger and better and higher up in the air. They are paying for that themselves through their gasoline tax. I think if they are going to spend a hundred million dollars a year on their own outdoor pleasure, taking away the streets which the youngster always used to play on, they had better expect to spend half of that money, fifty million dollars a year, on giving as much to the boy who needs play to grow up with as they spend on themselves.

I know it's expensive to have an afternoon play period worked in as part of the school system. It will mean establishing new playgrounds. It will mean a lot of money. But if adults can expend a hundred million dollars as they have on just one highway alone, the one that goes across the North End, they can certainly after this be asked through their Legislature to devote half of each of those dollars to the recreation of youngsters.

Now fifty million dollars a year would go quite a way: and our juvenile parents, our juvenile older citizens, have spent double that on themselves this year. They can certainly spend half of that on the youngsters next year. So, that would be one of my recommendations expressed in concrete form.

SOME OF THE PARENTS' TRADE UNIONS GOOD—SOME NOT

I think another case where we fail to offer our boys and girls —our boys especially, and perhaps girls, too—a fair proposition is in regard to their livelihood when they get through school. A great many youngsters do have difficulty getting a job.

Now we adults pride ourselves on our trade unions; and some unions do a very good job but some don't. A good many of them build a fence around themselves consisting of a very high initiation fee or an agreement with employers that nobody shall work in their trade whom they don't want to work, and the result is the youngster gets through school and has no place, or at least finds himself excluded from a great many of the jobs in the community.

In other words, we parents are hogging jobs which youngsters ought to have. In the old days, the youngster came out of school, and he could apply for employment anywhere; and if he had elementary services to offer of an apprenticeship sort, he could then negotiate to be employed. And naturally, offering his services and glad to meet less dollars than the older man, the youngster got the beginning jobs, and the older men moved up and moved out of the lower paid, simpler jobs into the more advanced and better remunerated jobs. And that was an escalator that was absolutely logical and absolutely sensible, and worked out.

But now you have many callings where the older men continue doing rather simple work that the youngsters could learn, and yet put prohibitive dues around their trade, or else have an outright agreement that nobody else can come into that trade anyway.

You can't say to a youngster: "Be a good fellow. Be industrious. Be intelligent. Be hardworking" —and then when he tries to be all those things say: "Oh, no, you can't work here. I have got this job sewed up for me."

The parents can't brush their kids off that way, and can't slam the door in their faces that way, and still expect to get the cooperation of youngsters. In my judgment you have got to put a sound proposition before the young man, and not one from under which you pull the rug as soon as he takes you seriously.

I think we should ask those trade unions that are inconsiderate toward young men to adopt the policies and practices of trade unions which pursue a cooperative policy, one that takes the community into consideration and takes the young fellow into consideration. We have both kinds in the city, and let the less considerate kind learn from their more considerate and more civic-minded fellows.

CIVICS COURSES AND UNCLESAMLAND

Coming down to other features of the school system, or rather coming down to the prospect which lies ahead of the youngster, which the school system must describe to him if we expect him to take the path with even and honest steps, I think we must in our civics courses make more clear to him the nature of the civilization he is going into.

I mean, not only let us have a sports program in which he has a part during the day time, and not only try to have the unions keep their doors open for the graduates; but let us also in our civics classes give the youngster a more convincing understanding of how the country is put together. Then if you show him how it works, what the rules are, that they benefit him and benefit the other fellow, it is my contention he will then carry them out.

In our civics classes I would go over and over again the basic elements of American life. I would tell him frankly this system of ours should be called the "Giving System". The only power you have in America is to give. You can give your dollars, or you can give your service. You can give your service to the fellow who gives dollars to you and give your dollars to the fellow who gives service to you; and with any dollars you get you can then entreat somebody else to render supplies to yourself.

But at least you have no power to hit the other fellow over the head, no power to break into his house, no power to steal his children. All you can do is something good. You can give good service, or express your financial gratitude, called "dollar bills," to the other fellow for good service he gives you.

I think that proposition should be stated very flatly more often to our children; and they should be asked whether they like that system or not. Do they see something better? Would they rather go back to slavery where one man by force imposes his will on somebody else, or some modified form of slavery like dictatorship or lesser kingships and tyrannies?

And if it seems pretty logical to the youngster that each be free to give generous services to the other fellow and receive the other fellow's reciprocation, then make a point of it. Say: "Well, let's stick to that system and let's carry it out, and let's make a go of it, and let's treat it with good will and friendliness."

It seems to me you have got to go over the ground a great deal more to show the boy that it is a fairly good world where no one has any power except to give, and yet where he is always free to give to the person who can reciprocate. We certainly have built up a very competent and very brilliant civilization.

I think those elements as to how the American scene is put together must be gone over in the civics classes more concentratedly than now.

CIVICS COURSES AND RELIGION

On the religious matters which we talked about last week, insofar as that comes into our civics classes, I think again we have got to be a little more abrupt with the youngsters.

I mean, let's put the proposition down flat; Either the great men in the religious world—Moses or Mohammed or Jesus—are not worth paying any attention to, either they were foolish or less smart than we are, or some of them were people good enough to pay attention to. If it seems that any were good enough to heed, then let the boy remember what such a one said and carry it out.

I think the youngster should be made to focus a little more clearly on whether he is going to invent a better religion of his own. If he is not, I think he can then have it called to his attention that he might well heed the wisdom of men respected by his family whose words have been so reverently followed for so many generations.

After all, just as we are experts today on doing good things for each other like making automobiles and mirrors and chewing gum, in those days life was quite different. Wars and slaughter and crucifixions and famines and pestilences were the regular rule of living. Those great works that have come down to us by religious leaders are the works of men who learned to live under those conditions, and learned to take that degree of severity in stride, and, out of it all, to point the way to a kinder and happier civilization.

In other words, they were experts on human relations, and experts on man's relation to existence. It seems to me we ought to make a little more of an issue of it in the classroom as to whether the youngster thinks that any one of those great figures in the moral world are worthy of his respect; and if he finds yes, then let him find out what that one said and carry it out. I think there has been a certain amount of dodging the issue in the boy's mind where he may profess to be a follower of some great religious leader but somehow doesn't relate that to his everyday conduct.

CIVICS COURSES AND STREET-CORNER MORALITY

And then in civics classes I think we ought to help the youngster apply his understanding of this country and how it operates, and his understanding of his religious leaders and what they said, to the every-day affairs of his life. By that I mean particularly the affairs when he is not at home under his parents' control and not in school under the school's control but on the sidewalk pretty much under his own control.

I think the relations between the youngster and the police officer must be gone into a great deal more than we do now. You have got to point out to the boy that the policeman is there to protect each person. He is not there to give orders. He is there to countermand anybody who tries to assert himself or inflict himself on other people. He is simply trying to see — at least legally he is trying to see — that each person has a chance to go his own way without stepping on the toes of the other person. That is, I think we have got to expound the relationships of America in terms of how they appear on the street corner.

It seems to me that one period in our high school civics classes every week should be a seminar in which each boy bring in his chief problem during that week. Perhaps it was a question of walking with his girl friend the previous Sunday past the other gang; and an insulting remark was made. Well, what do you do then? Do you come back later with your gang if you are outnumbered? Do you wait until you get the offender alone? Or do you just say: "Well, the poor fellow was jealous of me because he had no girl," and walk by unconcernedly?

But at least some sort of morality must be worked out with the boy by our teachers which sticks and means something to him, and is taken by him as real and convincing, in guidance of his own conduct when he is on his own feet under the control of nobody but the other citizens of the world he lives in.

I am sure we have got to work out a set of moral values that will hold up in a street-corner application.

OTHER SCHOOL SYSTEMS

I notice that various other, near-by cities have got at many related problems very well. Perhaps—in the sort of civics classes I proposed—if you asked a youngster to bring in what were his chief problems that week he might say: "Well, I hate my father and think he is an idiot, and what will I do about it? He makes life miserable and gives me all kinds of foolish orders."

Now those questions of family relationships are discussed in the Quincy schools. I have the clippings here from a Boston newspaper. It seems to have meant a lot to these youngsters, in the first place, to be able to talk over these feelings of theirs in the classroom, and, in the second place, to be told that it is quite normal for a youngster to go through a period of thinking his father is hostile and generally worthless. That it is part of his growing up processes, cutting away from the family ties.

In other words, a boy can discuss the matters that bother him personally. He is given a perspective, and he can find that other youngsters go through the same things, if we have some period in school when these matters can be talked over.

Other cities have enough adjustment counsellors to recognize cases of youngsters who are going to be problems to themselves at a very early age.

They work with the teachers and through the teachers, so that a youngster who apparently has a distressed and disturbed home life, and is becoming a disturbed personality, is spotted and recognized at a very early age. Of course, it takes trained personnel, and it takes a lot of personnel.

However, it seems to be the logical solution in reaching the particular type of child we have to reach. I don't want to stop and read you all these different clippings from various newspapers referring to various other school systems But at least if we take the best features of all the cities and towns round about, we find them doing things that we may try to do, but things that we just haven't the personnel to do as thoroughly as they have been done in the smaller communities. I am afraid we will have to think in terms of huge expansions of those departments. I am all for Miss Fitzgerald's line of thought.

We need to face it whether we are going to educate children to be good and happy citizens or not; and if we are going to, we had better put our money in that direction.

If it's a choice between good citizens and learned citizens, give me the good citizens.

Now I have covered a good many of the points, Madam Chairman, that I had in mind. I am just trying to look over some of these papers to see what I may have missed.

CO-ORDINATION

Mr. Museo: Madam Chairman, I would like to pursue Mr. Lee's thought just a little longer and would suggest that we designate, after we have all of our thoughts jelled, one person who can co ordinate this activity, which to us is a very important subject

Chairman: Mr. Museo and Mr Lee, I think that is the intent of the proposal. The meeting of all these heads of various special services should discuss that kind of coordination, under a particular head if that is the way it is administratively best to organize it; and they all should work toward that end of handling all of the maladjusted youngsters who have difficulties, or are apt to get into difficulties, in the school picture.

Are there any other comments? Mr. Museo, you are proposing the Director of Physical Education and the Director of Adult Education?

Mr. Museo: Yes, I am asking that they be included in that list of ten.

Superintendent: The two of them.

Chairman: Put those two in the list.

COURSES NEXT YEAR IN HOW TO BRING UP CHILDREN

Mr. Lee: Madam Chairman, as Mr. Museo was speaking I just had a chance to go over a few notes to see if I missed anything worth mentioning. I did miss one thing I want to very much emphasize, and that is something we have talked about here before and which is now in process.

That is the proposition, now being formulated under the Superintendent, to teach our girls, at least starting next year, how to bring up children. As you have heard me say many times, if we take girls and whip them out of the home into the high-pressure curriculum of high school work, in preparation for secretarial services or salesmanship, and knock the basic ideas and instincts of motherhood out of their minds, and take them away from the old-fashioned home where grandma was in the corner and mother and the other children were around, it certainly is up to us to reinstate into their lives that which we have taken out.

Certainly motherhood is the main and most important and the most sacred and most fundamental and most world-making of the works that our womenfolk do: and I am sure we are always going to fall short of having the kind of children we would like to see, so long as we refrain from educating our girls in how to bring up children. I am sure we are going to take a tremendous stride to get away from the conditions of which we now complain as soon as we get courses in our schools on how to bring up children.

So I am wondering if that topic should be added to this agenda, Madam Chairman; or is it so separate that it should be separately considered?

Chairman: I think actually we have discussed your proposal for home-making, and I am sure we can probably give much more thought to it and implementation to it as a separate subject.

I think it is important enough to do; but this proposal of mine looks forward to a coordination and reorganization of special services to youngsters with problems, though I think there are other things we can do, certainly, to help better the situation.

However, I think this is a beginning step; and if we have all of the people who are working in special services thinking along these lines, we are making a beginning and we can only take one step at a time.

Superintendent: Madam Chairman, may I say that Mr. Ohrenberger has just informed me that he is planning on meeting with two or three individuals some time this week and they will help to crystallize or jell some of these ideas that Mr. Lee has expressed to us on motherhood.

Isn't that true, Mr. Ohrenberger?

Mr. Ohrenberger: Yes, Mr. Superintendent.

Chairman: That will be a specific report from your group Mr. Ohrenberger, at a future business meeting?

Mr. Ohrenberger: Yes.

Superintendent: It won't be right off because it will take some time.

Chairman: But in the future.

Mr. Ohrenberger: It is in the form of stages, Madam Chairman.

STRATEGIC MEETING ON DELINQUENCY FINALIZED

Chairman: May I suggest if there are no further comments from the other members on the subject of item 4 that we set a date two weeks from tonight to have this particular meeting among all the special groups?

Mr. Carr: That is all right with me.

Chairman: Will that be all right with the members.

Mr. Lee: Just looking forward to that meeting, are we going to ask these of our staff who come to that meeting to make recommendations only for their own departments? There is a very important point. Or, are we asking them to make recommendations for the classrooms as a whole?

I mean this. Possibly someone concerned with the Attendance Officers' Department or with the Juvenile Adjustment Department or with the Guidance Department might hesitate to say that every classroom or every school district should have a staff of A, B, and C persons concerned with adjustment counselling. Yet the public looks to this school system to meet and correct the present conduct of our boys. I am sure we have got to contemplate at least getting persons skilled in these fields out into each school district. I mean perhaps a staff ten times as big as what you have now might be the right size.

Now are these people going to be authorized to bring in their recommendations as broad as the whole school system?

Chairman: They are coming in specifically to explore this proposal with an aim toward reorganization and coordination. Perhaps if you want to use another word, use "integration" of the services they offer.

In other words, if they feel that the services that their particular departments can offer could be better utilized if there were a different organization setup, then I could expect the people in any particular division would bring in such recommendations to this particular meeting. That is what I contemplated. Now maybe the other members put a different interpretation on it.

Mr. Lee: I would think that was very fine.

Mr. Museo: Madam Chairman, is it agreed that January 31st shall be this meeting date?

Chairman: For the special service groups?

Mr. Museo: Yes.

Chairman: Those named in the proposal.

Mr. Lee: Madam Chairman, pulling together with another jerk the thoughts we have gone through tonight, it is obvious that many of the suggestions I had are going to come down to a specific focusing through the eyes of our specialists; but perhaps the suggestion of mine that went beyond was the idea of sports being incorporated as a regular part of school work.

I wasn't quite clear from what Mr. Museo said whether our Director of Physical Education—who, I suppose, would be in charge of such a thing, if it was adopted—was going to be a part of this group in conference.

Chairman: He is proposing that the Director of Physical Education and the Director of Adult Education be included among the other directors who have been asked to participate in this conference.

Mr. Lee: And then the Superintendent's idea is that they would consider some of these outside proposals, like including a sports program for everybody—the same as your son would get if he went to Andover or Exeter or St. Paul's or Groton or Noble and Greenough's or Browne and Nichols' or Roxbury Latin.

There is one other case where my suggestions may have gone outside of yours. That is on the matter of civics classes. Now Mr. Ohrenberger, or Mr. Daley particularly, are working on that?

Mr. Ohrenberger: Civic education is that particular course, I feel, that brings all these things to a focal point; and we have a definite progressive program in operation at this particular time which we are attempting to expand.

Mr. Lee: At least, then, the question of civics courses will come into this discussion which this Committee will take up.

Mr. Ohrenberger: That might well implement the findings of this particular committee.

Mr. Lee: Then, last of all, I made the suggestion that we may have to reorient our whole educational philosphy to think in terms of educating for good citizenship rather than merely for scholarly citizen. Now as far as I am concerned here— and here I again step outside of Miss Fitzgerald's recommendations — the head master can be responsible. In other words, it seems to me the School Committee after due deliberation might say to head masters:

"We don't think education has justified itself unless you are turning out good and law-abiding and constructive boys.

"Today the percentage of failures in that respect is too high. You have the Juvenile Adjustment Bureau and Attendance Officers' services and the sports department to call on. But it is you, Mr. Head Master, whom we hold responsible for this new conception: that your job is to turn out people who have learned how to live at peace with themselves and each other and with the God that made them."

In other words I would like to see education redefined so that the head masters and principals in the future think of themselves as responsible for the child's spiritual health, to use the word we were using a week ago, and not think of themselves merely as graduating the child with good enough marks to go to college or good enough marks to do this or that or to get into the next grade.

Mr. Carr: It is the harmonious development of all the faculties, Mr. Lee.

Mr. Lee: I think that is a very good way of putting it—sure.

To put it another way, I don't think we are under obligation to bring the children to any particular degree of perfection in various subjects, like arithmetic or natural science or geography; but we are, as we pointed out the other night, under an obligation to teach piety; and I think we ought to take our laws and ourselves seriously in that respect, and say that we expect the head masters to produce good children. We don't care how they do it, but it must be done; and that is what our school system is going to be for in the future. "We will give you all the help possible from specialists in the field; but, Mr. Head Master, we are going to hold you responsible for developing healthy personalities that want to keep the peace with themselves and the other fellow and with their Maker."

Now whether this conference is broad enough to contemplate that, I don't know. To me, it should be. To me, any specialist at this conference should feel free to say: "We can't get anywhere until the head masters think of the education of a happy and law-abiding youngster as their first consideration."

A special department might say: "We must look to the classroom teacher or the head master to proceed on those lines before our work can become effective," and if that is how they feel, I think they should be given latitude to express thoughts as broad as that.

In other words, I think that all the subject matter of tonight's meeting ought to be thrown for consideration before this group; and if it doesn't fall in the particular department of anyone, then Mr. Ohrenberger, if he is in charge, certainly has a broad enough responsibility to have it come within his jurisdiction.

Is that all right with you, Madam Chairman?

Chairman: Yes.

PUBLIC IMPROVEMENT COMMISSION HAS RENAMED SOME 200 PRIVATE WAYS IN CITY FOR PUBLIC CONVENIENCE—COMPLETE LIST OF ALL PRIVATE WAYS ALSO TO BE MAILED TO INTERESTED CITIZENS—LIST APPROVED BY MAYOR.

INCOME FROM WATER SERVICE FOR 1954 INSUFFICIENT TO PROVIDE FOR OPERATING EXPENSES — FIGURES FURNISHED MAYOR HYNES BY CITY AUDITOR POINT TO DEFICIT OF $115,469.05 — TRANSFER OF FUNDS REQUIRED.

Income of the Water Service for the year 1954 was not sufficient to provide for the operating expenses, according to figures furnished Mayor Hynes by Joseph P. Lally, City Auditor. The deficit, according to the figures submitted, amounted to $115,469.05, thus requiring a transfer of funds from City Debt Requirements, Interest, to meet the situation.

HURRICANE RELIEF BOARD COMPELLED TO CALL ON UNEXPENDED CITY AND COUNTY APPROPRIATIONS TO CARE FOR REPAIRS TO PUBLIC PROPERTY DAMAGED IN 1954 BLOWS — $345,383.23 NECESSITATED FOR ACCOUNT NUMBER 1 AND $127,451.72 FOR ACCOUNT NUMBER 2 — ALL DEPARTMENTS CALLED ON TO SHARE.

Unexpended departmental appropriations for the year 1954 have been called upon by the auditor, Joseph P. Lally, with the approval of Mayor Hynes, for repairs to public property necessary to preserve such property not provided for by the Hurricane Relief Board. This comes about because of the indefiniteness of the authority under which the Board has been permitted to act by State legislation.

This has resulted in transfer of appropriations from various items in the city budget amounting to $275,223.41; from the county budget of $34,402.94; school budget of $35,756.88, making a total of $345,383.23 to Hurricane Emergency Account Number 1, and transfers from other departments amounting to $127,451.72 to the appropriation for Hurricane Emergency Account Number 2.

The communication from City Auditor Joseph P. Lally to Mayor Hynes recounting the information reads as follows:

February 18, 1955,
as of December 31, 1954.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR:

Under the authority of section 16, chapter 486, Acts of 1909, as amended, departments were authorized to incur liabilities in excess of amounts appropriated because of the extreme emergency involving the health and safety of persons and property caused by the hurricanes of August 31, 1954, and September 11, 1954. Chapter 689, Acts of 1954, an act relative to the alleviation of certain financial burdens caused by the hurricane of August 31, 1954, provided for the establishment of a Hurricane Relief Board with authority to approve reimbursements to cities and towns for expenditures made for the clearance of debris and repair of damages.

Under the rules established by the Hurricane Relief Board governing their approval for reimbursement, certain restrictions prevent us from obtaining full reimbursement. For example, reimbursement for expenditures for major items of equipment is limited to 20 per cent of the cost, and reimbursement will be made only for temporary repairs to public property necessary to preserve such property.

Reimbursement towards the cost of permanent repairs may be approved in an amount equal to the cost of temporary repairs had such temporary repairs been made. Because of the indefinite nature of this latter restriction, it is not possible to know exactly what reimbursements will be received and the extent to which funds will have to be provided from other sources.

Therefore, in order to provide for emergency hurricane expenditures for which no reimbursement will be received from the Commonwealth, I propose, in connection with the closing of 1954 accounts, with your approval, in accordance with section 3B, chapter 486 of the Acts of 1909, as amended, to transfer unexpended department appropriation balances as follows:

HOSPITAL DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, February 21, 1955.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

I respectfully request your Honor's approval of the selection by the Board of Trustees of the Hospital Department of the engineering firm of J. M. McCusker Associates, 17 Chestnut avenue, Jamaica Plain, to prepare plans and specifications for complete replacement of underground sewer lines beneath the basement of the Medical Building at Boston City Hospital.

The main and lateral lines for sewage in this building have deteriorated to the extent that sewage leakage presents an emergency situation and a health hazard.

As there is a universally accepted standard rate for professional engineering services, I ask your approval of the procedure of dispensing with public advertising in the City Record because of the urgency of the situation, since it is considered nothing would be gained by public advertising.

All details of engineering fees, payments, etc., will be included in the formal contract.

Respectfully yours,

RICHARD J. CONDON,
President, Board of Trustees.

BOSTON, February 21, 1955.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

A recent break in a 4-inch high pressure fire line pipe in a pipe tunnel leading to the Administration Building of Boston City Hospital produced a serious flood condition in the building's basement. The services of a Fire Department pump were needed in addition to pumps of our own maintenance department in order to prevent extensive water damage to stored hospital records.

Because of the serious nature and extent of the emergency situation it was voted by the Trustees of the Hospital Department that John J. Appel, general contractor, 23 Sunnybank road, West Roxbury, be engaged for the necessary immediate repairs.

The work involves removing approximately 150 feet of 4-inch fire line pipe, including defective and leaking sections, the removal of two 4-inch defective and corroded valves, the removal of bends and other fittings, the removal of all old hangers, the redrilling of holes in concrete wall and ceiling, the installation of new hangers, the furnishing and installation of approximately 150 feet of 4-inch galvanized fire line pipe, two new 4-inch gates, the furnishing of all other flanges, bolts, nuts, and other fittings, including a 4x4x2 tee and 2-inch valve to enable the line to be blown down or flushed. The work includes the removing of all debris and the performance of all incidental work.

Because of the emergency nature of the work your Honor's approval is requested for the selection of John J. Appel to make the necessary repairs and to furnish the necessary labor and materials without advertising in the City Record.

An upset price of $2,900 has been obtained. The emergency work here requested will not exceed this amount.

Respectfully yours,

RICHARD J. CONDON,
President, Board of Trustees.

BOSTON, February 25, 1955.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The Trustees of the Hospital Department have voted to request the award of a contract without public advertising to J. P. O'Hearn & Co., plumbing and heating contractors, 9 Columbia place, Dorchester, for extensive alterations, repairs, and installations in the Central Sterile Supply area in the basement of the Maternity Building at Boston City Hospital. An upset price of $10,400 has been set. The cost is not to exceed this amount.

Numerous conferences have been held with the plant superintendent, the Hospital Department's consulting engineer, the Central Sterile Supply supervisor, the city plumbing inspector, and the representatives of the manufacturers of the various items of equipment now delivered to our Central Sterile Supply and awaiting installation.

It was decided that the very extensive work could not be done by the hospital's maintenance personnel. It was also decided that properly detailed specifications could not be prepared for the very extensive and intricate work involved in order to invite formal competitive bids. This is due to the fact that most of the work will have to be conducted under continuing supervision of hospital maintenance and consulting personnel and representatives of the suppliers of the several and expensive items of apparatus and equipment concerned.

Your Honor's permission to award this contract to J. P. O'Hearn & Co., without advertising in the City Record, is therefore requested.

Respectfully yours,

RICHARD J. CONDON,
President, Board of Trustees.

BOSTON, February 25, 1955.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The Trustees of the Hospital Department voted on February 11, 1955, to request informal written sealed bids for certain alterations to an area located on the Accident Floor in the Dowling Building of Boston City Hospital.

The alterations are necessary in view of our desire to place in operation at the earliest possible date the X-ray Unit for obtaining chest films on all patients admitted to the hospital.

Existing doors opening into a heavily traveled corridor must be removed and replaced with sliding doors. A new and fixed supervising nurse's station desk must be furnished and installed, and a new doorway must be cut through in the area opposite the new X-ray Unit. The unit is otherwise completely furnished and ready to operate.

Bids were opened at the Superintendent's office at Boston City Hospital on February 24, 1955. Bids were received from:

Schwamb Construction Corporation, $1,545; Gerry and Northrup Company, $1,550; M. Solimando, $1,600.

Since the bids on the proposed work are in excess of $1,000, and since it is most urgent to complete the work and place this unit in operation at the earliest date, your Honor's permission to award this contract, without advertising in the City Record, to the low bidder, Schwamb Construction Corporation, general contractors, 100A West Springfield street, Boston, in the sum of $1,545, is requested.

Respectfully yours,

RICHARD J. CONDON,
President, Board of Trustees.

BOSTON, February 25, 1955.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The Trustees of the Hospital Department voted on January 28, 1955, to request your Honor's permission to award a contract without advertising in the City Record for the installation of a ceiling in the Central Sterile Supply area of Boston City Hospital to Dillaby Fireproofing Company, in the amount of $4,851.

Extensive alterations were previously made in the Central Sterile Supply area. The present ceiling is rough-finished and flaking of the surface offers a hazard to the preparation of sterile materials and kits. This has been a factor contributing to the prolonged delay in operating the Central Sterile Supply services.

The proposed construction is a drop ceiling of translucent plastic panels. This will eliminate a dust and contamination hazard and furnish a uniform diffused light source from existing fixtures.

The Flax Corporation's product, which has been selected for this installation, is available at this time only through Dillaby Fireproofing Company, exclusive suppliers in the Boston area.

Your Honor's approval of the award of this contract without advertising will be very much appreciated.

Respectfully yours,

RICHARD J. CONDON,
President, Board of Trustees.

PARKS AND RECREATION DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, February 23, 1955.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR:

During the past two years we have advertised for bids on two contracts to construct permanently paved walks with incidental drainage in our Boston Public Garden. Our first contractor, by not having the equipment and knowledge to properly schedule his work, caused the work to be delayed so much that we were besieged with a multitude of complaints, although the work was eventually completed satisfactorily.

The low bidder on the second advertised contract, John McCourt Company, did the work in a competent and workmanlike manner within the time specified, with the exception of the seal coating which we instructed them to hold up until the warmer spring weather.

We are now ready to complete the third and last phase of this work, and wish to complete it before the Art Festival is held there in June. With this in mind we approached the McCourt Company and asked if they could construct and complete this final phase of the work before that time. They have assured us that they can and are willing to negotiate the new contract at the same unit prices that they bid on the previous contract, which was publicly advertised, and on which they were the lowest of the four firms that bid for the contract.

In addition to the items for which unit prices were bid in the previous contract, we have an additional item of "Loam Furnished and Spread," which the McCourt Company has offered to complete at a unit price of $3.50 per cubic yard. This price is about the average price usually received for this type of work.

I believe that the unit prices offered are fair and reasonable and that this company has the equipment and experience to do the work required expeditiously in a proper and workmanlike manner.

In view of all this and believing it would be in the best interests of the city, I respectfully request your permission to dispense with publicly advertising and to award a contract on a unit price basis as noted above, to John McCourt Company, Readville for constructing bituminous concrete walks, Public Garden, Boston, for an estimated total sum not to exceed $40,000, same to be charged to the Parks and Recreation Department budget, "Park and Playground Improvements, etc., 1-11-41-813."

Respectfully yours,

FRANK R. KELLEY,
Commissioner.

REAL PROPERTY DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, February 17, 1955.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

An emergency call from Curtis Hall relative to repairs on the swimming pool circulating pump resulted in finding that the valves on pump lines, 4-way directional flow valves on swimming pool filter, and other valves were defective, and from a safety point of view and from a health point of view it was of an important emergency nature. Briefly the work is as follows:

One 4-inch valve, gravity feed to pump from swimming pool, leaks badly, and two 3-inch valves on circulating pump line leak so as to make it impossible to repair pump. (Valves were installed in 1931.) This is of an emergency nature. Check valve on waste line is leaking, and defective Roberts 4-way valve should be done immediately. This valve is part of installation made in 1931. The 5-inch defective gate valve from steam line to hot water generator is leaking badly and is in a dangerous condition.

Upon the receipt of the above report, and in view of the emergency nature, I had specifications made, and I invited six reputable contractors to quote on the above work with the following results:

Powers & Mehegan Company, 500 Broadway, South Boston, $1,290; Joseph F. Dwyer, 103 Park street, West Roxbury, $1,371; P. J. Riley Company, 295 Highland street, Roxbury, $1,395; Fred Williams, Inc., 47 Ellery street, $1,397; Joseph P. O'Hearn & Co., 9 Columbia place, $1,465; J. M. McCusker Company, 17 Chestnut avenue, Jamaica Plain, $1,385.

This is an emergency that should be done at the earliest possible moment, for it involves a dangerous condition, also a health menace.

As time is of the utmost importance, I respectfully ask permission to award this work without the usual form of advertising to the low bidder, the Powers & Mehegan Company, 500 Broadway, South Boston, in the sum of $1,290.

Very truly yours,

GEORGE P. DONOVAN,
Assistant Commissioner.

BOSTON, February 23, 1955.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

From time to time it is necessary for this department to hire a 1½-ton truck.

We issue service orders in each case for a definite number of hours for certain periods. Under these orders the contractor, the Ford Contracting Company, 153 River street, Mattapan, furnishes the truck with chauffeur or operator, and all the gasoline and oil, at a rental rate of $3.50 per hour. The cost of hiring this equipment will be in excess of $1,000.

In my opinion nothing could be gained by publicly advertising for bids, since this contractor's rate is fair and reasonable. I therefore respectfully request your permission to hire this equipment, a 1½-ton truck, upon the issuance of service orders at the rate of $3.50 per hour from the Ford Contracting Company.

Very truly yours,

GEORGE P. DONOVAN,
Assistant Commissioner.

This extension was requested because the painting subcontractor was unable to complete the work on account of weather conditions.

FIRE DEPARTMENT ORDERS.

General Order No. 11.

LETTER OF APPRECIATION.

After the recent fire at the House of the Good Shepherd, His Excellency, Richard J. Cushing, Archbishop of Boston, congratulated the members of the Boston Fire Department for the services they rendered during and after the fire.

Unfortunately, we were not able to have the remarks transcribed even though we made every attempt to do so. It was felt at the time that the remarks were so exceptionally laudatory that they would be interesting to the members of the department. However, the letter below contains his thanks which we feel should be brought to the attention of all members of our department.

"ARCHBISHOP'S HOUSE,
2101 COMMONWEALTH AVENUE,
BRIGHTON, MASS.
February 2, 1955.

The Communion Breakfast Committee of the Boston Fire and Protective Department.

MY DEAR FRIENDS:

At the outset I want to thank you for your many kind and generous deeds in our behalf. The latest of your great accomplishments was the way you handled that fire at the House of the Good Shepherd. You certainly did a magnificent piece of work.

When I went there the next day I was surprised how orderly everything was. We have an expensive job to renovate the place because the Sisters have little insurance on the building and they have no funds for building purposes. Like many of our institutions, they just about make ends meet.

As a visible expression of my gratitude to you for all your wonderful work I am taking a very personal interest in your coming Communion Breakfast. The date is Mother's Day, May the eighth. The Mass is scheduled at St. Vincent's Church, at nine o'clock. Following the Mass and Holy Communion we will march in a body to Blinstrub's Village for the Communion Breakfast. I hope you will have a goodly representation.

Begging God's choicest blessings upon you all and with the assurance that I am always at your command, I am

Your ever grateful and devoted friend,

RICHARD J. CUSHING,
Archbishop of Boston."

By order of Fire Commissioner FRANCIS X. COTTER.

JOHN V. STAPLETON,
Chief of Department.

General Order No. 12.

1955 RED CROSS FUND CAMPAIGN FOR GREATER BOSTON.

His Honor, Mayor John B. Hynes, has asked that all city employees contribute to the 1955 Red Cross Fund Campaign for Greater Boston, which begins March 1 and will continue during the month.

The week beginning Monday, March 7, has been designated as "Boston Fire Department Contribution Week." The Fire Commissioner asks that all members of the department make their contributions during this particular week. Company commanders are requested to interview each member of their commands during the week and ask them to make a contribution. It is desired that the campaign in the department be completed during the week beginning March 7.

For the past few years the Fire Department has not met its quota, while other city departments have—and in some cases have exceeded their quotas. Annual membership in the Red Cross starts at $1, and it is hoped this year we will achieve 100 per cent membership.

The money collected from the Fire Department this year will be used to defray in part the expense of operating the Emergency Wagon, which is a familiar and welcome sight to all members of the department. This wagon has responded to long stands on request of the officer in charge, even though the alarm was not a multiple.

Some of the tasks being accomplished by the Red Cross are as follows:

(a) Serving hot coffee and food to fire fighters during lengthy stands, or other incidents in Boston.
(b) Providing large amounts of blood plasma for instant use.
(c) Training of persons in first aid.
(d) Services to the armed forces both here and abroad.

Pledge cards—one for each member of the department— are being issued with this order. These cards are to be filled out and returned to Miss Eleanor J. Cunniff in Headquarters during week of March 7, 1955. Stubs on pledge cards should be filled out by company commanders and division heads and given to contributors as receipts. Company commanders will also sign in the space allowed for solicitor's signature.

Company commanders and division heads shall place completed cards, together with any money received, in the Captain's Report Envelopes and seal the envelopes. The company number should be written in the space at the top, and the address will be given as "Boston Fire Department." The names of those contributing will be listed on the envelope, with the total contribution, amount paid, and balance due in each case.

Envelopes containing pledge cards and currency can be delivered to Headquarters on any weekday during week of March 7, between 9 A.M. and 4 P.M., excluding Saturdays. If, for any good reason, a member cannot make his contribution during the week of March 7, it will be accepted on or before March 26, 1955.

Deputy Chief John F. Howard of Division 1 is chairman of the Red Cross Fund Campaign in the Boston Fire Department.

If additional pledge cards are required, they may be obtained at Headquarters.

By order of Fire Commissioner FRANCIS X. COTTER.

JOHN V. STAPLETON,
Chief of Department.

General Order No. 13.

The members of Engine Company 20 who worked at Box 3455, 12.07 A.M., February 17, 1955, are hereby commended for their prompt action and efficient teamwork. The fire was in a three-story wooden frame dwelling at 187 Neponset avenue. They were successful in removing a woman and three children from the burning building under difficult conditions. This action by these members reflects credit on themselves and the Boston Fire Department.

By order of Fire Commissioner FRANCIS X. COTTER.

PROCEEDINGS OF CITY COUNCIL.

Monday, February 14, 1955.

Regular meeting of the City Council held in the Council Chamber, City Hall, at 2 P.M., President HURLEY in the chair. Absent, Councillor Kerrigan.

The Reverend Francis J. McDonnell, of St. Agatha's Catholic Church, Milton, was escorted to the rostrum.

INVOCATION BY REV. FRANCIS J. McDONNELL.

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

Almighty and Eternal God, look down upon these, Thy servants who have been chosen to guide, direct and lead this great city. Give to them the strength to rise above every selfish ambition, every partisan loyalty, that they might conscientiously discharge their heavy responsibility to Thee and to the people of Boston.

Grant to them the grace of wisdom that they may despise mere expediency and develop a deep sense of right and wrong. Bless them with the gift of understanding that they may be aware of the hearing that their individual actions have upon the common good. Counsel them that they may ever choose the surest way of pleasing Thee, and help them to remember that Thy ways are not always the ways of men. Pour into their hearts the spirit of fortitude that they may always prefer rebuke, ridicule and humiliation in the cause of justice to praise and honor in all that is less than Thy holy will. Fill them with the virtue of knowledge that they may sense Thy greatness and their own littleness. Deign that they may have always the spirit of piety, realizing that Thou art their loving Father, and may they ever find Thy service sweet and amiable. Direct them that they may always walk in the fear of Thy judgment, giving to Thee a loving reverence and ever dreading to displease Thee in any way.

We have asked, O Almighty God, much for them because they need much. Theirs is a most difficult task. They have been chosen by men for leadership, but they must be beholden to no man. Yet men subject them to cajolery and coercion, to pressure and tension, and in the weakness of human nature, they must transcend all temptation.

They do, indeed, need all that we ask for them. Therefore, we beseech Thee, O Lord, grant to them these gifts, and through them may they ever have the light and the courage to seek, not their own wills, nor the will of men, but Thine and Thine alone. Amen.

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

The meeting was opened with the salute to the Flag.

City of Boston,

Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

This communication is sent in response to the following order passed by the City Council on January 31, 1955:

"Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor request the Corporation Counsel to give the Boston City Council a ruling of law on whether or not the State Housing Authority must approve a vote of the Boston Housing Authority increasing the rentals of those public housing units controlled by Chapter 372 of the Acts of 1946."

The matter referred to in the above-quoted order is governed by St. 1946, c. 372, s. 9, which as amended by St. 1947, c. 479, s. 5, is free from ambiguity and by its explicit terms makes it plain that the rates for rents and prices to be charged to veterans for housing accommodations under Chapter 372 of the Acts of 1946, as amended, are to be determined by the Boston Housing Authority, subject to the approval of the State Board of Housing.

Respectfully,
WILLIAM L. BAXTER,
Corporation Counsel.

Subject: Rentals—Chapter 372 Program, City Council Order of January 31, 1955.

Dear Mayor Hynes:

In response to your letter of February 3, 1955, he advised that this Authority has decided that it will not make any changes in rentals on the Chapter 372 program effective until it has discussed the matter with the City Council.

You are no doubt aware that a public hearing on this matter is to be held by the Council in its chambers on Friday, February 11, 1955, at 2.30 P.M.

The Authority will be represented at that meeting.

Very truly yours,
JAMES J. MAHAR, Chairman.

RESURFACING WASHINGTON STREET, BETWEEN EGLESTON SQUARE AND FOREST HILLS.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, February 14, 1955.

To the City Council.
Gentlemen:

I transmit herewith communication from the Commissioner of Public Works relative to your order of January 24, 1955, concerning the resurfacing of Washington street, between Egleston square and Forest Hills.

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Public Works Department,
February 14, 1955.

Harold B. Flemming,
Chief Clerk, Mayor's Office.

Dear Sir:

This is in reference to the following order that was passed in the City Council under date of January 24, 1955:

"Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works he requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to resurface Washington street, hetweeu Egleston square and Forest Hills."

The above section of Washington street is in a poor condition and has been for many years. The existing roadway area contains a granite block surface and lends itself to covering with a hituminous concrete type of surface material if the existing streetcar tracks were abandoned. However, these tracks are in service and apparently will remain in service for many years to come, and, therefore, the department is obligated to effect a very expensive reconstruction project. With the tracks remaining in service, it will be necessary to remove the existing granite block pavement and lay a hituminous hase and a bituminous top, which is a far more expensive project than a bituminous resurfacing operation utilizing the existing granite block pavement as a base. The additional expense to the city will approximate $30,000, as it is estimated that it will cost $60,000 to resurface over the existing pavement, and $90,000 to remove the existing blocks and provide a bituminous hase and a hituminous surface.

I discussed this matter with Mr. Dana of the M. T. A., and he informed me that the streetcar tracks must remain in operation as they provide the only means of getting the streetcars used on the Blue Hill Avenue line and the North Station line to the Forest Hills area for storage and minor repairs. He further informed me that this line will probably remain in service for some years to come. Therefore, we must undertake the more expensive resurfacing project with its inherent delays to traffic and inconvenience to the ahutting business houses rather than the more expeditious and more economical project of providing a hituminous surface over the existing roadway area.

While the present roadway is in a very poor condition, it does have the advantage of slowing up traffic and discouraging motorists from using the street as a through highway. The section of Washington street, from Forest Hills to Egleston square, is very narrow and it will become a very dangerous highway after the resurfacing work has been completed.

Respectfully yours,
GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

AMENDMENTS TO THE BOSTON BUILDING CODE.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, February 14, 1955.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen:

I submit herewith communication from the Building Commissioner in which he recommends the amendment of various sections of the Boston Building Code. These amendments are necessary to correct imperfections in the code.

I recommend adoption of the ordinance, herewith submitted.

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Building Department, February 14, 1955.

To the Honorable the Mayor and City Council of the City of Boston.

Gentlemen:

In accordance with the provisions of chapter 479 of the Acts of 1938, as amended by chapter 217 of the Acts of 1939, as Building Commissioner of the City of Boston, I recommend the adoption of the accompanying ordinance which will remedy the following imperfections in the Boston Building Code brought to light by preparations for a current reprint of that code:

Section 1417.

In Chapter 479 of the Acts of 1938, the first sentence of subdivision (d) of Section 1417 read as follows: "Wooden stud bearing partitions shall have studs not less than one and one half by two and one half inches supported upon a girder or upon a sole plate not less than one and one half inches thick." Section 172 of Chapter 4 of the Ordinances of 1943 amended said sentence by striking out the first "one and one half" and inserting in place thereof "one and five eighths" and by striking out "two and one half" and inserting in place thereof "three and five eighths" and then stated that said sentence would read as follows:—"Wooden stud bearing partitions shall have studs not less than one and five eighths by three and five eighths inches supported upon a girder or upon a sole plate not less than three and five eighths inches thick." This was plainly erroneous for neither "three and five eighths" nur anything else had been substituted for the second "one and one half." Technologically, however, "one and five eighths" should have been substituted for the second as well as the first "one and one half". Section 1 of the accompanying ordinance is designed to effect this correction.

Section 2303.

The purpose of Section 2 of the recommended ordinance is to make the phrase "Pounds per Cubic Feet" grammatically correct by replacing "Feet" with "Foot".

Section 2409.

In Chapter 479 of the Acts of 1938, paragraph (b) of Section 2409 used the phrase "where exposed to wetting and freezing". Section 288 of Chapter 6 of the Ordinances of 1943 changed the phrase to "where exposed to both wetting or freezing". Commonly, "and" is used with "both" and "or" with "either"; so that "both . . . or" creates doubt whether the conjunctive or disjunctive is intended. Technologically, it should be the disjunctive. Section 3 of the accompanying ordinance clarifies the matter by striking out "both".

Section 2504.

Section 2504 of Chapter 479 of the Acts of 1938 was amended by Sections 304 to 310, inclusive, of Chapter 6 of the Ordinances of 1943. Section 304, in striking out paragraph (a) as appearing in said Chapter 479 and inserting in place thereof a new paragraph (a), presumably struck out the tables on pages 279, 280 and 281 of said Chapter 479 as printed by the State Secretary and intended that the first sentence of the new paragraph (a) be immediately followed by the Structural Lumber—Working Stress tables made a part of said Chapter 6. The matter is not free from doubt, however. Hence, the first sentence of Section 4 of the ordinance transmitted herewith is recommended to clarify the matter. The second sentence of Section 4 of the accompanying ordinance is occasioned by the fact that, although Section 307 of Chapter 6 of the Ordinances of 1943 had already inserted a paragraph (g), Section 308 of said Chapter 6 relettered paragraph (i) paragraph (g) instead of paragraph (h).

Section 2622.

The fourth sentence of Section 2622 of the Boston Building Code now reads:—"Beams, girders, brackets, column capitals, and haunches shall be considered part of the floor system and shall be placed monolithically herewith". Section 5 of the recommended ordinance corrects "herewith" to "therewith" to accord with the apparent intent.

Section 2901.

The second sentence of paragraph (d) of Section 2904 of the Boston Building Code prescribes in certain cases that "the allowable bearing values shall be one third of the allowable bearing values . . . . . " Section 6 of the ordinance transmitted herewith eliminates this doubletalk by substituting "tabulated" for the second "allowable", thereby correlating the provision to the table incorporated in the section.

Section 2906.

By an inconsistency comparable to that mentioned above in connection with Section 1417, Section 392 of Chapter 8 of the Ordinances of 1943, in amending Section 2906 of Chapter 479 of the Acts of 1938, leaves it in doubt whether the exact words in the last sentence are "shall be stone or gravel aggregate concrete" or "shall be with stone or gravel aggregate concrete". Section 7 of the recommended ordinance establishes the first as the correct text.

Section 3005.

Section 8 of the accompanying ordinance is like Sections 1 and 6 thereof in that it establishes the text of a sentence left in doubt by the Ordinances of 1943.

Section 3115.

The schedule in Section 3114 of the Code, as amended by Section 420 of Chapter 8 of the Ordinances of 1943, contains an inexplicable reference to a Group L Occupancy when there is no such occupancy group. Technologically, the reference should be to Group 1; and that is what the last section of the accompanying ordinance makes it.

Respectfully,
CHARLES A. CALLANAN,
Building Commissioner.

City of Boston,
In the Year Nineteen Hundred and Fifty-five.

SECTION 5. Paragraph (a) of Section 2622 of said Chapter 479, as amended by Section 310 of Chapter 8 of the Ordinances of 1943, is hereby further amended by striking out, in the fourth sentence, the words "monolithically herewith" and inserting in place thereof the words:—monolithically therewith.

LOANS AND APPROPRIATIONS FOR CONSTRUCTION OF PUBLIC WAYS, CONSTRUCTION OF SEWERS, AND DEPARTMENTAL EQUIPMENT.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, February 14, 1955.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen:

I submit herewith six orders providing for appropriations for Public Ways, Construction of; Construction of Sewers; and Departmental Equipment.

Three of these appropriations will be financed through the issuance of bonds, and the other three from the tax levy of the current year. These latter orders was required under the provisions of section 7 of chapter 44, which make it mandatory that every loan order within the statutory debt limit be supported by an appropriation equal to 10 cents on each $1,000 of the assessed valuation for the preceding year.

The $2,000,000 loan order for Public Ways, Construction of, contemplates the construction of approximately 13 miles of main highway improvements in the City of Boston in cooperation with the State Department of Public Works. The loan order provides also for the construction of new streets and reconstruction and improvement of existing streets.

The loan order for $1,000,000 for Construction of Sewers and for Sewage Disposal, contemplates meeting the normal program of sewerage improvements for the coming year. It also contemplates the enclosing of Bussey Brook, Davenport Brook, Elmwood Street Brook, and a portion of Stony Brook.

Communications from the Commissioner of Public Works are herewith attached which explain in some detail the program for highway improvements and the program for sewerage improvements.

The loan order for $1,000,000 for Departmental Equipment contemplates the purchase of equipment for all city departments which has a life expectancy of five years or more. All items for the purchase of heavy equipment have been eliminated from the budget of this year and will be purchased under the provisions of this proposed loan.

I respectfully request adoption of the six orders herewith submitted.

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Public Works Department,
February 14, 1955.

Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

Under date of June 2, 1953, a loan order, previously passed by the City Council, was approved by your Honor authorizing the issuance of bonds in the amount of $1,000,000 for the construction of sanitary sewers and surface drainage facilities. This amount has been entirely expended and it is absolutely necessary to authorize a similar amount this year in order that the Sewer Division may proceed with its normal program of effecting improvements to the sewerage and surface drainage systems.

The proposed program is as follows:

Relocate and enclose Stony Brook in a 72-inch concrete culvert for a distance of 5,320 feet from end of present culvert in Grew avenue to Bald Knob road. Including supplementary surface drains as required. Estimated cost, $425,000.

Construction of sewers and surface drains for residential construction and highway construction (Annual Expenditure.) Estimated cost, $300,000.

Enclose Bussey Brook, West Roxbury, in a 60-inch and 72-inch concrete culvert for a distance of 1,400 feet from Stony Brook at the Dedham Branch Railroad to lower South street. Estimated cost, $105,000.

Enclose Davenport Brook, Dorchester, in a 7-foot-9-inch x 6-foot-2-inch twin concrete conduit on piles from Hallet Street to the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad for a distance of 511 feet. Estimated cost, $150,000.

Enclose Elmwood street Brook, West Roxbury, from the end of present conduit at North avenue to the marshes west of Belle avenue, a distance of 700 feet. Estimated cost, $70,000.

Total, $1,050,000.

The most important project in the above list is the one that provides for the elimination of the remaining open section of Stony Brook by the installation of a 72-inch diameter concrete conduit. Stone Brook is now entirely enclosed in concrete pipes and culverts from a point near Grew avenue, in Hyde Park, to its outlet in Muddy River, near the Fire Alarm Headquarters in the Fens. The only open section extends from Grew avenue to Bald Knob road and the completion of this section will constitute one of the most needed improvements in the Hyde Park district.

The present open brook in Hyde Park presents a very definite hazard to the safety of children and has caused considerable property damage over the years, due to the flooding of cellars of residential properties in the vicinity of the brook course. I know that you well remember that the most recent floodings occurred at the time of the hurricanes of last fall. I believe that a group of irate residents of the area called at your home at that time and registered vigorous complaints about the flooding of their cellars by the overflow of Stony Brook.

It unquestionably would be advantageous to the city as well as the adjacent property owners if the 5,300-foot section in the Hyde Park area were enclosed in a concrete conduit, thereby not only eliminating the existing hazards to children and damage to adjacent properties, but by actually enhancing the properties and making available for development many acres of land that are under water at various seasons of the year, and particularly in the springtime.

Due to the substantial cost involved, this project has been sidetracked for years. However, in 1953 the section of open brook from the West Roxbury–Hyde Park line to Grew avenue was eliminated at a cost of about $450,000 by the installation of a concrete conduit. We can complete the remaining 5,300 feet during the current year if the money is made available as the plans and specifications have been prepared and the project is ready for advertising.

I respectfully recommend, therefore, that the attached loan order, which provides for the issuance of a Sewerage Works Loan, so called, in the amount of $1,000,000, be submitted to the City Council for the approval of that Body. I also recommend that a down payment, in the amount of $157,000, be provided in the budget of the Sewer Division of this department in accordance with the provisions of section 7 of chapter 44 of the General Laws, as amended by chapter 224 of the Acts of 1936.

Respectfully yours,
GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

City of Boston,
Public Works Department,
February 14, 1955.

Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

At the present time, there is an unencumbered balance of approximately $125,000 in the "Public Ways, Construction of," account available for expenditure for highway construction and reconstruction work during the current year.

It is our intention, once again, to undertake one of the largest Chapter 90 State-Aid projects in the history of the city. This particular program has been very advantageous during the past five years, as we have reconstructed many miles of main highways in various sections of the city, at a minimum of expense to the real estate owners. Approximately one half the cost of Chapter 90 projects is paid for out of the Highway Fund by the State Department of Public Works, under the provisions of section 34 of Chapter 90 of the General Laws.

The tentative Chapter 90 program, which calls for the reconstruction of approximately 13 miles of main highways within the next year or two, is as follows:

	Approximate Length, (Feet.)
Neponset Avenue, Dorchester. From Adams street to Neponset Traffic Circle..	5,400
Hyde Park Avenue, West Roxbury and Hyde Park. From Walk Hill street to Metropolitan avenue	9,400
Cummins Highway, Roslindale and Mattapan. From Harvard street to Mattapan square	5,000
Southampton Street, South Boston. From Massachusetts avenue to Andrew square	4,000
Washington Street, Roxbury. From Northampton street to Warren street	2,460
Bunker Hill Street, Charlestown. From Chelsea street to Main street	5,200
Terminal Street, Charlestown. From Medford street northeasterly and easterly	3,100
Dorchester Street, South Boston. From Broadway to Andrew square	3,700
Huntington Avenue, Roxbury. From Tremont street to the Brookline line	2,600
Washington Street, West Roxbury. From Columbus avenue to Arborway	6,300
Summer Street, South Boston. From Fort Point Channel to East Second street	7,150
I Street, South Boston. From East Second street to East Fourth street	920
Centre Street, West Roxbury. From Spring street to Grove street	3,500
Main Street, Charlestown. From City square to Somerville line (less Sullivan square)	6,000
South Street, West Roxbury. From 330 feet west of Morton street to Archdale road	3,850
Total	12.9 miles or 68,580

The sum of $475,000 has been allotted to the City of Boston for Chapter 90 projects by the State Department of Public Works. This is the largest amount ever allotted to the city for Chapter 90 work, and we should make certain that an equal amount is provided to match it, thereby insuring the construction of a maximum number of Chapter 90 projects this year.

In addition to the Chapter 90 projects, which will involve approximately $500,000 of city funds, it will be necessary to expend another $500,000 for the construction of new streets and a minimum of $1,000,000 for the reconstruction and improvement of existing streets. There are 730 miles of public streets in the city and if they were reconstructed once every 20 years—which is the maximum normal life of a street—it would require the rebuilding of 36.5 miles each year. The average cost of constructing and reconstructing highways is $65,000 per mile, thereby requiring the expenditure of a minimum of approximately $2,400,000 annually to keep our highway system up to standard.

I do not feel that we can afford such a program and, therefore, I am recommending the expenditure of $2,000,000 from the nonrevenue account for the construction and reconstruction of highways. Incidentally, our first Chapter 90 project will be advertised within the next three or four weeks and will provide for the resurfacing of Southampton street. This project will use up the major part of our present balance of $125,000, and we will not be able to advertise any more projects until additional money is made available.

I recommend, therefore, that the attached loan order, which provides for the issuance of so-called "Public Ways, Construction of," bonds in the amount of $2,000,000, be submitted to the City Council for approval. I also recommend that the so-called down payment, in the approximate amount of $157,000, be provided in the budget of the Highway Division in accordance with the provisions of section 7 of chapter 44 of the General Laws, as amended by chapter 224 of the Acts of 1936.

Respectfully yours,
GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

New York City reports that 12 foreign countries are in arrears a total of $416,985 in real estate taxes on 27 properties, most of them bought within the last 15 years as consulates and headquarters for United Nations delegations.

Nearly all of the defaulting governments claim the right to city realty tax exemption under treaties and international doctrines, but the city has refused to waive its claims. Total assessed valuation is $5,324,000, with $720,000 exempt from tax. Finland, the Netherlands, and Israel have kept their real estate accounts paid up to date.

CONTRACT AWARDED FOR CARE AND REPLACEMENT OF 24 MECHANICAL STREET-CLEANING MACHINE FIBRE BROOMS AS NEEDED, AT COST APPROXIMATING $10,000—SUPPLEMENT WORK DONE BY CITY EMPLOYEES.

Contracts have been signed, with the approval of Mayor Hynes, by the Public Works Commissioner for the care and replacement, when needed, of the 24 mechanical street-cleaning machines used for the cleaning of streets. The main fibre brooms have to be renewed every week or two when work is heavy. There are two firms that do this replacement work.

The letter from the Public Works Commissioner reads as follows:

The year 1955 promises to be one of great activity in the building and construction line, if the figures compiled by the Building Department for the first two months prove indicative. Construction of all types, including new work and repairs and alterations, are shown to amount to $3,684,540. This has provided the city with a revenue from construction work of $11,862.83.

Permits for new construction figure at $1,568,850 on 49 parcels, with 338 parcels of additions and alterations amounting to $1,451,152, making a total of 387 parcels at $2,920,002.

Permits for repairs, plumbing, gas fitting, sprinklers, and other items of a like nature were issued for 795 structures, at a total cost of $764,538. Thus far construction work has been planned for 1,182 structures. This is more than has been called for in any of the past five years.

In the list of types of structures may be found dwellings, from one-family up to multiple-family, amusement and recreational facilities, churches, chapels, educational buildings, schools and colleges, garages, institutional buildings, hotels, and clubs. Also included in the list are lodges, convents, dormitories, manufacturing and mercantile buildings, restaurants, office and bank buildings, storage warehouses, and lumber sheds.

Altogether the total of all types of work for which permits have been issued amounts to $4,765,141. In tabular form the information compiled by the Building Departments reads as follows:

MAYOR MAKES TWO APPOINTMENTS AT CITY HOSPITAL.

The letters requesting approval by Mayor Hynes read as follows:

BOSTON CITY HOSPITAL.
BOSTON, February 25, 1955.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On October 7, 1954, your Honor approved an unadvertised contract in the sum of $100 per diem for sixty-five days of consulting services during the remainder of 1954 and an average of three consultant days services per week during the first three months of 1955, up to and including March 31, 1955, in an amount not to exceed $10,500 for the entire contract period, between the City of Boston, acting by the Trustees of the Hospital Department and of the Boston City Hospital, and Justin M. Kearney, 1054 Brook road, Milton, providing for expert consulting engineering services in hospital planning and plant operation for all institutions within the Hospital Department.

All of the services embraced within the terms of the aforesaid contract and specifications have been rendered in a most satisfactory manner and with gratifying results.

However, the need for these expert services is one of a recurring nature and, therefore, this renewal of the subject contract is proposed for that reason and because it appears to be the most certain way of having such expert assistance available in the working out of a variety of Hospital Department problems.

Thus, the Board of Trustees desires to continue the services of Mr. Kearney in the same capacity, namely, Consulting Engineer in Hospital Planning and Plant Operation for all institutions within the Hospital Department, and it is specifically proposed that permission be granted to enter into a new contract for a period of twelve months, beginning April 1, 1955, or 156 days, at $100 per diem, the total contract price not to exceed the sum of $15,600.

Respectfully yours,

Board of Trustees, Hospital Department, and of the Boston City Hospital,
RICHARD J. CONDON,
President.

BOSTON CITY HOSPITAL.
BOSTON, February 25, 1955.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The Trustees of the Hospital Department voted on February 11, 1955, to request that the position of Plant Superintendent, Boston City Hospital, Grade 33, be abolished. It was further voted to request that the compensation and classification plan be amended by establishing the position of Plant Superintendent, Hospital Department and Boston City Hospital, at a salary of $9,000 per annum.

It was voted to transfer Ralph Plunkett, Plant Superintendent, Long Island Hospital, to the newly created position on a temporary six months' provisional basis.

The position of Plant Superintendent, Boston City Hospital, has not been filled on a permanent basis since the retirement of Joseph Norton on May 25, 1954.

The Trustees feel very strongly that, due to the reorganization of the Hospital Department and the extensive and urgently needed modernization program of plant and equipment within the department, the new position and the increased compensation are most necessary.

Your Honor's approval of the action of the Trustees is requested.

Respectfully yours,

RICHARD J. CONDON,
President, Board of Trustees.

CONTRACT AWARDED FOR NEW STREET-CLEANING EQUIPMENT.

of cleaning streets and supplementing the manual work done by our employees.

In connection with the operation of the machines, it becomes necessary to change the main fibre brooms every week or two, depending on the volume of work done by a particular machine. We find that it is more desirable, more economical, and more satisfactory, from every point of view, to have the broom cores refilled by outside shops who specialize in this particular work. Heretofore we have awarded contracts to the New England Broom and Supply Company and to the E. J. Bleiler Equipment Company for performing this service.

Both of the above-referenced companies have agreed to fill the broom cores during the current year at the following established rates, which are the same as those in effect last year:

Elgin Sweepers, $30 per core; Wayne Sweepers, $24 per core.

It is necessary to have both concerns do this work, in order to insure an adequate supply of brooms at all times, so that the sweepers may be kept in daily operation. It is difficult at this time to state accurately the city's total requirements in respect to the refilling of the brooms during the remainder of the current year, but we estimate that it will cost approximately $10,000. No advantage would accrue, in my opinion, by publicly advertising for bids for this work, as the Bleiler Company is the authorized agent for the Elgin Sweeper in this area, and the New England Broom and Supply specializes in this type of work and has been performing it for the department satisfactorily for a great number of years.

I respectfully request, therefore, your authority to dispense with advertising and to award a contract to the New England Broom and Supply Company, 191 Forest Hills street, Jamaica Plain, in an amount not to exceed $5,000, and to the E. J. Bleiler Equipment Company, 15 Crawford street, Needham, in an amount not to exceed $5,000, for refilling broom cores used on our Elgin and Wayne street-cleaning machines during the current year.

Respectfully yours,

GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

POLICE DEPARTMENT ORDERS.

General Order No. 2,011.

The resignation of Patrolman John F. Cullinane, Division 10, having been presented, it is hereby accepted, to take effect Friday, March 4, 1955, at 7.45 o'clock A.M., seven days notice waived.

The Acting Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

THOMAS F. SULLIVAN,
Police Commissioner.

EXTENSION OF CONTRACTS.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

Approval has been given for an extension of time for the completion of the contract with D. This extension was requested because the contractor was delayed due to weather conditions.

REAL PROPERTY DEPARTMENT.

Approval has been given for an extension of time for the completion of the contract with A. Singarella & Sons, Inc., for the construction of the open-air off-street parking facility at Ruggles street, Roxbury, to May 1, 1955. This extension was requested due to inclement weather.

Stephen E. Bogue, Jr., 10 Beethoven street, Jamaica Plain, to be reimbursed in the sum of $284.50, as a result of an accident which occurred on July 20, 1954, when a motor truck belonging to the Fire Department, which he was operating, collided with an automobile owned by Francis X. Durham.

PROCEEDINGS OF CITY COUNCIL.

SPECIAL MEETING.

Friday, February 18, 1955.

Special meeting of the City Council, held in the Council Chamber, City Hall, at 2 P.M., President HURLEY in the chair, and all the members present.

The meeting was opened with the salute to the Flag.

The meeting was held pursuant to the following call:

Boston City Council,
February 16, 1955.

To the Members of the City Council.
Gentlemen:

You are hereby requested to assemble in the City Council Chamber, City Hall, on Friday, February 18, 1955, at two o'clock P.M., for the purpose of taking action on the order now pending before the City Council for loan of $5,000,000, for the establishment of off-street parking facilities.

Respectfully,
WILLIAM F. HURLEY,
President.

Placed on file.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON APPROPRIATIONS AND FINANCE.

Coun. HAILER, for the Committee on Appropriations and Finance, submitted the following:

Report on message of the Mayor and order (referred January 10) appropriating $5,000,000 for establishment of off-street parking facilities—recommending reference of the order to the Executive Committee.

Said report is as follows:

February 18, 1955.

The Committee on Appropriations and Finance to whom was referred January 10, 1955, the message of the Mayor and order for loan of $5,000,000 for the establishment of off-street parking facilities having duly considered the same submits the following report:

"Reporting for the Committee on Appropriations—before I give you my report I would like to state my feelings and the feelings of the majority of the members of the Committee on Appropriations and Finance. We had three hearings on this very important matter. One hearing was set up hut there were no facts or definite figures for the Appropriations Committee to work with. We then set up a second hearing. We had Mr. Carp, the Planning Board, the Law Department, and many other people who were concerned with off-street parking.

"A third hearing was then held. We invited civic leaders and those who felt they would be affected by the off-street parking program. Now, we advertised the hearing so that all those who were interested would know that they had the right to appear here before your Committee on Appropriations. During the second hearing Mr. Carp brought forth testimony and designated three sites which he thought had top priority. One was Washington, Hollis, and Dore; the second, Fort Hill; and the third, Scollay square. When we had the public hearing with the leaders of business and many civic-minded people here we found that these people did not consider the priority of these sites most important. They were here on the principle of off-street parking for the general good of the city.

"At today's meeting with Boston's businessmen three sites were discussed: Washington street-Hayward place; Bedford-Kingston; and Fort Hill. The committee realizes that the over-all parking problems have to he taken into consideration—not merely those of the retail stores. The committee has decided to turn this matter over to the Executive Committee for the purpose of providing $2,000,000 at this time. I ask in the name of the committee to attach a report—giving priority to the four sites given by Boston's business leaders: Washington-Hayward place; Bedford-Kingston; Fort Hill; and Kilby-Central."

For the Committee,
FREDERICK C. HAILER, JR.,
Chairman.

The report was accepted, and the order was referred to the Executive Committee.

RECESS.

On motion of Councillor McCormack, the Council voted to take a recess at 3.41 P.M., subject to the call of the Chair. The members reassembled in the Council Chamber and were called to order by President HURLEY at 4.34 P.M.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE REPORT.

Coun. WHITE, for the Executive Committee, submitted the following:

Report on message of the Mayor and order (referred today) for appropriation of $5,000,000 for establishment of off-street parking facilities—recommending passage of the order in the following new draft:

Ordered, That under the authority contained in chapter 625 of the Acts of 1951, the sum of $2,000,000 be, and hereby is, appropriated to be expended under the direction of the Real Property Board, for the establishment of off-street parking facilities at Washington street and Hayward place, Kingston and Bedford streets, Fort Hill square, Central and Kilby streets, and that the Collector-Treasurer be authorized, with the approval of the Mayor, to issue from time to time, bonds or certificates of indebtedness of the city for said amount, said issues to be outside the limit of indebtedness of the city.

The report was accepted. The order was read once and passed, yeas 8, nays 0.

Yeas—Councillors Ahearn, Foley, Hurley, Kerrigan, McCormack, McLaughlin, Piemonte, White—8.

Nays—0.

The order was assigned for 14 days for final action.

The purpose for which the meeting was called having been accomplished, President HURLEY declared the meeting adjourned at 4.37 P.M.

REQUESTING ACTION ON $5,000,000 LOAN ORDER FOR OFF-STREET PARKING FACILITIES.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, February 28, 1955.

To tbe City Council.
Gentlemen:

I am advised by the Corporation Counsel that the $2,000,000 loan order for off-street parking facilities, given one reading by your Honorable Body on February 18, and setting forth possible locations for the construction of off-street parking facilities, does not come within the provisions of the City Cbarter and cannot, therefore, be approved by me in its present form.

If such approval were given, the validity of the order would unquestionably be challenged by counsel for the purchasers of the bond issue. It would appear, therefore, that a second and final reading of the present order would be of no avail, and would result in unnecessary delay in the commencement of the off-street parking program.

In view of the above, I would suggest that the order submitted by me on January 10 for a loan of $5,000,000 be adopted by your Honorable Body. Before taking this action, I further suggest that your Honorable Body discuss the entire parking problem for off-street facilities with Mr. William F. Keesler, member of the Real Property Board, and with Mr. Thomas F. McDonough, the chairman of the City Planning Board. Both of these gentlemen will be available on Monday afternoon, February 28. I am inclined to believe that whatever questions may be uppermost in the minds of the City Council can be adequately answered, in detail, by either or both of these city officials.

On the matter of priority of sites, may I state that it is the hope of the responsible city officials that the entire parking program proceed at, or about, the same time. Public hearings have not as yet been held on what appear to be very desirable sites. However, these hearings will be scheduled and held without delay. There is no reason, in my opinion, why six or more parking facilities cannot be under construction this year.

The order submitted by me and now pending in the City Council is sufficient in amount to cover the cost of land acquisition for the sites which have been given tentative high priority rating. The approval of your Body of the pending order, and the subsequent approval of further authorization now pending before the Legislature will permit the city to plan and go forward with the kind of a parking facility program whicb is so necessary at this time, and wbich will be more necessary when the Central Artery is completed.

I respectfully request adoption of tbe $5,000,000 loan order by your Honorable Body.

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

Harold B. Flemming,
Chief Clerk, Mayor's Office.

Dear Sir:

This will acknowledge memo from your office with attached order from Councillor Ahearn relative to including the rehabilitation of the Carl Henry Alsen Playground in the Capital Improvement Program. A letter was sent recently to Councillor Ahearn informing him of the situation relative to this playground.

This area was under the control of the Boston Housing Authority for a number of years where temporary housing was provided for veterans. The temporary houses have recently been demolished. Therefore, the playground has reverted back to this department.

If funds are provided for under the Capital Improvement Program, I will be pleased to take steps for the reconstruction of this area. It will not be possible to do it within our budget appropriation.

Very truly yours,
FRANK R. KELLEY, Commissioner.

SURVEY OF TRAFFIC CONDITIONS AT CHARLES STREET ROTARY CIRCLE.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, February 24, 1955.

To the City Council.
Gentlemen:

I transmit herewith communication from the Traffic Commissioner relative to your order of February 14, 1955, concerning the conducting of a survey of the automotive and pedestrian traffic conditions at Charles Street rotary circle, with a view toward the improvement of the general safety at this location.

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

Boston Traffic Commission,
February 17, 1955.

Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

With reference to Council order of February 14, 1955, requesting the Traffic Commission to conduct a survey of the automotive and pedestrian traffic conditions at the Charles Street rotary circle, I wish to report that we have this area under surveillance regularly.

For pedestrian safety this circle has what exists in very few other locations, namely, a pedestrian underpass which is now well-lighted and readily accessible. For some reason or another a bad name has been given to the underpass and as a result it is not used to the extent that it should be and persons are continuously attempting to cross from the circle in Charles street to the sidewalks, crossing the heavily traveled roadways.

Charles street is an important artery for the handling of vehicular traffic, as is Cambridge street, and the connections to the Longfellow Bridge and Storrow Highway.

Traffic lights are not effective if installed in a traffic circle, as has been proved by the experience of an installation of traffic lights at Cleveland Circle in Brighton.

Accordingly, it is imperative that a public education program be begun to induce the use of the pedestrian underpass. This might be accomplished through the cooperation of the Police Department and the Public Works Department. A Police Department representative could direct persons to the underpass and the Public Works Department might provide attendants for a period of time which would guarantee safety to those who have a misapprehension about underground passageways. I believe that after a month's experience in using this underpass those who regularly use the crossing would thereafter be satisfied with the facility and would no longer try to use the roadway.

The same condition may be said to exist at Haymarket square, where pedestrian crossing in the path of vehicular traffic constitutes a hazard.

Public authorities, having provided signs, underpasses and police protection, would seem to have done all that is possible under present circumstances in this instance.

Respectfully yours,
WM. ARTHUR REILLY, Commissioner.

NIGHTTIME PARKING OF AUTOMOBILES IN RESIDENTIAL AREAS.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, February 24, 1955.

To the City Council.
Gentlemen:

I transmit herewith communication from the Traffic Commissioner relative to your order of February 14, 1955, concerning parking of automobiles on residential areas during the nighttime hours.

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

Boston Traffic Commission,
February 17, 1955.

Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

With reference to City Council order of February 14, 1955, requesting that your Honor advise the City Council as to any present or future plans which would permit of parking of automobiles on the streets of residential areas during nighttime hours by the payment of a fee, I wish to report that considerable attention has been given to this subject over a period of two years, and at the present time there is legislation which would permit the Traffic Commission to designate certain streets where night parking might be legalized.

The Law Department and our office are at present working out regulations which will be effective beginning in the spring. A comprehensive change in our entire rule book is required by this legislation, and there is at present before the State Legislature a series of bills which would facilitate this matter so that it would not be complicated and subject to apparent defects in the legislation passed in 1952.

The question of establishing a fee is one which met with considerable opposition from the public and from various garage and parking space industries, and the Legislature refused to authorize the charging of a fee. Accordingly, the only legislation now existing which pertains to the subject is that contained in chapter 366 of the year 1952. It was this act which, after passage, was in itself subject to considerable controversy due to the fact that it entailed such heavy expense on the Police Department and permitted parking only to owners and tenants of a piece of property where there was not sufficient space, where in the case of apartment houses it made it impossible for surplus cars to park at the door of any other property insofar as that particular area is automatically reserved for the owners and tenants of that property.

In short, there were so many complications resulting from the act that nothing was done under its provisions. However, it is on the basis of this act that the Law Department and our commission is hopeful to soon work out at least a partial remedy to the night parking problem, and perhaps amendments to this legislation may eventually make feasible a practical nighttime parking regulation.

Respectfully yours,
WM. ARTHUR REILLY, Commissioner.

PROMPT PAYMENT TO DRUGGISTS.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, February 25, 1955.

To the City Council.
Gentlemen:

I transmit herewith communication from the secretary to the Overseers of the Public Welfare relative to your order of January 24, 1955, concerning payment to druggists for drugs and medicines and schedule of prices for various drugs and medicines.

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Welfare Department, February 17, 1955.

Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mayor Hynes:

I am writing in response to the order introduced by Councillor Foley which was passed in the City Council January 24, 1955, concerning payments to druggists on behalf of recipients of welfare and old age assistance. The order reads as follows:

Ordered, That the Director of Administrative Services be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to inquire into the operation of the Welfare Department:

1. With respect to the payment to druggists for drugs and medicines and particularly whether such payments are unduly delayed.
2. Whether a standard schedule of prices for various drugs and medicines has been established by the Welfare Department upon which druggists can rely.

In regard to Point 1, concerning whether payments for drugs and medicines are unduly delayed, an administrative change has been effected under which the payments released each month will henceforth be made shortly following the first day of the month. This represents an acceleration of almost three weeks from the point at which disbursements were made in January (January 21).

As to the second point, whether a standard schedule has been established for drugs and medicines on which druggists can rely, I am pleased to inform you that a uniform standard schedule for reimbursing for drugs is in effect in the department, and we believe is understood by all of the druggists who fill prescriptions for public assistance recipients. This schedule has not been released in writing to druggists because of the fact that the State Department of Public Welfare is attempting to negotiate with the State Pharmaceutical Association a schedule for reimbursement on drugs and medicines which will be effective state-wide. However, this department will be pleased to clarify the schedule now in effect with any individual druggists who care to inquire on the matter.

We trust this information is satisfactory.

Very truly yours,
WILLIAM G. O'HARE, Secretary.

City of Boston,
Welfare Department, February 17, 1955.

Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mayor Hynes:

I am writing in response to the order introduced by Councillor Foley which was passed in the City Council January 17, 1955, concerning payments to druggists on behalf of recipients of welfare and old age assistance. The order reads as follows:

"Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to request the Board of Overseers of the Public Welfare to make an inquiry as to whether payments to druggists for medicines, received by welfare and old age recipients, are current and are customarily made as rapidly as in other cities and towns in the Commonwealth, and particularly in Greater Boston."

In regard to this matter, I am pleased to inform you that since the order has been received we have effected an administrative change under which the payments made to druggists in the month of February were released on the second day of the month as against the January payments which had been released on the twenty-first of the month. It is our hope that such payments will in the future be made in the earliest days of each month as was accomplished in February.

As to whether this department effects payments for druggists' charges as rapidly as in other cities and towns in the Greater Boston area, there is of necessity a longer period of processing in Boston because of the fact that the department is decentralized and maintains district offices, at which point the approval of the social worker must be given to the claims for medicines, and has a centralized disbursement unit from which eventual payment occurs.

We trust this information is satisfactory.

Very truly yours,
WILLIAM G. O'HARE, Secretary.

On February 9, 1955, you forwarded to this office a copy of Councillor Piemonte's order of February 7, 1955, concerning the progress of tbe proposed meter parking areas adjacent to and under the Fitzgerald Highway from Nortb Station to Soutb Station.

In answer tbereto, please, be advised that the only area being turned over to us at this time by the State Department of Public Works is that area from Traverse street to Nortb street, under the Fitzgerald Highway. The grading and drainage has been completed; also, about 75 per cent of the edgestone bumpers have been completed; the overbead electrical work is being installed. The request for meters which we made of the Purchasing Agent bas been acted upon; public bids were opened by tbe Purchasing Agent, and a contract for tbe purchasing of meters was awarded by him. I have requested the Purchasing Agent to order tbe meters so that tbey could be installed at once, since we are ready for installation.

As soon as tbe 2 feet of frost leaves the subsurface of tbe area, tbe contractor can tben proceed witb the black top surfacing. In the interim, many cars are parked on tbe area every day.

Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On January 20, 1955, you transmitted to me tbe following order passed by the City Council on January 17, 1955:

"Ordered, That the Corporation Counsel be requested by his Honor the Mayor to submit an opinion to the Boston City Council on the legality of foot patrolmen of the Boston Police Department being assigned to patrol the area within the geographic confines of housing developments within the City of Boston and under the control of the Boston Housing Authority."

The Police Commissioner has advised me that the Boston Police, althougb entering the buildings of housing projects only upon calls for assistance, do patrol by foot patrol and/or prowl car all ways open to public use within the boundaries of housing projects. This our investigation has disclosed, is in full accord with the cooperation agreements between the City of Boston and tbe Boston Housing Authority under which the City of Boston is required to furnish police protection to tbe projects just as they do for private housing projects in the city.

In view of the foregoing, extended discussion of the matter would appear to be wholly unnecessary as I believe that the request for my opinion was occasioned because of an unfortunate use of words in an earlier communication from tbe Police Commissioner in which there was a failure to correctly distinguisb between buildings of bousing projects and public ways and other ways therein open to public use.

Respectfully,
WILLIAM L. BANTER,
Corporation Counsel.

LEGAL OPINION ON OVERRIDING MAYOR'S VETO OF AMENDMENT TO COMPENSATION PLAN.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Law Department, February 23, 1955.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen:

This is in reply to your request of February 14, 1955, for my opinion as to your power to override the Mayor's veto of your orders of January 24, 1955, amending the compensation plan for officers and employees of Suffolk County by changing the compensation grade of jail and correction officers from 16 to 18.

It is explicitly provided by G. L. (Ter. Ed.) c. 35, s. 56, that the duties prescribed for the County Personnel Board by G. L. (Ter. Ed.) c. 35, s. 51 (which includes the duty to pass upon, finally adopt and put into effect amendments to classification and compensation plans) shall, for Suffolk County, be performed "by the city council of the city of Boston, subject to the provisions of the charter of said city," which, in the light of such cases as are cited in 59 Corpus Juris, p. 1060, n. 30, and 82 Corpus Juris Secundum, p. 848, n. 63, must be construed to mean the charter of the city as from time to time in force. In the present city charter, the pertinent provision is undoubtedly St. 1948, c. 452, s. 17D, which, as appearing in St. 1951, c. 376, s. 1, gives the City Council power to override vetoes except the veto of an order, ordinance, resolution or vote "authorizing a loan or appropriating money or accepting a statute involving the expenditure of money."

The issue thus resolves itself into the question whether either of the orders vetoed was an order authorizing a loan or appropriating money or accepting a statute involving the expenditure of money. It would seem inescapably clear from Opinion of the Justices, 323 Mass. 764, 766, that a salary fixing order like those vetoed is not an appropriation order, for it does not designate any sum of money to be devoted to any object. A fortiori, it is not an order authorizing a loan because it does not empower the Collector-Treasurer to borrow any money. Finally, while such an order may exercise authority vested by statute, it is not an order accepting a statute within the common and approved usage of that phrase. See G. L. (Ter. Ed.) c. 4, s. 6, cl. 3. It follows that, in my opinion, your Honorable Body has the power to proceed to reconsider each order vetoed unless prevented from doing so by other considerations such as arbitrariness or want of appropriation. See, in connection with the last-mentioned ground, Adalian Bros., Inc. v. Boston, 323 Mass. 629, 630-631, and cases cited; also Opinion of the Justices, 323 Mass. 764, 767, and cases cited.

Plainly, each of the orders vetoed would, if passed over the veto, be invalid on both of the grounds just specified. The orders, while raising the compensation grade of jail and correction officers from 16 to 18, arbitrarily leave in compensation grade 17 persons classified as:

Jail officer and electrician.
Jail officer and mechanic.
Jail officer and assistant steward.
Jail officer and storekeeper.
Jail officer and receiver.
Jail officer and photographer.
Jail officer and clerk.
Correction officer and assistant steward.
Correction officer and baker.
Correction officer and carpenter.
Correction officer and clothing cutter.
Correction officer and cook.
Correction officer and electrician.
Correction officer and assistant herdsman.
Correction officer and motor equipment repairman.
Correction officer and painter.
Correction officer and poultryman.
Correction officer and shoemaker.

Such arbitrariness is so wholly unwarranted as to leave no doubt as to the invalidity of the orders. And the same situation obtains with respect to want of appropriation. Since the annual appropriation orders have not yet been adopted, it is incontrovertible that an appropriation is not currently available; but, even if the annual appropriation orders were adopted, an appropriation still would not be available, for an examination of the budget discloses no funds for the upping of compensation grades. Accordingly, it is my considered opinion that your Honorable Body lacks power to override the Mayor's veto of the orders in question not because of any inherent lack of power to override a veto but because of the other matters just mentioned.

Respectfully,
WILLIAM L. BANTER,
Corporation Counsel.

Referred to the Executive Committee.

LEGAL OPINION ON RATES OF PRIVATE PARKING FACILITIES.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Law Department, February 25, 1955.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen:

This is in reply to your request of February 7, 1955, for a memorandum of law concerning "the rights and powers of the City of Boston to fix the rates of those private parking facilities licensed by the municipal government."

In the absence of a grant of authority from the Legislature, a municipality has no power to fix prices. Greene v. Mayor of Fitchburg, 219 Mass. 121, 126-127. G. L. (Ter. Ed.) c. 148, s. 56, under which open-air parking spaces are licensed, neither expressly nor impliedly confers upon the licensing authority or other local authority any power to fix prices. The result is that neither the City of Boston as such nor the Mayor, City Council or other board or officer thereof has any right or power to fix the rates to be charged by persons licensed to conduct or maintain private parking spaces.

For a more elaborate discussion of the matter, you are respectfully referred to the opinion of former Corporation Counsel Henry Parkman, Jr., which appears on page 72 of the Report of the Proceedings of the City Council for the municipal year 1939 and to the opinion of former Corporation Counsel Joseph Scolponeti which appears on page 294 of the Report of the proceedings of the City Council for the municipal year 1948. See, also, page 241 of the Report of the Proceedings of the City Council for the municipal year 1950 setting forth the text of my communication of July 24, 1950, on the same subject.

Respectfully,
WILLIAM L. BANTER,
Corporation Counsel.

Referred to the Committee on Licenses.

COMMENDATION TO COUNCILLOR GABRIEL F. PIEMONTE.

Coun. HURLEY, for all councillors, offered the following:

Whereas, Prime Minister Mario Scelba and Foreign Minister Gaetano Martino of Italy will pay an official visit to the United States during the next month; and

Whereas, During their visit they will be tendered a dinner at the Waldorf-Astoria in New York; and

Whereas, An outstanding committee of Americans of Italian extraction, including Judge Frank Tomasello, Judge Vincent Brogna, Dr. Giovanni Fornichella (Console Generale), Judge Felix Forte, and many other notable Bostonians, and residents of Massachusetts, have been selected to serve on this committee to honor these outstanding statesmen who have labored and fought diligently against the Communist menace in their native land; and

Whereas, A member of the School Committee of the City of Boston, Louis F. Musco, has been appointed a member of this committee; and

Whereas, A member of this Honorable Body Councillor Gabriel F. Piemonte, has been appointed Chairman of the Massachusetts Subcommittee for this dinner; and

Whereas, This appointment not only honors the councillor but all members of the Boston City Council; be it therefore

Resolved, That the members of the Boston City Council, in meeting assembled, extend their congratulations to Councillor Piemonte on this recognition; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be forwarded to Councillor Piemonte.

The resolution was adopted under suspension of the rules.

HEARINGS ON OFFICIAL RECOGNITION OF NEGOTIATING BODY FOR EMPLOYEES OF BOSTON FIRE DEPARTMENT.

Coun. HURLEY, for all councillors, offered the following:

Whereas, The Boston Fire Fighters Local 718 has a membership of over 1,600 of the 2,000 firefighters; and

Whereas, The City of Boston has a duty to recognize the right of its own employees to organize, not only in theory but in practice. The right to organize is a natural right of every human being. It does not depend upon the nature of the work in which a person is engaged; and

Whereas, The various agencies of the city government have a responsibility to set an example for private industry in the field of labor relations; and

Whereas, The city government should insist that responsible administrators of their agencies take the initiative in developing a system of labor relations under which unions of city employees would not only be permitted, but would be encouraged to speak for, and to represent their constituents more effectively; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Boston City Council conduct hearings at which members of the various organizations connected with the Boston Fire Department and the public be invited for the purpose of discussing the advisability of official recognition of a negotiating body for the Boston Fire Department; and

To make such recommendations, if any, or drafts of such legislation necessary to carry its recommendations into effect.

The resolution was adopted under suspension of the rules.

IMPROVING FACILITIES AT UNION STREET PLAYGROUND.

Coun. AHEARN offered the following:

Whereas, The small play area known as the Union Street Playground in Brighton has served a good and useful purpose and was widely used, but is now in a deteriorated condition; and

Whereas, There is a great need in that vicinity for a safe and suitable place for recreation for small tots; and

Whereas, It is necessary for little children to have proper supervision and direction; therefore be it

Resolved, That his Honor the Mayor request the Park Department to recondition the Union Street Playground, install new facilities where needed, and place it in service as a small tots' play area with an attendant for use this summer.

The resolution was adopted under suspension of the rules.

LEGISLATION TO TRANSFER LAND FOR CONSTRUCTION OF INCINERATOR IN SOUTH BAY AREA.

Coun. AHEARN offered the following:

Whereas, Plans for the central district incinerator to be constructed in the South Bay area were first started by a contract with engineers in 1951; and

Whereas, The many problems connected therewith have unduly delayed the construction of said incinerator; and

Whereas, The need for such an incinerator is great and generally acknowledged to be of an emergency nature; and

Whereas, According to a letter from his Honor the Mayor Boston must acquire land from the state in the South Bay area in order to have a proper site for the location of said incinerator; and

Whereas, There is presently pending in the Great and General Court proposed legislation to authorize the transfer to Boston by the state of the needed land at said site; now therefore be it

Resolved, That the Great and General Court is hereby petitioned to expedite and pass on an emergency basis legislation authorizing the Department of Public Works to transfer to the City of Boston land in the South Bay area of Boston for the purpose of enabling Boston to construct a much-needed incinerator.

The resolution was adopted under suspension of the rules.

SURVEY OF LIGHTING CONDITIONS ON CLARKWOOD STREET, MATTAPAN.

Coun. WHITE offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor is hereby requested to direct the Commissioner of Public Works to make a survey of lighting conditions on Clarkwood street, Mattapan, with a view to installing new street lights to replace the outmoded gas lights.

Passed under suspension of the rules.

SURVEY ON BANNING ALL STREET PARKING IN DOWNTOWN AREA.

Coun. McLAUGHLIN offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to advise the City Council as to whether or not a survey has been made with a view toward banning all street parking in the downtown area of Boston, and if such a report has been made, to forward the results of the survey to the City Council.

Passed under suspension of the rules.

ORDER FOR LOAN OF $5,000,000 FOR OFF-STREET PARKING FACILITIES.

Coun. McLAUGHLIN moved that the order submitted by the Mayor January 10, 1955, for loan of $5,000,000 for off-street parking facilities, be rejected without prejudice.

The motion was carried.

LOAN ORDER FOR ESTABLISHMENT OF OFF-STREET PARKING FACILITIES.

Coun. McLAUGHLIN offered the following:

Ordered, That under the authority contained in chapter 625 of the Acts of 1951, the sum of five million dollars ($5,000,000) be, and hereby is, appropriated, to be expended under the direction of the Real Property Board, for the establishment of off-street parking facilities, and that the Collector-Treasurer be authorized, with the approval of the Mayor, to issue, from time to time, bonds or certificates of indebtedness of the city to said amount, said issues to be outside the limit of indebtedness of the city.

Coun. McLAUGHLIN moved suspension of the rules. The motion was lost. On further motion of Councillor McLaughlin the order was referred to the Committee on Appropriations and Finance.

APPLICATION OF FUNDS FOR OFF-STREET PARKING FACILITIES TO DESIGNATED AREAS.

Coun. McCORMACK offered the following:

Whereas, The Boston City Council believes that some plan of off-street parking is vital for the future economic welfare of the City of Boston; and

Whereas, The program submitted to the Council by the Real Property Board has met with serious opposition which has resulted in some questions being unresolved in connection with two or more of the sites submitted; and

Whereas, The Council does not wish the entire program to be delayed unnecessarily because of conflict over specific locations, but rather feels that work should start on those sites on which there is unanimity of opinion, among the Council, his Honor, the Mayor, the Real Property Board, the Planning Board, and the Traffic Commission, as to desirability, need, and availability; and

Whereas, Chapter 474 of the Acts of 1946 and subsequent amending legislation indicates an intent to treat each site of the off-street parking program individually; therefore be it

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor, be requested to inform the Boston City Council as to whether or not the Real Property Board will be directed by him to apply the funds appropriated by the Council to designated approved areas as the sites selected by the Real Property Department are ratified by the Council and the money necessary for the acquisition and clearance of those said sites is appropriated.

Passed under suspension of the rules.

NOTICE TO OWNERS OF PROPERTY ADJACENT TO CITY-OWNED LAND TO BE SOLD AT PUBLIC AUCTION.

Coun. PIEMONTE offered the following:

Ordered, That the Board of Real Estate Commissioners be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to make a survey of all city-owned real estate foreclosed lots and such other parcels of land or buildings as have been placed in the custody of the Board of Real Estate Commissioners for disposal, and in cases where said lot or lots are immediately adjacent to existing buildings, to notify the owners of adjacent buildings of the ownership by the city of the said lot or lots, describing them, setting forth the minimum price, and the procedure to be followed if interested in purchasing the same.

Coun. AHEARN in the chair.

Passed under suspension of the rules.

POSTING OF CITY-OWNED LAND TO BE SOLD AT PUBLIC AUCTION.

Coun. PIEMONTE offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor request the Board of Real Estate Commissioners to post on a bulletin board in that portion of their office open to the public a list by ward, street, and number of the foreclosed real estate lots now owned by the city and such other parcels of land or buildings as have been placed in the custody of the Board of Real Estate Commissioners for disposal and a statement of the procedure to be followed by persons interested in purchasing the same and that copies of the same be forwarded to each branch library in the City of Boston with a request that it be placed on their public bulletin boards, and that copies be posted on those bulletin boards used for voting information throughout the city, and that as soon as additional parcels are obtained, either by foreclosure or transfer, a list of said parcels shall be posted in manner as described above.

Passed under suspension of the rules.

LIGHTING FOR EVENING RECREATIONAL PROGRAMS ON BOSTON COMMON.

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor request the Park Commissioner to install adequate artificial lighting for the purpose of conducting evening recreational programs on the Charles Street section of the Boston Common; and further

Whereas, Mr. Kern has been an outstanding citizen of our fair city and with his position as publisher has been an active force in the social, fraternal, political, and particularly in the charitable drives throughout the city and the state, some of which, especially for disabled veterans, have been worthy of the strongest commendation and praise; be it therefore

NEW PLAN INAUGURATED BY ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES DEPARTMENT LOOKING TO ECONOMIES AND SAVINGS IN USE OF PAPER PRODUCTS BY ALL CITY DEPARTMENTS—UNIFORM SIZES OF CARDS, LETTERHEADS, ETC., TO ELIMINATE WASTE IN CUTTING OF MILL STOCK—DIRECTIVE ISSUED.

Beginning with this week a new plan is being inaugurated by the Administrative Services Department looking to economies and savings in the use of paper products by the various departments by the institution of a "Standardization of Forms."

The order has been promulgated by Director of Administrative Services, Charles J. Fox, so as to provide for uniform sizes of cards, letterheads, etc., so that there shall be no waste in the cutting. This, because the city departments make use of such an amount of paper stock, will enable standardized usage, easily handled no matter whatever the needs. In keeping with this the following directive of instructions has been issued by the Administrative Services Department:

REPORT OF LOUIS F. MUSCO, MEMBER BOSTON SCHOOL COMMITTEE, ON ATTENDANCE AT ANNUAL MEETING OF THE NATIONAL SCHOOL BOARDS ASSOCIATION, INC., IN ST. LOUIS, MISSOURI, FEBRUARY 24 TO 26, INCLUSIVE.

The following is the report of Louis F. Musco of the Boston School Committee on beliefs and policies of the National School Boards Association, Inc., held in convention at St. Louis, Missouri, on February 24, 25, and 26:

The public school committees of America, united in their several State School Committee Associations, and federated into the National School Boards Association, Inc., believe that "education is the bulwark of freedom" and that our universal system of free public education is literally the nation's first line of defense and the greatest constructive force in the possession of the American people for the preservation of their freedoms and the advancement of the democratic way of life.

BOSTON PARKS AND RECREATION DEPARTMENT CONCLUDING MOST SUCCESSFUL INDOOR AND OUTDOOR WINTER SEASON IN YEARS—THOUSANDS OF CITIZENS, YOUNG AND OLD, SHARED IN PROGRAM OF EVENTS PROVIDED BY CHAIRMAN FRANK R. KELLEY AND DIRECTOR PATRICK J. RYAN, BACKED BY ENTHUSIASTIC SUPPORT OF MAYOR JOHN B. HYNES.

With the approaching end of the indoor recreation program of the Boston Parks and Recreation Department Boston citizens have enjoyed the most successful season since the program was inaugurated and recreation became an important part of the Park Department activities.

This is due to the activity and planning of chairman of the Park Commission, Frank R. Kelley, and his Director of Recreation, Patrick J. Ryan, backed up and ably supported by Mayor John B. Hynes, who is the most enthusiastic devotee of public recreation for the citizens that Boston has ever had. The Park Department Recreation Center is located at Pine Bank Park, Jamaica Plain. During the season just ended outdoor skating has been most widely patronized of all the athletic events participated in by the citizens of Boston. A total attendance at all the centers for the winter season has been estimated at about 140,000, exclusive of spectators. Some 60-odd playgrounds were flooded and frozen over to provide for skating this winter, which has been one of the most open for that recreation that has been enjoyed for years. The active attendance has been about 2,000.

In addition to this, there has been an elaborate indoor program conducted in the gymnasiums, including basketball, swimming, and boxing. Football, also, drew a large attendance.

The high light of this indoor program is the competitive sports activities. At the Maurice Tobin Memorial Center, Roxbury, the championships in basketball were held. The 90-odd teams in the Girls' Basketball Leagues played through another season in three age groups, under thirteen, under seventeen, and over seventeen. Teams in this league represented all segments of the city, from unorganized youngsters to women from the offices downtown and from nurses in the hospitals to even school teachers.

The Boys' Basketball Leagues, with the little fellows in the "Jet" League under twelve years of age up through the "Top Park League," have over 120 teams playing scheduled league games under Park League officials from one end of the city to the other every Wednesday, Friday, and Saturday night.

Some of the other interesting events in the public recreation program include the system of classes in recreational activities for all age groups that is carried on in the recreation centers. The Golden Age Division of Boston Park Recreation numbers over 1,200 members. An interesting factor of this program is that many of the entertainers are volunteers who find recreation in entertaining others. The Boston Musicians Union usually furnishes the professional talent.

REPORT OF SCHOOL COMMITTEEMAN LOUIS F. MUSCO.

They hold that public schools will keep America strong and free if America's public will keep the schools free and strong; and, firm in this conviction, have agreed upon a statement of common beliefs and policies with regard to public education, as follows:

State and Local Control of Education.

The responsibility for providing public schools is legally vested in the several states, but in large measure the operation of the schools is delegated to local school committees made up of lay citizens who serve their communities voluntarily and in most cases without remuneration. It is the policy of the National School Boards Association to support the principle that control of public schools shall always be vested in state and local school committees in accordance with state law.

Keeping the Public Informed.

The public schools belong to all the people, are supported by the people, and are designed to carry out the wishes of the people for the education of children, youths, and adults. Therefore, the National School Boards Association advocates that local school committees and their associations endeavor by every possible means to make certain that all the people have all the facts all the time concerning their schools.

Types of School Committee Responsibility.

The National School Boards Association believes that a local school committee has the following types of responsibility toward the school district community which it represents:

a. The committee has the legal responsibility for the conduct of the school, and is the only agency in the community that does.

b. The committee has a civic responsibility as the controlling body of a basically essential service to the life of the community.

c. The committee has a social responsibility toward all the people who look to the school as the center of growth and development for young and old alike.

d. The committee has an economic responsibility, since positive proof exists that there is a direct relationship between good schools and business prosperity.

e. The committee has a moral and ethical responsibility to discharge its functions courageously and impartially in the interest of the greatest good to the greatest number at all times.

Standards for Local School Committee Operations.

The National School Boards Association advocates that there shall be in each school district a nonpartisan, broadly representative, team-spirited school committee, having clearly defined written policies based on a thorough understanding of the educational process; that the committee shall conduct its business in open sessions; that the committee shall possess complete fiscal independence for the operation of its program under the administration of a local chief school administrator; and, further, the Association advocates that every member of a school committee shall represent open-mindedly the entire school district and, in consequence, must let his consideration for the entire district take precedence over every form of partisanship and special interest—political, racial, religious, geographic, economic, social, civic, or other.

School Committee-Administrator Relationship.

The National School Boards Association recognizes that the school committee is a policy-making body, and properly delegates the execution of its policies to an employed professional administrator and his staff.

Developing Policies.

The National School Boards Association believes that, in the making of policies, wisdom would indicate that individuals and groups who will be affected by a given policy should be consulted by the school committee during the formulative period and should be fully informed concerning the policy finally adopted. "Those who share will care."

The Association further believes that, since changing conditions bring changing needs, policies must be flexible without being fickle. School committee members should be aware of the fact that every action of a board either (1) conforms to policy already existing; (2) modifies existing policy; or (3) establishes new policy.

Increased Support for Public Education.

With respect to the support of public education, the National School Boards Association recommends:

a. That the citizens of America lift themselves as promptly as they can "to a new and much higher level of interest, of attention, of hard work, of care, of concern, of expenditure, and of dedication to the education of the American people."*

b. That concerted effort be made by each state to equalize the financial support of public education to the end that every taxpayer, individual and corporate, shall contribute his just proportionate share.

c. That local districts be expected to contribute a required minimum amount of financial support to the schools before they are eligible to receive additional funds from state or other sources.

d. That financial support from the state to local school districts be designed in largest measure to equalize educational opportunities and to sustain a steadily improving minimum foundation program of education.

e. That, in principle, funds from federal or other sources outside the state, intended for the assistance of public education, shall be administered by the state education agency through the local school committees in accordance with state policy and without restriction other than simple accounting of receipts and disbursements.

Maintenance of High Professional Standards.

The National School Boards Association with its affiliated state associations urges local boards to exercise the utmost vigilance in maintaining and improving the professional status of the teaching profession, and in encouraging the type of potential candidates for teaching who will exemplify the high ideals so needed in the world today.

Provision of Instructional Materials.

The National School Boards Association recommends that school committees give the members of their staffs opportunity to indicate needed and desirable instructional materials and then endeavor to provide these aids to the fullest possible extent.

The Association recognizes that modern science has developed new media of instruction which may greatly assist teachers and pupils in their classroom studies, and urges that advantage be taken of the new facilities as rapidly as it can be done on a sound educational and economic basis.

Wider Use of School Facilities.

In the public interest, the National School Boards Association advocates the greatest possible use of public school facilities and playgrounds as community centers for the integration of the American community and the encouragement of family participation in wholesome character-building activities conducive to good citizenship and the preservation of the American home. To this end, state associations are urged to initiate legislation whenever necessary to authorize the wider use of public school facilities for community purposes under provisions giving local boards authority to determine, regulate, and maintain such programs.

Adult Education.

The National School Boards Association through its affiliated state associations urges local school committees to provide facilities and programs for teaching adults those skills and cultural subjects which they desire.

Controversial Issues in the Schools.

The National School Boards Association recommends that there shall be no curtailment in classrooms of the presentation of factual material relating to both sides of controversial issues of local, state, national, or international importance, unless such presentation is forbidden by law.

The Association further recommends that school administrators and teaching personnel shall always exert their most conscientious efforts to present such facts objectively and impartially.

It finally recommends that local school committees establish policies which will protect such efforts against unjust reprisal.

Attacks on Public Education.

The National School Boards Association deplores attacks of all kinds which appear designed to:

a. Destroy rather than to improve the American institution of public education.

b. Present a distorted picture based on one-sided or inadequate data.

c. Perpetuate outmoded practices and prevent the schools from taking advantage of proven advances in adapting themselves to the needs of a changing community.

d. Limit the offerings of the schools for the purpose of holding taxes below the level which the community as a whole is ready to maintain.

The association welcomes constructive criticism of the schools, through whatever medium, when it is motivated by a sincere desire to improve the quality of the educational program and to equip the public schools more effectively for the task they are designed to perform. Criticism is most valuable to school committees when it represents the considered recommendations of a majority of the citizens of a community who have studied the facts.

* From Educating for Leadership by WALTER LIPPMANN, 1954.

Public and Private School Relationships.

The National School Boards Association supports the American tradition of the separation of church and state, and urges that it shall be vigorously safeguarded. To this end the Association advocates that funds raised by general taxation for education purposes shall be administered by public officials and shall not be used to support any privately operated schools. The Association recognizes and upholds the right of any group to establish and maintain schools financed by its own supporters with such governmental supervision as will assure a minimum standard of instruction and adherence to the Constitution and laws of the United States.

Purpose and Support of School Boards Associations.

The National School Boards Association is committed to the principle that the major purpose of school boards associations is to strengthen the effectiveness of local committees through education, collective action, and self help.

Membership in a state association should be by committees, and membership in the national association should be by state associations.

The expense of supporting school boards associations and of attending their meetings is a legitimate charge against the district funds administered by each local committee as evidenced by the legal authorization existing in a majority of the states.

Typical example is the Tennessee Law of 1953, in part as follows:

> "That the Tennessee School Boards Association is hereby recognized as the organization and representative agency of the members of school boards of Tennessee. . . . Membership dues and necessary traveling expenses of school board members and superintendents incurred in attending meetings of the Tennessee School Boards Association may be paid as other expenses are paid by boards of education."

School Boards Associations Independent but Cooperative.

State associations of school committees and the National School Boards Association should be organized and operated on a basis of complete independence. However, they should be dedicated to the policy of full and active cooperation with all lay and professional groups which are sincerely working for the advancement of public education.

At the national level the National School Boards Association pledges itself especially to work in close cooperation with the National Citizens Commission for the Public Schools, the National Congress of Parents and Teachers, the National Council of Chief State School Officers, the National Education Association and its numerous affiliates (particularly the American Association of School Administrators), and the United States Office of Education.

National Board of Education Endorsed.

Because of the universal, nonpartisan nature of the educational process, the National School Boards Association will continue to work for the establishment of a National Board of Education, composed of outstanding lay citizens, and having jurisdiction over an independent Office of Education administered by a United States Commissioner of Education appointed by the Board as its executive officer.

Pending the attainment of the goal set forth above, the National School Boards Association approves the plan for the lay Advisory Committee on Education to the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare, with the United States Commissioner of Education acting as the secretary of the committee without vote.

Support of the N.C.A.T.E.

The National School Boards Association regards the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education, in which it is one of five sponsoring organizations, as occupying a position of strategic importance in the long-range upgrading of the teaching profession. The Association will continue to contribute constructively to the work of the Council through its three chosen representatives.

Approval for the National Organizations Round Table on Public Schools.

It is the policy of the National School Boards Association to maintain representation in the National Organizations Round Table on Public Schools, in the belief that the surest way to unite the vast majority of the American people in an educational movement of real vitality and power is through their existing organizations.

Public Relations in Public Education.

The National School Boards Association recognizes that underlying every problem of public education—teacher supply, building, curriculum, finance, and others—is the problem of how to enlist the understanding and support of the American public as a whole. When people are accused of apathy toward the schools, it is usually because they do not know the facts regarding school conditions, needs, and potentialities. The surest way for citizens to get such facts is to help collect them, organize them, study them, and make recommendations to their school committees in the light of the facts. School committees, in turn, are well advised to enlist citizen groups to assist and counsel them, making certain in all cases that three fundamental principles are followed: (1) that such citizen groups shall be broadly representative of the entire community; (2) that recommendations shall be based on facts, not on unsupported opinion, hearsay, or guesswork; and (3) that the recommendations shall be submitted to the school committees, which alone have authority to act upon them.

The National School Boards Association is firmly convinced that the solution of the problems facing education today lies in strengthening the school committees of the nation, and in a continued and stepped-up crusade to help the American people to acquaint themselves with their schools and with the significance of a universal system of free public education in a world where the worth, dignity, and freedom of the individual are being challenged as never before.

RECREATION DEPARTMENT WINTER SEASON HUGE SUCCESS.

Another outstanding contribution of the public recreation program is the retarded children's program that is conducted on Saturdays at Curtis Hall in Jamaica Plain. This is the first public recreation program for mentally retarded children in the country. Now in its third year, it has been recognized as the pilot project in this field. An average of 90 children attend this day-long session in planned classes, games, and even swimming.

A good example of the extent of Boston's public recreation program was presented last month, when the Mayor John B. Hynes State-Wide Swimming Championships were conducted. This was the largest swimming meeting in the past 25 years. Actually 698 entries were received.

Boston Park Recreation is one of the first in the country to extend its services to assist with the recreation program in correctional institutions.

The Annual Recreation Center Girls' Demonstration is scheduled for Thursday, April 14, at the Tobin Memorial Center. Dances, classes, games, tumbling, gymnastics, and novelties will go to make the program complete. At the Cabot Street Recreation Center and Curtis Hall Swimming Pool, youngsters are training in water safety and swimming races, for the championships to be held on Friday, April 15, at the Curtis Hall Pool.

Upon March 15 the Mayor approved a contract as requested in the following letter:

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

In response to an advertisement in the City Record of February 5, 1955, the following list of bids was received and publicly opened and read aloud on March 3, 1955, for the completion and erection of an elementary school in the William E. Russell District, Dorchester:

Rich Brothers Construction Company, Inc., $1,218,213; Joseph Rugo, Inc., $1,263,000; James S. Kelleher, $1,263,813; G. L. Rugo & Sons, Inc., $1,278,160; Park Construction Company, Inc., $1,294,000; M. S. Kelliher Company, $1,298,188.80; P. J. O'Leary Building Company, Inc., $1,325,000.

It is necessary to substitute the subbid for metal shelving of the Interior Products Company in the amount of $1,448 for that of the Berger Manufacturing Company of Massachusetts in the amount of $1,440, which latter subcontractor was carried in the proposal of the Rich Brothers Company, Inc., for the reason that the Berger Manufacturing Company failed to submit with its subbid the type of bid deposit required by the published invitation for proposals and G. L., chapter 149, section 44B. The aforementioned substitution results in a revision of the Rich Brothers Construction Company, Inc., price from $1,218,213 to $1,218,221.

Subject to your Honor's approval I am awarding a contract to the Rich Brothers Construction Company, Inc., 410 Park Square Building, Boston, the lowest responsible bidder, in the amount of $1,218,221.

Respectfully yours,

JAMES H. MOONEY,

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

From time to time the Fire Department requires replacement parts for mine safety appliances masks and breathing apparatus.

Mine Safety Appliances Company is the only manufacturer in New England for the parts required. Authority is therefore requested to dispense with publicly advertising for prices and award a contract, without public advertisement, to Mine Safety Appliances Company, for furnishing the above parts to the Fire Department from April 1, 1955, to March 31, 1956. It is my opinion that in this way the best interests of the city will be served.

Approximate total amount of contract will be $5,500, less 2 per cent for payment within thirty days.

In view of this fact, authority is requested to dispense with publicly advertising for prices and award a contract, without public advertising, to Gentles Baking Company, Inc., for furnishing approximately 90,000 pounds of stale bread to the Franklin Park Zoo, at 4 cents per pound, for the period from April 1, 1955, to March 31, 1956. DEAR MR. MAYOR:

For several years this office has been purchasing doughnut mix for the various city institutions from the Doughnut Corporation of America. This company, in turn, loans their doughnut-making machines to the city for use in the institutions. It is my understanding that no other company maintains a similar policy.

Authority is therefore requested to dispense with publicly advertising for prices and award a contract, without public advertisement, to Doughnut Corporation of America, for furnishing doughnut mix to the various city institutions for the period from April 1, 1955, to March 31, 1956, at the following prices: 15 cents per pound, 100-pound bags in lots of ten or more; 16 cents per pound, 100-pound bags in lots of five to nine; 17 cents per pound, 100-pound bags in lots of less than five bags.

This office is in receipt of a requisition from the Survey Division of the Public Works Department for forty rolls of Haloid Rectograph Paper 18 inches x 350 feet, lustre face in, to be delivered as requested from April 1, 1955, until March 31, 1956, inclusive.

The manufacturer of this paper, the Haloid Company, has submitted a price of $35.25 per roll, net. Authority is requested to dispense with publicly advertising for prices and award a contract, without public advertisement, to the Haloid Company, Haloid street, Rochester, New York. Inasmuch as the paper will be purchased direct from the manufacturer, it is my opinion that no advantage would be gained by publicly advertising for prices.

Approximate total amount of contract will be $1,410, net.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN V. MORAN,
Purchasing Agent.

DEPARTMENT OF SCHOOL BUILDINGS.

BOSTON, February 28, 1955.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

For many years this department's building at 26 Norman street, Boston, in which thousands of dollars worth of school equipment and school furniture is stored, has been under the protection of the American District Telegraph Company Electric Protection Services, and the building is so wired by said company, with their headquarters at 60 State street, Boston, to provide a protection service which I believe to be of great value to the City of Boston. The contract with the American District Telegraph Company has been made annually, and the current contract will expire March 31, 1955.

The American District Telegraph Company has informed me that due to increased labor costs they are forced to ask for an increase from $1,407, the amount of the current contract, to $1,536 for the year, April 1, 1955, to March 31, 1956, an increase in the amount of $129. Further, they inform me that the increased amount is guaranteed for a two-year period so that a subsequent contract starting April 1, 1956, and extending to March 31, 1957, could be consummated at the same cost.

I am definitely of the opinion that the protection services operated by the American District Telegraph Company are necessary in this building, and ask that you authorize me to negotiate a contract without advertising with the American District Telegraph Company, 60 State street, Boston, in the amount of $1,536, for the period April 1, 1955, to March 31, 1956.

Respectfully yours,

James H. Mooney,
Superintendent of Construction.

Health Department.

Boston, February 23, 1955.

Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir:

On December 23, 1954, following public advertising in the City Record, your Honor approved the award of a contract in the sum of $14,685 to Rossano Construction, Inc., the lowest eligible and responsible bidder for alterations and repairs to two (2) George Robert White Health Units.

As no bid was received by the Awarding Authority from any subbidder on the "roof work" portion of the project, each general contractor was duly advised to carry the sum of $5,000 in his proposal as an allowance for "roof work."

As provided for by applicable statute, the general contractor and the Awarding Authority subsequently agreed upon a subcontractor to do the "roof work," viz., the John F. Shea Company, Inc., 41 Hollingsworth street, Mattapan, Mass., who will perform this work for $4,975, necessitating a downward adjustment in the contract price.

Therefore, I now request your permission to execute the subject contract with Rossano Construction Company, Inc., in the amount of $14,660, in lieu of the sum of $14,685.

Yours respectfully,

John H. Cauley, M.D.,
Health Commissioner.

Park Department.

Boston, February 21, 1955.

Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir:

I respectfully request your approval for the award of the golf professional's concession at the Franklin Park Golf Course to Mr. Charles Malloy, 67 Prospect avenue, Wollaston, for a period of three years, commencing March 1, 1955, at a fee of $25 per year.

This privilege includes the right to teach golf at the Franklin Park course and to sell golfers' supplies, the income from these services to be retained by the concessionaire.

Mr. Malloy is a very well-known golf professional, having served in this capacity for a number of years at Furnace Brook Parkway Club and the Commonwealth Country Club. It is my opinion that because of his experience he will bring prestige to the Franklin Park Golf Course.

Respectfully yours,

Frank R. Kelley,
Commissioner.

Treasury Department.

Boston, March 10, 1955.

Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

Your permission is respectfully requested for the awarding of a contract, without publicly advertising for bids, between the City of Boston and Brink's, Inc., 711 West Monroe street, Chicago, Illinois, for the daily transportation of city funds between City Hall and the First National Bank of Boston and between the National Shawmut Bank of Boston and City Hall.

Brink's, Inc., agrees to assume full liability for any loss of any shipment up to the amount of $500,000, except for approximately 15 uncertain dates when the liability will be $1,000,000 and between the period of September 4 and November 4 when it will be $5,000,000, at a cost of $325 per month to the city for a period of one year, beginning April 1, 1955.

The price proposed in the new contract is the same as that provided in the contract expiring March 31, 1955, with the same company.

This company has provided this service for the department for a long period of years. It has been our experience that the other financial transportation companies either do not care to bid for this service, do not have sufficient insurance coverage, or have consistently bid a higher rate.

It is my opinion that no purpose will be served by publicly advertising for bids.

Very truly yours,

James E. Gildea,
Collector-Treasurer.

Boston, March 10, 1955.

Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

The American Bank Note Company, 150 Causeway street, Boston, Mass., and the Security Banknote Company, 55th and Sanson streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, have submitted bids for the engraving of 15,000 City of Boston coupon bond certificates bearing one sheet of coupons to be used in connection with the issuance of various loans.

These companies are the two largest engravers of bonds in the country and both companies are in possession of the engraved plates to do this work.

The American Bank Note Company has submitted a bid of 34 cents each for the 15,000 certificates bearing one sheet of coupons with imprinting charges as follows:

Base charge for imprinting 1,000 Blue Border certificates, $350, with additional charge of 9 cents for each additional certificate.

Additional charge for each purpose, $30.

Additional charge for each interest rate, $30.

Additional charge for each maturity, $3.

Additional charge for changing engraved plates, $900.

On sample illustrative loans used to determine the low bidder, the total cost to the city would be $9,270.

The Security Banknote Company has submitted a bid of 39 cents each for the 15,000 certificates bearing one sheet of coupons with imprinting charges as follows:

Base charge for imprinting 1,000 Blue Border certificates, $360, with additional charge of 11.6 cents for each additional certificate.

Additional charge for each purpose, $45.

Additional charge for each interest rate, $35.

Additional charge for each maturity, $1.75.

On sample illustrative loans used to determine the low bidder, the total cost to the city would be $9,429.50.

These two bank note companies are the only engravers in possession of the necessary plates, and since no purpose will be served by publicly advertising, I respectfully request approval to issue a service order, without advertising, to the American Bank Note Company, the low bidder, for 15,000 City of Boston Blue Border coupon bond certificates bearing one sheet of coupons at a cost of $5,100, with additional imprinting charges at the following rates:

Base charge of $350 for imprinting 1,000 certificates, with additional charge of 9 cents for each additional certificate.

Additional charge for each purpose, $30.

Additional charge for each interest rate, $30.

Additional charge for each maturity, $3.

Additional charge for changing engraved plates, $900.

Very truly yours,

James E. Gildea,
Collector-Treasurer.

Welfare Department.

Boston, March 2, 1955.

Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir:

This department desires to renew its contract with Dr. Joseph M. Lynch, such contract to run from April 1, 1955, to March 31, 1956.

Doctor Lynch has been retained as medical consultant in a greatly enlarged medical program and his services have been extremely valuable to the department in guiding and controlling the medical program.

The amount of the contract will not exceed four thousand (4,000) dollars for the 12-month period.

Due to the nature of the services to be performed and Doctor Lynch's knowledge of the department and its problems, it is requested that the contract be awarded without advertising.

Sincerely,

WILLIAM G. O'HARE,
Secretary.

SUFFOLK COUNTY.
EAST BOSTON DISTRICT COURT.
BOSTON, March 11, 1955.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

I respectfully request your permission to dispense with public advertising for proposals and to award a contract to Sylvester J. Wynters, of 1022 Bennington street, East Boston, Mass., for the transportation of prisoners from this court, as directed, for the period commencing on April 1, 1955, and ending March 31, 1956, in order to continue and maintain contractual arrangements now in existence because of the absolute necessity of maintaining these services to this court and likewise to fully observe the requirements of the Acts of 1909, chapter 468, section 30, as amended, in respect to the same. The total amount to be expended under the proposed contract is not to exceed the sum of one hundred and fifty-five (155) dollars per month, including tunnel tolls.

In my opinion, nothing would be gained by publicly advertising for bids in this work, since the prices charged for these services are reasonable and because this contractor carries out the work in a most commendable and satisfactory way.

Very truly yours,

WILLIAM H. BARKER,
Clerk.

ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES DEPARTMENT TO STANDARDIZE PAPER USED BY CITY DEPARTMENTS.

ROOM 50, CITY HALL,
March 14, 1955.

To All Department Heads.

Reference is made to my letter of November 23, 1954, regarding the "Standardization of Forms" study and survey which has been in progress since that time.

This work has been progressing, as of necessity, rather slowly, but, nevertheless, we are prepared at the present time to establish a list of printed form sizes which will become standardized throughout the city departments as of March 15, 1955, as indicated on the attached directive.

The City of New York and the State of Connecticut have settled on certain sizes of forms which can be cut without waste from certain sizes of paper sheets which all paper mills produce and stock. About one third, it has been found, of all sizes currently in use in the City of Boston are of sizes which cannot be produced without cutting waste. The effect of this nonstandardization shows up not only in waste of paper but also in increasing the cost of paper handling and storage, in addition to preventing the use of standard folders, ring binders, and the like.

The standard sizes listed on the attached directive are designed to be cut economically, without waste, out of standard mill size sheets of paper stock purchased for this purpose by the city. Excluded from the size requirements of the attached table are envelopes, tags, and such specialty forms as manifold books, jacket sets, continuous forms, snap-outs, peg board forms, keysort forms, visible records and tabulating punch cards, for which standard sizes will be listed at a later date.

All newly designed forms and all old forms which are reordered on and after March 15, 1955, shall conform to the sizes shown on the table set forth. It is expected that certain off-standard sizes of forms cannot reasonably be changed at this time. For such forms, the department head shall forward his requisition to this department for approval as requisitions for nonstandard sizes will not be honored by the Printing Section on and after March 15, 1955.

Your cooperation and assistance to the present is commendable and I trust that we can depend upon you and your employees for a continuance of the same character of cooperation and assistance until this all-important program has been completed.

Sincerely yours,

CHARLES J. FOX,
Director.

INVOCATION BY REV. DOUG BATTEN.

Almighty God, Who has given us this good city for our heritage, we beseech Thee that we may always prove ourselves a people mindful of Thy favor and glad to do Thy will.

Bless our city with honorable industry, sound learning, and pure manners. Defend our liberties and fashion into one united people the multitudes brought hither out of many kindreds and tongues. Endue with the spirit of wisdom those to whom in Thy name we entrust the authority of government, that there may be justice and peace at home, and, through obedience to Thy law, we may show forth Thy praise among the nations of the earth.

In the time of prosperity fill our hearts with thankfulness, and in the day of trouble suffer not our trust in Thee to fail.

Guide and bless the Councillors of this city, that they may ordain for our governance only such things as please Thee, to the glory of Thy name and the welfare of Thy people.

Through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

COMPREHENSIVE PLAN FOR OFF-STREET PARKING FACILITIES.

Coun. FOLEY, McCORMACK, and AHEARN offered the following:

Whereas, The advancement of the social, political, medical, and educational welfare of the people of Boston must be firmly supported by a sound economic base; and

Whereas, Boston's economy from its most ancient days until the present and into the foreseeable future has been one of commerce and trade rather than heavy industry; and

Whereas, In the first fifty years of the twentieth century a tremendous concentration of real property values has come to be located in downtown Boston at the nexus of Boston's mass transportation system; and

Whereas, Because of (1) Boston's extreme dependence on the real property tax, unique among large cities in the United States, and (2) Boston's small geographical area, which denies its economy the space wherein to make major adaptation to changing economic factors, and (3) assessment practices of such long duration as to be now difficult of reversal, which exaggerate the downtown concentration,

Boston is dependent for its economic future on this downtown commercial real estate as is no other city in the world; and

Whereas, The downtown real property values are threatened by a shift in the transportation habits of the populace from mass transportation to the automobile; and

Whereas, This area which represents one half the taxahle property of the entire city must be re-adapted for the automobile age which is upon us if Boston is to survive; and

Whereas, The Boston City Planning Board has emphasized the importance of off-street parking as a solution to this problem and has included in its list of high priority sites a majority of downtown sites; and

Whereas, The Real Property Board has, in the opinion of the City Council, changed the basic emphasis of this plan hy selecting from the Planning Board's list of high priority sites those few sites which are not located in the crucial area to be served; and

Whereas, The justification for the so-called "semiperipheral" sites presented to the City Council by the Real Property Board has not been at all convincing; and

Whereas, The city's attitude toward mass transportation must be rationalized by those responsible for planning; and

Whereas, The city must realistically face up to the fact that as more and more parking facilities are provided, it may well be that private investment in parking garages will become less and less attractive, and that the city will he faced with the construction of the final increments of the over-all plan from its own resources, leading to the logical conclusion that we should hushand our finances in the early stages of the program so that in the late stages of the program the city will be in a financial position to not only acquire sufficient sites to complete the program but also to construct the necessary garages thereon, and should concentrate whatever resources we have toward the most pressing problem; and

Whereas, The City Council firmly helieves that under no circumstances should the City of Boston acquire and clear land and construct, or have constructed under its direction, any parking facilities in areas which are currently receiving adequate service by private parking operators or in areas where private industry will demonstrate by concrete action, rather than promises, a willingness to erect parking facilities; and

Whereas, The members of the City Council wholeheartedly endorse the theory of off-street parking hut sincerely believe that there shonld he a plan adopted which will (1) satisfy the requirements of general planning and the needs of the city; (2) meet the immediate needs of the downtown area; (3) not compete unnecessarily with existing private industry in this field nor preclude the construction of parking sites by private capital that would otherwise fulfill all specifications and fit into the general scheme; and (4) be a prudent business venture that will prove attractive to parkers and not result merely in the destruction of tax revenue producing properties and the construction of large facilities that will compound rather than resolve the parking and traffic prohlems of a given area; be it therefore

Resolved, That (1) the moneys appropriated hy the City Council should be husbanded and immediately directed to the solution of the downtown parking prohlem for shoppers; (2) the Conncil has been presented by the Planning Board and the Real Property Board no justification for the so-called Dillaway and Dore Street site and feels that the expenditure of money in this location would he a squandering in a most callous manner of resources which should he directed to much more pressing demands in the downtown area; (3) the rate structure policy is one of basic importance, and the Council finds that there has not been sufficient emphasis on this prohlem because of a lingering hope that private financing will be able to do more than seems possible; (4) there has been a most lamentable lack of positive thought concerning the role of the M.T.A. in the Boston transportation picture from the viewpoint of the economic importance of the M.T.A. to the downtown area, and this vacuum should be filled in immediately by the Planning Board; and (5) a bolder and more imaginative plan for the downtown area use and transportation prohlems incident thereto must be generated by an expanded and professionalized Planning Department.

POLICE DEPARTMENT ORDERS.

General Order No. 2,912.

The Police Commissioner having heard the complaint of Capt. Francis W. Russell, Division 10, against Patrolman Thomas G. O'Loughlin, Division 10, on Thursday, March 10, 1955, at Police Headquarters, charging him with violation of the rules and regulations of the Boston Police Department, has made a finding of guilty.

Therefore, it is ordered that the said Patrolman Thomas G. O'Loughlin be suspended for a period of eight months, effective as of Wednesday, September 1, 1954, at 5.45 o'clock P.M.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

THOMAS F. SULLIVAN,
Police Commissioner.

General Order No. 2,913.

On March 7, 1955, a taxi driver reported to Division 14 that he had just been held up at knife point by two young men. The recall lights were set for the purpose of giving out the description of the men wanted and within a matter of minutes Patrolman Edward L. Beaudoin responded. Upon receiving the description the officer stated that earlier the previous evening he had observed two individuals answering the description. While en route to the station to perform a last half tour of duty he stopped in a restaurant for lunch and while there his suspicions were aroused by the actions of two young men, one of whom appeared to be under the influence of a stimulant. After questioning the youth and satisfying himself that the youth's condition was normal he allowed him to go on his way.

As the result of Patrolman Beaudoin recalling that the youth had given his name and address, an arrest for suspicion of armed robbery resulted. At the station the taxi driver made positive identification of the suspect as one of the youths who had held him up.

The extreme alertness displayed by Patrolman Beaudoin while off duty set in motion a series of events which resulted in the capture of four dangerous felons within a matter of hours after they had completed a holdup and apparently gotten away cleanly. Three of these men confessed to the armed robbery of another taxi driver in Dorchester.

The Commissioner is pleased to recognize the efficient police work of Patrolman Beaudoin and hereby orders that he be granted two days' additional vacation.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

THOMAS F. SULLIVAN,
Police Commissioner.

Ordered, His Honor the Mayor having approved the same, Patrolman Lester K. Greenwood will be retired from active duty in the Police Department, effective Tuesday, March 15, 1955, at 5.45 o'clock P.M.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

THOMAS F. SULLIVAN,

MILK INSPECTION.

The people of Boston are drinking a high quality milk that is good as well as safe. Results of bacteriological examinations of samples taken of milk—pasteurized, the poorest quality of milk sold in Boston, contained an average of less than 5,000 colonies of bacteria in one cubic centimeter. This average is more than twice as good as that prescribed for Grade A milk by the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and more than five times as good as the requirements of the United States Public Health Service Code. Grade A milk sold in Boston averaged about 1,000 colonies of bacteria in one cubic centimeter.

RECENT FEDERAL ACTIONS AFFECTING CITIES.

The Housing Act of 1949, approved on July 15, authorized a uniform 10 per cent payment to cities in lieu of taxes on housing projects, but the independent offices appropriation bill passed on August 15 contains a provision that for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1950, only payments provided for in the original contract between the housing authority and the city are authorized for federal reimbursement.

Federal aid for hospital construction has been approved for nearly 800 projects; more than 600 are general hospitals and the great majority are in towns of under 10,000 population.

OFFICIAL CHRONICLE OF BOSTON MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS.

VOL. 47 SATURDAY, MARCH 26, 1955. NO. 13

YOUTH OF TODAY LOOKS TO EDUCATORS AND AMERICA FOR INSPIRATION TO LEAD THEM TO HOPE AND BE ENCOURAGED TO FOLLOW THE AMERICAN WAY OF LIFE IN BASIC PRINCIPLES AND FUNDAMENTAL IDEALS — FRANCIS GRANT, PUPIL OF GATE OF HEAVEN HIGH SCHOOL, SOUTH BOSTON, DELIVERS ORATION AT MARCH 17 HISTORICAL EXERCISES, ON MARCH 13, AT SOUTH BOSTON HIGH SCHOOL.

On March 13, at the historical exercises at the South Boston High School, Francis Grant, of the Gate of Heaven High School, orator of the event, delivered the following address on "Our Heritage—The American Way of Life." The address was as follows and was repeated at the request of Mayor Hynes at the Mayor's luncheon on March 17 at the South Boston Athletic Association rooms:

"Life lived in peace, contented and free,
This is the heritage forever to be."

The eve of Evacuation Day, 1955—and youth looks at America and the precious heritage which is theirs. Youth looks

MAYOR APPROVES CONTRACTS FOR COLLECTION AND REMOVAL OF REFUSE AND GARBAGE—CONTRACTORS CHOSEN FOR HIGH STANDARD OF SERVICE IN PAST — SIXTEEN OF SEVENTEEN AREAS NOW HAVE ALL-ENCLOSED TRUCK BODIES FOR WORK.

Contracts for collecting and removal of refuse and garbage have been approved by Mayor Hynes, at the request of the Public Works Commissioner, for all districts of the city for the next year. In part, the letter to the Mayor reads as follows:

" . . . I have carefully analyzed all the bids and my recommendations are submitted without qualification and with confidence that the contractors selected will continue to render the high standard of service now in effect in

MAYOR JOHN B. HYNES DELIVERS STIRRING TOAST TO ST. PATRICK, BOSTON, AND HER CITIZENS OF IRISH ANCESTRY—THRILLS AUDIENCE AT CHARITABLE IRISH SOCIETY'S 218TH CELEBRATION AT SHERATON-PLAZA HOTEL—BOASTS THAT BOSTON, THOUGH STILL FAULTY, IS YET THE BEST CITY IN OUR LAND AND BEST CITY IN THE WORLD.

At the 218th annual dinner of the Charitable Irish Society at the Sheraton-Plaza Hotel on March 17, Mayor John B. Hynes spoke as follows:

The Good Book tells us to avoid the sin of pride, and to cultivate the virtue of humility.

I believe in the Good Book. I believe that he who follows its wise counsels is a wise man. But where among us can be found a Bostonian with a drop of Irish blood in his veins, who wants to be wise, or who wants to be virtuously humble on this day of days; this festive occasion when we celebrate the first bloodless victory of the Revolutionary War—when we give thanks to good St. Patrick for converting our forefathers from pagan worshippers to strong and faithful sons of the one Omnipotent God?

The Old Testament tells us that the All-wise Creator forgave erring and faithless man on numerous occasions; and the New Testament tells us that his Divine Son forgave the errant Magdalen, the dying thief on the cross, the Roman soldiers who nailed Him to the gibbet.

Surely, then, cannot we hope to be forgiven if, once each year, for a few brief hours, we forget to be humble and wise, and indulge in an orgy of boastful pride?

But is it really boastful or sinful pride that swells up within us on this day we celebrate?

I prefer to think of it as wholesome—even virtuous—pride, for can there be any offense to point to our city as the cornerstone of our great and strong country, as the fertile field from whence the seeds of freedom and liberty have spread from sea to sea?

Is it really sinful pride for us to feel our warm Irish blood rise to the boiling point when we think of the indignities and the cruelties suffered by our ancestors because they preferred to worship at the altars introduced by St. Patrick, rather than at the altars of the golden calf? Or is it really sinful pride for us to boast that our nation is broad and bountiful and beautiful because men of Irish blood have helped in no small way to make it so? Or do we err, ever so slightly, when we claim that Boston—Boston with all its faults—is still the best city in our land, the best city in the world?

I think not—for I believe that on this night all the good Bostonians who are in heaven will make our peace, will join with St. Patrick around the golden throne and there in joyous refrain sing out—

There's a little bit of heaven on the earth so far below;
There's a city and a people like no other that we know.
Sure once each year they sing and shout and do a little boasting,
But we pray thee, Almighty Father, 'tis no cause for roasting.
For if the devil and his armies ever want a finish fight,
We will send them all to Boston on St. Patrick's night.

"O Boston, fair City enthroned like a radiant queen,
From thy hills looking down on the ship-teeming plain of the ocean;
May thy future be bright, thy skies beam with light all serene,
Ensured by thy sons' and thy daughters' unselfish devotion!"

From Boston Centennial Poem by Nathan Haskell Dole.

ADDRESS OF FRANCIS GRANT AT MARCH 17 HISTORICAL EXERCISES.

to America as well for hope, for inspiration, and for encouragement. The present generation hunger for their share in our national heritage, and eagerly seek to imbibe the basic principles and fundamental ideals of our American way of life. They yearn for fields of endeavor in which to increase their zeal for American democracy.

And how can this be accomplished better than from good example and training? Yet, from mediums through which this could best be done—from radio and rostrum, from newsreel and newspapers, from magazine and microphone, by telephone and television—youth is being warned of the subtle dangers that threaten them on all sides; dire prophecies of a none too promising future; and of disintegrating forces at work throughout the world. This future belongs to our young people, for better or for worse.

Youth Appeals to Educators.

The oncoming generation of youth look to their educators to develop in them an understanding, a love, and a zeal for the skills, attitudes, and ideals that will prepare them for effective and active American citizenship and world cooperation for peace. They appeal to you, dear friends, to teach them to carry forward with unflinching determination the torch of freedom, justice, and humanity. They must be taught to become proficient in the skills of inquiry and of discussion, and to develop habits of discriminating radio and television listening as well as reading. Learning experiences geared to their maturity level must be placed at their disposal, and these experiences must challenge them to identify democratic values and to act cooperatively and efficiently in a wide variety of life situations.

The home, the school, and society at large can be powerful factors in aiding to attain these ends. Several years ago, a group of public-minded American citizens was responsible for the historic nation-wide journey of the Freedom Train with its priceless documents of liberty—to cite only one example of an endeavor to show our youth a part of their national heritage.

Tell them, and tell them constantly about their wonderful country. In the heart of every young American boy and girl there is a vital spark of patriotism which can be easily kindled into a glowing flame of love for this heritage which is theirs.

You all have read the story of the man without a country. You remember, no doubt, how the young American, Philip Nolan, suffered years of atonement and regret from the terrible sentence which had been given to him—never to see or hear the name of his native land again. How he prayed that he might be allowed to return, if only to die there! In his last hours, "Tell me about America, tell me about America," was his constant dying appeal. Yes, friends—in the home, in the classrooms, the pulpits, the courts of justice, the playgrounds, the athletic fields; yes, friends of the press, radio, and television, tell young America of America. Day in and day out, over and over again, from every source available to this country which God has favored above every nation, we must tell our youth that God is the author of law, and the source of all authority.

Grave Responsibilities.

To the young people of today, those in high places have a grave responsibility. Youth is a hero-worshipper. Let not their idols be found with feet of clay. Integrity is more than a personal matter; large issues are at stake. Where is the man who, if he thinks at all, is willing to think of himself as responsible for the shattering of some youthful ideal? We must hold up to them as models a Washington, a Lincoln, a Jefferson, a Commander Shea, a Mayor Hynes, and an Archbishop Cushing. Nature's noblemen all!

The generation coming to manhood may well profit by this splendid heritage, and it is safe to say they will not disappoint their loved country. In spite of the invectives hurled at youth today by an alarmed and outraged public, our country, like a good mother, remembers the superb courage displayed at Normandy, Iwo Jima, Korea, and the like, and, remembering, she loves and trusts her children.

As a representative of American manhood, I pledge to do all in my power to preserve this unprecedented heritage of freedom, to lift high the torch of liberty that it may cast its lustrous light for the peace and happiness of all posterity. In our hands has been placed this heritage. We shall strive to guard it well!

CONTRACTS APPROVED FOR COLLECTION AND REMOVAL OF GARBAGE AND REFUSE.

connection with garbage and refuse collection work. In 1953, we inaugurated a program which provided for use of the all-enclosed steel bodies for refuse collection work. At the present time, this sanitary type of body is being used in 11 districts in the city, and I am recommending contracts in the South Boston, Dorchester North, Dorchester South, Elm Hill, and Stuart districts requiring the furnishing of closed trucks. Under the circumstances, therefore, sixteen of the seventeen refuse collection areas in the city will now be provided with all-enclosed bodies.

I submit herewith, by districts, my recommendations concerning the award of new contracts:

District 1—South Boston.

I am recommending that a one-year contract be awarded to the low bidder, Anthony J. Ryan, Jr., at the bid price of $10,400 per month, submitted under Item 1B (enclosed steel bodies). The present contract, which terminates on March 31, provides for a monthly payment of $10,500 to the current contractor, Anthony J. Ryan, Inc.

District 2—East Boston.

I am recommending that a three-year contract be awarded to the low bidder, Milano Brothers, Inc., at the bid price of $7,328 per month, submitted under Item 1C (b) (enclosed steel bodies). The current contract was also awarded to the same contractor at the monthly rate of $6,762 a year ago.

District 4—Brighton.

I recommend that a one-year contract be awarded to the low bidder, Anthony J. Ryan, Inc., at the bid prices of $13,700 per month, submitted under Item 1B (a) (enclosed bodies, the city to furnish dump at Calf Pasture) and $13,400 per month submitted under Item B (b) (enclosed steel bodies, the city to furnish dump at Gardner street), disposal to be made as directed by the commissioner. The present contract, which terminates on March 31, was awarded to the same contractor and provides for a payment of $13,500 monthly.

District 5A—West Roxbury.

I am recommending that a three-year contract be awarded to the low bidder, Frank J. Cavaliere, at the bid price of $10,350 per month, submitted under Item C (enclosed steel bodies). The present contract, which terminates on March 31, was awarded to the Peerless Contract Company, Inc., a year ago, at a monthly rate of $11,190.

District 6A—Dorchester North.

I am recommending that a one-year contract be awarded to the low bidder, Coleman Brothers Corporation, at the bid price of $25,900 per month, submiteed under Item 1B (a) (enclosed steel bodies). The current contract, which expires March 31, was awarded to Coleman Brothers Corporation, and provides for the same monthly payment of $25,900 and also provides for the contractor to furnish open-top trucks instead of the closed bodies to be provided under the new contract.

District 6B—Dorchester South.

I am recommending that a one-year contract be awarded to the low bidder, Coleman Brothers Corporation, at the bid price of $29,100 per month, submitted under Item 1B (a) (enclosed steel bodies). A lower bid was submitted by Anthony J. Ryan, Inc., for this district under Item 1B (b) (enclosed bodies), which provides for the city to furnish the dump and the contractor to operate same. The scarcity of dumping areas for this district makes it imperative that the city conserve its dumping area and use it only as a last resort. It is my unqualified opinion that, in the best interests of the city, the use of the privately owned dump should be continued for as long as possible and, therefore, I recommend the award to the lowest bidder under the item requiring the contractor to furnish the dump. The current contract, which expires March 31, was awarded to the Coleman Brothers Corporation, at the same monthly payment of $29,100, and provides for the contractor to furnish open-top trucks instead of the closed-body type to be provided under the new contract.

District 7A—Elm Hill.

I am recommending that a one-year contract be awarded to the low bidder, William J. Banfield, at the bid price of $5,310 per month, submitted under Item 1B (b) (enclosed steel bodies). The current contract, which expires March 31, was awarded to the same contractor a Approval has been given for an extension of time for the completion of the contract with Matthew J. Provide and install new approved metal, 16-ounce copper gravel roof stops, at all exposed edges of roofs at two new ticket offices at southeast entrance to stadium for the sum of $78, and the amount of $78 will be added therefor, making the account as follows: contract price, $2,700; total additions, $78; amount of contract, $2,778.

Fire Department.

Approval has been given for the following addition to the contract of J. D'Amico, Inc., dated December 21, 1954, for installation of conduit underground in Topliff street, Dorchester:

Addition No. 1.

Furnish labor and material for excavation to determine termination point of steel underground conduit of New England Telephone & Telegraph Company, $86.94; original contract, $3,232; total contract with addition, $3,318.94.

In connection with the installation of underground conduit on Topliff street, Dorchester, the contract specifications call for the construction of a manhole in Topliff street, at Bowdoin street, at the point of termination of a steel underground conduit of the New England Telephone & Telegraph Company. The location of this manhole was shown approximately on the plans for the underground work. In accordance with information taken from prints of the Telephone Company, J. D'Amico, Inc., excavated for the manhole at the location shown on the plans. It was found that the termination of the steel duct was not at the location as shown, apparently due to construction work at this location some years ago which changes had not been recorded on the plans. It was necessary to secure the assistance of the Telephone Company with proper instruments to determine the exact location of the end of the steel conduit so that the manhole could be constructed in the proper location. It was necessary for the contractor to hold up work, while keeping his men and equipment at the location, due to the incorrect information as to the terminating point of the steel conduit.

GARBAGE AND REFUSE CONTRACTS APPROVED

year ago and provides for a monthly payment of $5,300, and also provides for the contractor to furnish open-top trucks instead of the closed bodies to be provided under the new contract.

District 7B—Dudley.

I am recommending that a one-year contract be awarded to the low bidder, United Contracting Company, Inc., of Boston, at the bid price of $6,729 per month, submitted under Item 1B (enclosed steel bodies). The current contract, which expires on March 31, is held by M. DeMatteo Construction Company and provides for the same monthly payment.

District 7C—Mission Hill.

I am recommending that a one-year contract be awarded to the second low bidder, Marinucci Brothers & Co., Inc., at the bid price of $8,140 per month, submitted under Item 1B (enclosed steel bodies). Frank J. Cavaliere, the low bidder for this district, currently has the contract for the Hyde Park district and has been recommended for the award of the contract for the West Roxbury district. In general, no contractor should be awarded more than two refuse collection contracts. I am of the opinion, therefore, that it would not be advisable to award a third district to him and I am recommending the award to the second low bidder, Marinucci Brothers & Co., Inc. The latter experienced contractor has had extensive experience in refuse collection work and holds the current contract in this district, which expires on March 31, and which provides for a monthly payment of $8,200.

District 7D—Roxbury.

I am recommending that a one-year contract be awarded to the low bidder, United Contracting Company, Inc., of Boston, at the bid price of $9,980 per month, submitted under Item 1B (enclosed steel bodies). The current contract, which expires on March 31, is held by M. DeMatteo Company and provides for the same monthly payment.

District 9—South End.

I am recommending that a one-year contract be awarded to the low bidder, James A. Freaney, Inc., at the bid price of $7,710 per month, submitted under Item 1A (open-top trucks). The current contract, which expires March 31, was awarded to Frank J. Cavaliere and provides for a monthly payment of $7,900.

District 9A—Back Bay.

I am recommending that a one-year contract be awarded to the low bidder, Dooley Brothers, Inc., at the bid price of $3,690 per month, submitted under Item 1B (enclosed steel bodies). The current contract, which expires March 31, is held by the same contractor and provides for a monthly payment of $4,572.

District 9B—Stuart.

I am recommending that a one-year contract be awarded to the low bidder, James A. Freaney, Inc., at the bid price of $3,560 per month, submitted under Item 1B (enclosed steel bodies). The current contract, which expires on March 31, was awarded to the same contractor a year ago and provides for a monthly payment of $4,880 and also provides for the contractor to furnish open-top trucks instead of the closed bodies to be provided under the new contract.

Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.
Dear Sir:

In response to Council order dated January 10, 1955, I wish to report that at a meeting of the Traffic Commission held on Friday, March 4, it was voted to prohibit parking in Eastburn street, Brighton, both sides, from Washington street to a point 200 feet south of Washington street, 7 A.M. to 6 P.M.

It was further voted to amend the present one-way rule in Easthurn street so that it will be one way from the southerly end of the driveway of the United States Post Office property to Mt. Vernon street. This will afford two-way traffic in the vicinity of the post office.

Respectfully yours,
WM. ARTHUR REILLY,

LIGHTING CONDITIONS ON CLARKWOOD STREET, MATTAPAN.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, March 14, 1955.

To the City Council.
Gentlemen:

I transmit herewith communication from the Commissioner of Public Works relative to your order of February 28, 1955, concerning the lighting conditions on Clarkwood street, Mattapan.

J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Public Works Department,
March 10, 1955.

Harold B. Flemming,
Chief Clerk, Mayor's Office.
Dear Mr. Flemming:

This is in reference to the following order that was passed in the City Council under date of February 28:

"Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor is hereby requested to direct the Commissioner of Public Works to make a survey of lighting conditions on Clarkwood street, Mattapan, with a view to installing new street lights to replace the outmoded gas lights."

A survey of the above-referenced street and all other streets in the vicinity that are lighted by gas lights will be made in the very near future, and consideration will be given to the replacing of said lights with modern, electric street lamps.

At the present time, there are in excess of 3,000 gas lights remaining in the city, and our program provides for the replacing of sald lamps with electric lights on an area hasis rather than on an individual street basis. As stated, therefore, the entire Clarkwood Street area will be studied at the time the survey is being made.

Respectfully yours,
GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

Placed on file.

OFFICIAL CHRONICLE OF BOSTON MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS.

VOL. 47 SATURDAY, APRIL 2, 1955. NO. 14

MAYOR NAMES COMMITTEE OF 75 LEADING CITIZENS TO RAISE FUND TO BUY FAMOUS PAINTING OF "WASHINGTON AT DORCHESTER HEIGHTS" AS ART TREASURE FOR CITY OF BOSTON—NOW WORTH $7,500 AND WILL GROW IN VALUE.

Mayor John B. Hynes has announced that he is naming a committee of 75 leading representative business and professional men to raise $7,500 through public subscription to buy the famous "Washington at Dorchester Heights" painting by Emanuel Luntze as an art treasure for the City of Boston.

The portrait, which stands 10 feet high, shows General Washington standing beside a cannon on Dorchester Heights watching the British fleet sail out of Boston Harbor with the British troops aboard that were evacuating the city under the pressure of his menacing guns. The picture is now owned by the Vose Galleries on Boylston street, where it is on display.

COMPLETE LIST OF BIDDERS AND THEIR BIDS FOR COLLECTION AND REMOVAL OF GARBAGE AND REFUSE FOR CITY'S DISTRICTS MADE PUBLIC BY MAYOR HYNES—SUBMITTED BY PUBLIC WORKS COMMISSIONER GEORGE HYLAND.

The following is the letter with the complete list of bidders and their bids, approved by Mayor John B. Hynes, as submitted by Public Works Commissioner George G. Hyland for the collection and removal of garbage and refuse:

BOSTON, March 16. 1955.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Publicly advertised proposals were opened in this office last Wednesday, March 9. for collecting and removing garbage and refuse. These bids affect thirteen of the seventeen collection districts that comprise the entire city. Contracts in the other four districts were awarded in prior years for periods of two or three years, and said contracts are still in effect.

$114,000,000 EXPENDITURE PROGRAM OF CONSTRUCTION ACTIVITIES FOR MAJOR IMPROVEMENTS IN BOSTON THROUGH 1960 MADE PUBLIC BY MAYOR JOHN B. HYNES—PRESENTS RECOMMENDATIONS OF CITY PLANNING BOARD—$14,000,000 ABOVE PROGRAM RECOMMENDED IN 1954—MADE POSSIBLE THROUGH LARGER CONTRIBUTIONS FROM FEDERAL AND STATE GOVERNMENTS AND INVESTMENT BY PRIVATE ENTERPRISE IN MUNICIPAL PROJECTS.

Mayor John B. Hynes has made public the fourth annual six-year capital improvement program submitted by the City Planning Board. This program, designed to provide a long-range viewpoint of construction activities, recommends a $114,000,000 expenditure for major improvements sponsored by the City of Boston through 1960.

The Planning Board points out that a $114,000,000 program is larger by $14,000,000 than the six-year program recommended last year. However, most of this increase is due to larger contributions from the state and federal governments and additional investment in municipal projects by private enterprise. Of the $14,000,000 total increase only $2,500,000 must be financed by the city. This small increase has been maintained in view of a basic policy to strengthen the long-range tax rate outlook in Boston and still provide an adequate physical plant for essential municipal services.

Two thirds of the $114,000,000, approximately $77,000,000, is to be made available from various municipal funds, including general and special revenue appropriations and loan issues. The remaining $37,000,000 is expected from the state for highways and schools; from the federal government for urban redevelopment and urban renewal; from trust funds for the Central Library; and from private enterprises for off-street parking garages in the downtown business area.

$64,684,000 Borrowing Program.

The Planning Board recommends a six-year city borrowing program totaling $64,684,000—an average of $10,800,000 per year. The report emphasizes, however, that almost $22,000,000 of this has already been authorized and is ready to be issued and used.

The 1955-60 capital improvement program schedules approximately $38,000,000 for the construction and reconstruction of transportation facilities, including streets, bridges, and off-street parking garages and lots. Necessary street and highway construction is expected to cost about $2,300,000 per year; bridge projects, an average of $1,400,000 per year (including $2,500,000 to be obtained from the state for the construction of the Malden Bridge over the Mystic River).

Among the traffic improvements included in the 1955 program is a new traffic oval at the intersection of the Riverway and Avenue Louis Pasteur to cost $150,000. Also scheduled for construction this year are off-street parking lots in Mattapan square, Cleary square in Hyde Park, and Uphams Corner in Dorchester. In order to alleviate the serious downtown parking problem, the report schedules an average of $2,500,000 per year for the construction of parking garages. The greater portion of this amount is to come from expected private investment.

COMMITTEE NAMED TO RAISE FUND TO BUY FAMOUS PAINTING.

After the picture is bought, it will be put on permanent display at the Boston Public Library, or such other place as may be designated by the Boston Art Commission.

"I have had connoisseurs examine this rare painting, and they report that it is not only worth $7,500, but that it will increase in value with the years," said the Mayor. "Furthermore," he said, "I understand there is no other portrait of value in existence depicting such a momentous occasion as the evacuation of Boston."

Heading the committee named by the Mayor is Capt. Thomas J. Carty, commanding officer of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Boston, whose members in 1776 served with Washington in helping to expel the 12,000 British troops that had held the city since the beginning of the Revolution, nearly a year before. J. Reed Morss, President of the Boston Five Cents Savings Bank, is treasurer.

"I hope that the acquisition of the painting by the city," said the Mayor, "will lead to a better understanding by our boys and girls of the events leading up to and surrounding the siege and evacuation of Boston. A study of that period will reveal to them the real causes of the Revolution and the most dramatic episode in all American history.

"Very little is recorded in American school textbooks about the evacuation of Boston. The reason, as pointed out by Frothingham in his famous notes on the event, is that it was a bloodless victory. It was a 'battle of brains' between General Washington and Lord Howe, and the Father of our Country prevailed.

"However, in the achievement of that victory Washington demonstrated a resourcefulness without parallel in American history. The hauling of 70 cannon weighing more than 105,000 pounds in the dead of winter on roughhewn sleds down through the trackless Berkshires from Fort Ticonderoga, New York, to Dorchester Heights, a distance of more than 400 miles, and the capture of two British merchantmen in Massachusetts Bay, to obtain powder and shot to feed the guns, are only two of the sensational incidents that took place in the driving of the British out of Boston.

"The effect of Washington's victory at Boston is now but an academic question.

Nevertheless, there are those who hold that without such an accomplishment the American Revolution would have failed. At any rate, the fact remains that it did electrify and hearten the American patriots throughout the entire thirteen Colonies and did prove that the Continental Army under Washington could successfully fight the professional British soldiers.

"The Boston Public Library would be an ideal place to exhibit the 'Washington at Dorchester Heights' painting. I hope that the Trustees will find a suitable place within the Library for its permanent display. It would make an excellent addition to the priceless Medal of Honor awarded by Congress to Washington in commemoration of the evacuation of Boston, the Washington Funeral Orations, the inimitable collection of Washington biographies, and numerous other Washingtoniana that now repose within its walls."

Contributions to help pay for the painting may be sent to Treasurer J. Reed Morss, at the Boston Five Cents Savings Bank, School street, Boston, Mass. Any sum, large or small, will be graciously and gratefully received. Checks should be made payable to the "Washington Committee."

$114,000,000 PROGRAM OF CONSTRUCTION PLANNED BY MAYOR.

Educational and Recreational Facilities.

The second largest item in the program is the $36,000,000 for educational and recreational facilities. The six-year program schedules the construction of nineteen new elementary schools, one new high school, the start of a new junior high school, additions to five existing schools, three branch libraries, the start of an addition to the Central Library building, and four new large playgrounds:

Outstanding among the public utility projects recommended in the capital improvement program are the covering of the Stony Brook in Hyde Park, the reinforcing of the Hyde Park area high service water system, and two new incinerators (one in the South Bay area, the other in South Dorchester). All of these projects, except the incinerator in South Dorchester, are scheduled for this year.

This program recommends $3,000,000 for repairs to the City Hospital. The construction and financing of the new 500-bed chronic disease hospital at Long Island is scheduled to begin in 1955 and continue into 1957, at a cost of $5,400,000.

The New York Streets Project, the first in Boston's urban redevelopment program, is to be initiated this year through the purchase of land and the demolition of buildings. Another redevelopment project in the West End is scheduled to begin in 1957.

This year, for the first time, expenditures for urban renewal are included in the capital improvement program. This urban renewal program, which will augment the existing redevelopment program, will allow the city to attack the problem of neighborhood decay and prevent the further spread of blight. City and federal funds will be used to conserve and rehabilitate some areas while clearing and redeveloping others.

Four New Fire Stations.

The six-year program also includes the construction of four new fire stations and a new sea wall and security fence at Deer Island.

The Planning Board recommends that a total of $11,600,000 for new loans be authorized this year to finance the construction of highways, sewers, off-street parking garages, and municipal buildings. Also recommended are a $3,670,000 maintenance and general repairs loan (for the Hospital, Library, and Penal Institutions Departments), a $500,000 urban renewal loan, and a $1,000,000 equipment loan. These loan authorizations are not only for projects scheduled for 1955, but also for those scheduled for 1956 and 1957. This encourages proper planning and preparation and ensures on-schedule construction of the necessary improvements.

With constant and continual immunization for diphtheria, typhoid fever, and whooping cough, and increased use of antibiotics in the treatment of venereal diseases, the annual total examinations for these latter diseases have not increased, while routine sputa examinations for tuberculosis have demanded a major part of the diagnostic services.

You will note that I am recommending the award of three-year contracts in District 2, East Boston, and District 5A, West Roxbury. Contracts in excess of a one-year period for collecting and removing garbage and refuse were awarded for the first time two years ago, and it is my intention, in the subject contracts, to follow the procedures prescribed by the Law Department at that time. Before obtaining the approval of the City Council to the award of contracts in excess of a one-year period, it will be necessary for the contracts to be awarded to the designated contractors and executed by said contractors and the undersigned, and then forwarded to your Honor for transmittal to the City Council for approval. It will be necessary for the City Council, in accordance with the provisions of section 6 of the City Charter, to hold a public hearing on said contracts. It would be impossible—at this late date—for the Council to act on this matter before the anticipated starting date of the contracts, which is April 1. We should, therefore, award short-term contracts for a two-month period for the two areas affected by the three-year contracts, in order to allow the Council sufficient time to consider this matter and hold the necessary public hearings. As the three-year contracts will have to be awarded for two-month periods—and then for thirty-four-month periods if the Council grants approval—we must dispense with advertising, as the proposed contract periods are different from those spelled out in the invitation to contractors to submit public proposals. However, the contract prices will be the same as those submitted in answer to our publicly advertised invitations.

I respectfully request, therefore, your authority to dispense with advertising and to award contracts to the following-named contractors, in the districts designated, for a period of two months, from April 1 to May 31, 1955, at the prices designated, which, as stated, were obtained as a result of publicly advertising for proposals:

District	Name	Basis of Award	Contract Period	Monthly Bid
2—East Boston,	Milano Brothers, Inc.,	closed trucks,	from April 1 to May 31, 1955	$7,328
5A—West Roxbury,	Frank J. Cavaliere,	closed trucks,	from April 1 to May 31, 1955	10,350

I also request your authorization to dispense with advertising and to award contracts to the latter-referenced two contractors at the monthly bid prices appearing above, for the period from June 1, 1955, to March 31, 1958, with the understanding that the two contracts for the latter-referenced period will not be valid unless approved by the City Council, in accordance with the provisions of section 6 of the City Charter.

I also respectfully request your approval to the awarding of contracts — on the basis of the publicly advertised proposals that were opened in this office on Wednesday, March 9 — to the following contractors, in the districts designated and at the monthly bid prices that appear below, for one-year periods, from April 1, 1955 to March 31, 1956:

In connection with the award of a one-year contract in the Brighton district, it is to be expressly understood that I am including in my recommendations, for the approval of your Honor, the acceptance of both bids submitted by the contractor for the hauling of refuse to either the Calf Pasture Dump or the Gardner Street Dump as directed by me during the contract term.

The current contracts provide for a minimum wage rate of $1.82½ cents per hour to be paid chauffeurs and helpers. The new contracts, which will start on April 1, provide for a 10-cent per hour increase to $1.92½ per hour. It is estimated that this 10-cent per hour increase will cost approximately $60,000 per year. The new contracts that I am recommending for awards will cost the city $37,872 less than the cost of the current contracts. In the districts covered by the subject contracts, the cost to the city for the period from April 1, 1954, to March 31, 1955, was $1,734,156, whereas the cost for the period from April 1, 1955, to March 31, 1956 — based on the above referenced recommendations — will total $1,696,284. This reduction in cost has been accomplished while at the same time providing, in five additional districts, enclosed-body refuse trucks so that, on or before July 1, 1955, sixteen of the seventeen refuse collection districts in the city will have their refuse collected in these modern and sanitary vehicles.

Respectfully yours,

GEORGE G. HYLAND, Commissioner of Public Works.

SURVEY OF BANNING ALL STREET PARKING IN DOWNTOWN AREA.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, March 21, 1955.

To the City Council.
Gentlemen:

I transmit herewith communication from the Traffic Commissioner relative to your order of February 28, 1955, concerning information as to whether or not a survey has been made with a view toward banning of street parking in the downtown area.

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

Boston Traffic Commission,
March 16, 1955.

Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.
Dear Mr. Mayor:

With reference to the City Council order of February 28, 1955, requesting information as to whether or not a survey has been made with a view toward banning of street parking in the downtown area, I wish to report that our Traffic Commission has had this subject in mind for a period of two years.

A committee, made up of the late Traffic Engineer Philip Desmond, Deputy Superintendent of Police Hinchey, and myself, visited Philadelphia at the time the all-day parking ban was placed in operation there.

Since that time it has been observed that all-day parking prohibitions have been placed in midtown Manhattan, in St. Louis, and a portion of Chicago and other large cities.

We have substituted a parking ban between the hours of 8 and 9.30 A.M. and 4 and 6 P.M., which are the peak hours in daily traffic movement. It is our belief that these regulations are sufficient for the present and until such time as the Central Artery is completed and the city's off-street parking program is substantially advanced.

It is anticipated that in 1956 off-street parking facilities will be available in large number and that the Central Artery will be advanced to a point beyond the South Station. Thereupon it may be feasible to institute an all-day parking ban.

However, in the interim period we believe that it is not necessary during the midday hours and, naturally, we are reluctant to do anything which may have an adverse economic effect on downtown business.

In the cities where an all-day parking ban has been established there is a gridiron pattern of streets which makes possible a pattern of alternate directions for traffic flow, and an all-day ban provides extra means of traffic on such streets.

In Boston our streets are so short that there is no continuous route outside of Washington street, Tremont street, and Atlantic avenue which would achieve the same benefit that is available when long, straight, through streets are present, but paramount is the fact that in cities such as Philadelphia, for example, the number of off-street parking facilities is so great that there is an alternate for a motorist who cannot park at a curbstone.

In Boston we are so far short of off-street parking spaces that to establish a curb parking ban in substance means that many hundreds of motorists are prevented from making any point in the downtown area their destination.

The underlying purpose of the off-street parking program is to provide spaces for those cars which are now in excess of the legally available curb spaces. As progress is made in the direction of accommodating the present number of motorists required to make business calls in the downtown area the Traffic Commission is not inclined to favor an all-day parking ban in the city.

Respectfully yours,
WM. ARTHUR REILLY, Commissioner.

Placed on file.

AMENDMENT TO THE BOSTON BUILDING CODE.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, March 21, 1955.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen:

I submit herewith communication of the Building Commissioner in which he recommends that an amendment be made in section 8 of the ordinance pending before your Honorable Body since February 14, 1955, for the purpose of amending divers provisions of the Boston Building Code.

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

City of Boston, Building Department,
March 21, 1955.

To the Honorable the Mayor and City Council.

Gentlemen:

The hearing recently held by the City Council's Committee on Ordinances in connection with the ordinance recommended to the City Council on February 14, 1955, for the purpose of amending divers provisions of the Boston Building Code has occasioned further study of section 8 of the ordinance so recommended. Such study has revealed that the Building Code Committee of 1943 intended to strike from the second sentence of paragraph (k) of section 3005 of the Boston Building Code the words "more than two inches in diameter," but through inadvertence failed to do so. Upon reconsidering the matter I concur with the Building Code Committee of 1943 that technologically the words in question should be stricken.

In accordance with the provisions of chapter 479 of the Acts of 1938, as amended by chapter 217 of the Acts of 1939, as Building Commissioner of the City of Boston I therefore recommend that before the above-mentioned ordinance is adopted by the City Council, section 8 thereof be amended to read as follows:

Section 8. Paragraph (k) of section 3005 of said chapter 479, as amended by section 409 of chapter 8 of the Ordinances of 1943, is hereby further amended by striking out the second sentence and inserting in place thereof the following sentence:—Fittings for changes in direction in mains and risers shall be standard fittings.

Respectfully yours,
CHARLES A. CALLANAN,
Building Commissioner.

Referred to the Committee on Ordinances.

Office of the Mayor, March 21, 1955.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen:

I transmit herewith communication from the City Auditor relative to your order of February 28, 1955, concerning procedures which the City of Boston has adopted for determining that the M.D.C. and M.T.A. assessments levied upon the city are fair and just.

March 18, 1955.

Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir:

In response to an order of the City Council, passed February 28, 1955, as follows: "Ordered, That the City Auditor is hereby directed to furnish within twenty-one days of the passage of this order under section 17F of the City Charter, a report to the City Council of the procedures which the City of Boston has adopted for determining that the M.T.A. and the M.D.C. assessments levied upon the City of Boston are fair and just"— I submit the following report.

Charges and assessments levied by the State Treasurer on the City of Boston on account of the Metropolitan Transit Authority and the Metropolitan District Commission are levied under the authority of various general and special statutes of the Commonwealth. Before determining whether these assessments are fair and just, a clear understanding of the method and basis for the determination of the assessments as provided by the several statutes is most desirable. Therefore, the following summary of the basis of the computation of the assessments and the actual amounts paid by the City of Boston is included.

METROPOLITAN SEWERAGE ASSESSMENT — NORTH SYSTEM.

The assessment on account of the north metropolitan sewerage district is levied in accordance with the provisions of sections five, six, and seven of chapter 92 of the General Laws. These sections provide that the proportions in which each of the cities and towns belonging in whole or in part to the north metropolitan and south metropolitan sewerage districts, respectively, shall annually pay money to the Commonwealth to meet interest and sinking fund requirements shall be based upon the respective taxable valuations of the property of the cities and towns as most recently established by the Legislature as the basis for the apportionment of state and county taxes. The proportions in which each of the cities and towns shall annually pay for maintenance and operation is based upon the respective populations as ascertained by the last preceding state or national census. If only a part of the city or town is included in the system, the valuation and population of that part only is used as the basis for determining the proportion.

Charlestown and East Boston are included in the north metropolitan system. The taxable valuation basis for the assessments paid in 1954 was that established by chapter 559, Acts of 1945, and the population basis was in accordance with the federal population census of 1950.

The following table indicates the taxable valuation and population, the percentage proportion, and the actual payment by Boston in 1954:

	Proportion of Assessments.
	Valuation	Percentage for Interest and Serial Bonds	Population	Percentage for Maintenance
Boston	$85,537,810	7.93	$4,628	10.94
Total	$1,078,270,543	100.00	773,715	100.00

	Assessments.
	Serial Bonds	Interest	Maintenance	Total
Boston	$24,820 90	$3,412 08	$111,657 36	$139,890 34

METROPOLITAN SEWERAGE ASSESSMENT — SOUTH SYSTEM.

The assessment on account of the south metropolitan sewerage district is also levied in accordance with sections five, six, and seven of chapter 92 of the General Laws. All of Brighton and Hyde Park and parts of Roxbury, West Roxbury, and Dorchester are included in the south metropolitan district. The taxable valuation and population basis is based on the same source as that for the north metropolitan district.

The following table indicates the taxable valuation and population, the percentage proportion, and the actual payment by Boston in 1954:

	Proportion of Assessments.
	Valuation	Percentage for Interest and Serial Bonds	Population	Percentage for Maintenance
Boston	$312,015,921	24.73	269,862	35.56
Total	$1,261,610,413	100.00	758,815	100.00

	Assessments.
	Serial Bonds	Interest	Maintenance	Total
Boston	$77,652 20	$17,594 16	$309,695 92	$404,942 28

METROPOLITAN PARKS ASSESSMENT.

The assessment on account of metropolitan parks is levied in accordance with sections fifty-four to fifty-nine, inclusive, of chapter 92 of the General Laws. These sections provide that 60 per cent of the total cost of the maintenance of reservations and boulevards in the metropolitan parks district shall be paid from the Highway Fund, 1 per cent from general revenue of the Commonwealth and 39 per cent by the cities and towns in the parks district. The assessments paid by the cities and towns for maintenance are based upon one third in proportion to population and two thirds in proportion to valuations. Interest, sinking fund, serial or other bond requirements are assessed in proportion to valuations. As in the case of metropolitan sewerage district assessments, taxable valuations are as established by chapter 559, Acts of 1945, and populations are those established by the federal census of 1950.

The following table indicates the taxable valuation and population, the percentage proportion and the actual payment by Boston in 1954:

	Proportion of Assessments.
	Valuation	Percentage for Interest and Serial Bonds	Population	Percentage	Average Percentage for Maintenance
Boston	$1,437,779,078	.408885	801,444	.387926	.401898
Total	$3,516,339,084	1.000000	2,065,972	1.000000	1.000000

	Assessments.
	Serial Bonds	Interest	Maintenance	Total
Boston	$1,839 99	$355 73	$1,118,918 98	$1,121,114 70

METROPOLITAN WATER ASSESSMENT.

The metropolitan water assessment is levied in accordance with section twenty-six of chapter 92 of the General Laws, as amended. This statute establishes the rate of $80 per million gallons of water as the price to be charged to all cities and towns served by the metropolitan water district. The quantity used is obtained by measurement of the amount of water that passes through the various meters that are located on the many pipe lines that feed water into the City of Boston. There are 24 of these meters located at or near the boundary line between the City of Boston and the adjoining city or town through which the feeding lines pass to carry water from the reservoirs to Boston.

The assessment paid in 1954 was based on the consumption of water in 1953. The following table indicates the consumption in millions of gallons, the actual amount paid, and the proportion paid by Boston:

	Consumption	Assessment	Percentage Proportion
Boston	41,423.873	$3,313,909 84	.583498
Total	70,992.332	$5,679,386 56	1.000000

METROPOLITAN TRANSIT AUTHORITY REDUCTION OF PRINCIPAL OF BONDS.

The assessment for the reduction of the principal of bonds issued by the Metropolitan Transit Authority is levied in accordance with the provisions of section three of chapter 572 of the Acts of 1949, as amended. This statute concerns the payments made by the Metropolitan Transit Authority to the Boston Metropolitan District of financial obligations arising from the transfer by the City of Boston, on August 3, 1949, of its title and interest in subway and rapid transit facilities to the Metropolitan Transit Authority. The Authority is required by the law to pay annually to the district 1½ per cent of the aggregate amount by which the outstanding rapid transit indebtedness exceeded the resources of the sinking fund on the date the Authority took title to the rapid transit properties. The Authority shall also pay annually to the district 1½ per cent of the original issue and the sum payable annually for the redemption of refunding debt issued by the district for alterations and extension of rapid transit facilities.

The law directs further that the trustees of the Authority shall certify to the State Treasurer the amount payable by the Authority in reduction of the bond principal referred to above and the State Treasurer shall assess the amount on the cities and towns constituting the Authority. The proportion of this assessment paid by the cities and towns is established by the trustees of the Authority under section 14, chapter 159, Special Acts of 1918, and is based in proportion to the number of persons using the service of the company, this proportion to be determined from computations made by the trustees in their discretion for the purpose.

The basis of the apportionment of the 1954 assessment is the Boston Elevated Railway Company 1940 passenger count which was used in compliance with the provisions of chapter 195, Acts of 1954.

The following table indicates the proportion and actual amount paid by Boston in 1954 on account of 1954 Metropolitan Transit Authority principal debt payments:

	Percentage of Assessment	Principal Debt Payments
Boston	64.382S	$509,649 4S
Total	100.0000	$791,592 60

METROPOLITAN TRANSIT AUTHORITY OPERATING DEFICIT.

The assessment for the Metropolitan Transit Authority operating deficit is levied in accordance with the provisions of section 13, chapter 544, of the Acts of 1947, as amended. Whenever the income of the Authority is insufficient to meet the cost of service, the deficit is paid by the Commonwealth, to be in turn assessed on the cities and towns constituting the Authority in proportions determined by the trustees from computations made in their discretion. These proportions have been established on the basis of the proportions of the number of persons using the service.

The basis of this apportionment is also the Boston Elevated Railway Company 1940 passenger count which was used in 1954 in compliance with the provisions of chapter 195, Acts of 1954.

The following table indicates the proportion and actual payment by Boston in 1954 on account of the Metropolitan Transit Authority deficit as of December 31, 1953:

TRAFFIC LIGHTS AT WASHINGTON, WINSHIP, WIRT, HENSHAW, AND CAMBRIDGE STREETS, BRIGHTON.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, March 21, 1955.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen:

I transmit herewith communication from the Traffic Commissioner relative to your order of February 14, 1955, concerning the installing of traffic lights at the intersection of Washington, Winship, Wirth, Henshaw, and Cambridge streets in the Brighton section of the City of Boston.

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

Boston Traffic Commission,
March 18, 1955.

Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

With reference to the Council order of February 14, 1955, requesting consideration of the installation of traffic lights at the intersection of Washington, Winship, Wirt, Henshaw, and Cambridge streets in the Brighton section, I wish to report that we have given consideration and study to this area in the past few years.

In the opinion of our engineers it would not be feasible to signalize the existing area because of the multiplicity of heavy turning movements, lack of suitable location for signals within reasonable distances of stop lines, and the extremely large area involved with no opportunity for installing channelizing islands to regiment traffic.

We believe, however, that a major redesign and reconstruction of this area, involving the relocation of streetcar tracks, would permit the installation of channelizing islands, and there is an alternate possibility of rotorizing traffic around the police station in connection with a redesign of the intersection involved.

In any event, a substantial public works project would be necessary before signals could be installed for effective operation.

Respectfully yours,
WM. ARTHUR REILLY, Commissioner.

Placed on file.

PROCEDURES ADOPTED TO DETERMINE M.T.A. AND M.D.C. ASSESSMENTS—Continued.

	Percentage of Assessment	Metropolitan Transit Authority Deficit December 31, 1953
Boston	61.8528	$5,376,299 08
Total	100.0000	$8,692,576 08

BOSTON METROPOLITAN DISTRICT EXPENSES.

In accordance with section 12, chapter 303, of the Acts of 1954, as amended, an assessment is levied for the expenses of the Boston Metropolitan District. Under this statute, the territory and inhabitants of the cities and towns comprising the Authority are constituted as a municipal corporate entity for the purposes of the act. For practical purposes, the Boston Metropolitan District acts as the financing agency for the issuance of Metropolitan Transit Authority bonds.

The district certifies annually to the state treasurer the amount required for current expenses. The state treasurer in turn apportions this amount among the cities and towns included in the district on the basis of the proportion of the valuations of the property as last previously established by the Legislature as a basis for apportionment of State and county taxes.

The following table indicates the valuations as determined by chapter 559, Acts of 1915, the basis for the apportionment, the percentage of the total assessment paid by Boston and the actual payment in 1954 by Boston of the estimated expenses of the district for the fiscal year 1954-55:

	Valuation	Percentage of Assessment	Amount
Boston	$1,437,779,578	54.0157	$1,321 26
Total	$2,661,779,080	100.0000	$8,000 00

In 1954, assessments were levied on 21 cities and towns on account of the Metropolitan Water District; on 38 cities and towns on account of assessments for metropolitan parks and boulevards; on 35 cities and towns on account of metropolitan sewerage assessments; on 14 cities and towns on account of Metropolitan Transit Authority and Boston Metropolitan District assessments.

From the above brief summary of the general laws and special statutes pertaining to these assessments, it is quite clear that no official of any of the cities and towns on whom the assessments are levied has any discretion to exercise or determination to make regarding either the manner or amount of the assessment. In regard to metropolitan sewer and metropolitan park assessments, the amount to be paid on account of interest, sinking fund and debt requirements is determined by the State Treasurer; the amount to be paid on account of maintenance and operation is determined by the commission, and the proportion to be levied on each city and town is determined by the commission in accordance with the manner prescribed by the Legislature. In regard to metropolitan water assessments, the commission certifies to the State Treasurer the quantity of water used, and assessment is levied in accordance with the rate established by the Legislature. In regard to the Boston Metropolitan District assessments, the amount is determined by the trustees of the district and the manner of apportionment is as established by the Legislature. The amount of the Metropolitan Transit Authority deficit and the assessment on account of bond payments is determined by the trustees of the Authority, the manner of apportionment prescribed by the Legislature, and the actual proportion is as determined by the trustees from computations made in their discretion.

Furthermore, neither the City Auditor nor any other city official has any discretionary approval regarding the payment of these assessments. Section 20 of chapter 59 of the General Laws prescribes that the State Treasurer shall send warrants before November 1 to the assessors for the payment of charges and assessments under general or special law, including the metropolitan district assessments, which may be due or payable to the Commonwealth as specifically provided by law or as certified to him by the proper board, department or commission, and the assessors shall issue a warrant to the City Treasurer to pay to the State Treasurer before November 20 all assessments which have been levied.

The question of the fairness or justice of the manner of apportioning the various assessments has been the subject of considerable controversy for several years. This is perhaps truer regarding the Metropolitan Transit Authority assessments than it is regarding the metropolitan sewer, parks, and water assessments. There can be little dispute that the metropolitan water assessment is being levied fairly on the basis of the actual quantity used; and in view of the fact that the rate of eighty dollars per million gallons is insufficient to provide the necessary revenue to provide for maintenance, operation and debt requirements of the Metropolitan Water District, it cannot be maintained that the rate is excessive.

During recent years, several petitions have been presented to the Legislature regarding the manner of apportioning the Metropolitan Transit Authority deficit but no change has been made in the method which was originally established in 1918 when the legislation was adopted placing the Boston Elevated Railway Company under public control. These petitions have proposed that the apportionment be made on the basis of valuations or populations or a combination of both. The method which should have the strongest appeal as being the fairest under present conditions would be an apportionment based on population under the theory that the assessment should be made on the basis of "availability for use" rather than "actual use." If an apportionment based on actual use is to determine the proportion of the assessment, it most certainly is unrealistic to use a 1940 passenger traffic count as the basis for the computation. Under any circumstances, a passenger traffic count is not fair to Boston. Particularly would it be unfair at the present time, because of the development of parking facilities on the fringes of Boston, if any traffic count charged to Boston as passengers those who arrived within the city limits in private automobiles or by means of other transportation facilities. The Metropolitan Transit Authority deficit is a serious problem facing Boston. Its seriousness can best be realized by the statement of John T. Howard, associate professor, Department of City and Regional Planning of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, in an address delivered at the Fifth Seminar on the Problems of Boston at Boston College on March 8, 1955. In his address on "Boston's Transit Problems," Professor Howard said, in part: "The heart of the problem seems to be the deficit. The more recent studies concur that there is little hope of entirely eliminating a subsidy of some sort to supplement fare revenues. Obviously the deficit should be held to a minimum, by the sort of economies and efficiencies proposed by Ernst and Ernst—I am not qualified to either agree or disagree with their specific recommendations. I am not qualified, either, to propose a feasible alternative to the present quite obviously unfair method of distributing the subsidy-burden. That is a problem for financiers and politicians (or statesmen), not for city planners, as is the 1945 proposal to incorporate the independent railroad commuting facilities into the M.T.A." I think we can agree completely with Professor Howard's assertions. Mayor John B. Hynes, both as Mayor of Boston and as Chairman of the Metropolitan Transit Council, fully aware of the problem has repeatedly, with the cooperation of the Boston Finance Commission, the Chamber of Commerce, and other civic bodies, sought remedial legislation. The sooner the Legislature adopts such legislation, the sooner will be brought to an end an unfair, unjust, inequitable, outdated, archaic, and unrealistic method of levying a subsidy which apparently we will always have with us.

As has been previously stated, there has been considerable agitation concerning any change in the method of levying the metropolitan assessments for parks and sewers, which are based on a combination of populations and valuations. It might be well to direct attention to the fact that the valuations being used are those established by the Legislature in 1915. It would seem to be time for another evaluation to be made. Again, I refer to the Fifth Seminar on the Problems of Boston at Boston College on March 8, 1955, and the remarks of Mr. Charles W. Greenough, chairman, Metropolitan District Commission, in his address on "The Relationships of the Metropolitan District Commission to Boston and Other Municipalities in the Metropolitan Area." In his address, Mr. Greenough asked two very pertinent questions. The first such question was, "Should a community pay for its water supply or sewage disposal on (1) a volume basis, (2) a population basis, or 3) a property valuation basis?" The second question was, "To what extent should the cost of constructing, maintaining and policing city streets, metropolitan thoroughfares, and state highways in the Metropolitan Area be financed from the Highway Fund or Gas Tax?" In regard to the former question, Mr. Greenough comments, "In my opinion these statutes (concerning certain features of metropolitan water and sewer districts) should be examined with regard to two features. The first concerns the matter and manner of assessments and relates to the question of whether volume of service, population or valuation, or possibly some combination of these factors, represent the most equitable method of measuring payments for water and sewerage services. It would seem reasonable that the answer to this problem should be established as a matter of legislative policy in place of the present illogical situation." Mr. Greenough's reply to the latter question is too lengthy to be included here and I refer it to you for your consideration as an interesting commentary on metropolitan transportation. Mr. Greenough closed his address by presenting a proposal of the Boston Finance Commission made in November, 1954, that a Metropolitan Planning Council be established with responsibility for studying and reporting these problems.

From the above on the transit authority and metropolitan district assessments it is quite obvious that there is general agreement that the present manner and method of apportioning the assessments required study and considerable revision. It is quite obvious, also, that the solution to the problem lies in legislative rather than administrative action.

Very truly yours,

JOSEPH P. LALLY, City Auditor.

Referred to the Executive Committee.

EXPANDED STAFF FOR CITY PLANNING DEPARTMENT.

Coun. FOLEY offered the following:

Whereas, A positive policy of aggressive and imaginative use of the Metropolitan Transit Authority facilities in downtown Boston is needed to guide the planning of the future development of downtown Boston; and

Whereas, Such a plan must emphasize the positive value and possibilities of the MTA system to Boston; be it therefore

Resolved, That the Boston City Planning Department ought to be expanded to permit adequate staff work on this matter as well as other matters now in process before that department.

The resolution was adopted under suspension of the rules.

EARLIER STARTING OF EVACUATION DAY PARADE.

SURVEY OF TRAFFIC AND TRUCKING CONDITIONS ON CHESTER AND GARDNER STREETS, BRIGHTON.

Coun. AHEARN offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor is hereby requested to direct the Boston Trafic Commission to make a survey of the traffic and trucking conditions on Chester and Gardner streets, Brighton, with a view to eliminating certain traffic hazards and unnecessary noise due to the use of these streets by very large motor vehicles, apparently attempting to avoid traffic lights.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON PUBLIC HOUSING.

Coun. AHEARN, for the Committee on Public Housing, submitted the following:

Report on resolution and amendment (referred January 10) favoring legislation on extension of rent control—recommending that the resolution and amendment be adopted.

The report of the committee was accepted. The resolution as amended was adopted and is as follows:

Whereas, The situation with respect to the shortage of low-rent private housing still exists, although somewhat alleviated; and

Whereas, It is believed that the vast majority of the people of Boston want rent controls continued for at least one more year to allow for the needed new construction of additional homes; and

Whereas, The shortage of low-rent private housing is still so serious and critical as to require the continuance of rent control; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That His Excellency the Governor and the members of the Great and General Court are hereby respectfully requested to pass and approve the legislation necessary to provide for the continuance of rent controls in Boston; and be it further

Resolved, That his Honor the Mayor and the chairman and the director of Rent Control confer with His Excellency the Governor, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and the President of the Senate on the extension of rent controls with a view to continuing the present law or enacting a new law which is substantially the same as the present law.

COMMENDATIONS TO CITY TELEPHONE OPERATORS AND OTHER CITY EMPLOYEES.

Coun. HAILER offered the following:

Whereas, The devotion of about forty faithful, hard-working women, the telephone operators for the City of Boston, has been outstanding; and

Whereas, Their responsibility extends to about 2,000,000 residents and nonresidents of Boston; and

Whereas, These telephone operators form an almost forgotten division in the daily routine of city business, working behind the scenes, they do not complain, they are always courteous and always on the job which often defies human patience; and

Whereas, The four major groups are:

(a) The City Hospital, on duty 24 hours a day, averaging 12,000 calls;

(b) City Hall operators, handling approximately 8,000 calls a day;

(c) Police Headquarters, on duty 24 hours a day;

(d) Fire Headquarters;

as well as other major department operators, e.g., Public Works, Health Department, Law Department, etc.; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Boston City Council, in meeting assembled, hereby commends the efforts of these women for their efficient handling of the huge telephone communications network spreading to every section of the Hub.

Coun. PIEMONTE moved to amend the resolution by adding the following, "and the thousands of other city employees whose daily devotion to duty goes unnoticed each day."

The motion was carried.

The resolution as amended was adopted under suspension of the rules.

CORPORATION COUNSEL TO APPEAR BEFORE CITY COUNCIL MARCH 28.

Coun. HAILER offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor request the Corporation Counsel to appear at the executive session of the Boston City Council on Monday, March 28, relative to his powers to initiate action on behalf of the people in matters affecting public utilities.

Coun. PIEMONTE moved to amend the order by striking out in the first line the words "his Honor the Mayor request" and by striking out in the second line the word "to." The motion was carried.

The order as amended was passed under suspension of the rules.

PROGRESS OF STUDY ON PROPOSED RENT INCREASES IN CHAPTER 372 HOUSING.

Coun. McCORMACK offered the following:

Ordered, That the chairman of the Boston Housing Authority be requested to advise the Boston City Council of the progress of the study being made in connection with possible increases in rentals in multiple dwelling units constructed under chapter 372 of the Acts of 1946, and further that the said authority be requested to consult with the City Council Committee on Public Housing prior to putting any proposed increases in the rentals on these said units into effect.

Passed under suspension of the rules.

COMMENDATIONS TO BOYS' CLUBS OF BOSTON.

Coun. McCORMACK offered the following:

Whereas, The week of March 21, 1955, to March 27, 1955, is National Boys, Club Week, and the theme this year is "Operation Juvenile Delinquency"; therefore be it

Resolved, That the City Council of Boston, in meeting assembled, commends the Boys' Clubs of Boston for their splended contribution towards combating juvenile delinquency and the building of healthy, self-reliant, clear-thinking citizens of tomorrow; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be forwarded to the Boys' Clubs of Boston.

The resolution was adopted under suspension of the rules.

My dear Miss Reynolds:—

Under date of February 7, 1955, the School Committee, through you, submitted to the Board of Commissioners of School Buildings a draft of estimates of proposed expenditures for 1955 for land and buildings to be forwarded to the Mayor under the provisions of Chapter 513 of the Acts of 1945, and Chapter 224 of the Acts of 1936, as amended by Chapter 117 of the Acts of 1949, for the following items:—

At a meeting of the Board of Commissioners of School Buildings held this date and at which meeting Chairman Joseph F. O'Connell, Jr., and Commissioner Matthew T. Connolly were present and voting, it was voted, unanimously, to report favorably on the above described proposed draft, all as provided in Section 7, Chapter 351 of the Acts of 1929.

It is assumed that the item "For acquiring land for, and constructing, public schoolhouses, including originally equipping and furnishing such schoolhouses" is in connection with a proposed bond issue. If such is the case, when future orders are proposed in this connection, I suggest that the Board of Commissioners of School Buildings be given sufficient time to be legally notified of meeting to take action on proposed orders. This suggestion is made in order to satisfy the Attorneys handling the bond issue.

Very truly yours,
Board of Commissioners of School Buildings:—

It was agreed by the School Committee that the following letter, embodying the estimates of proposed expenditures for school purposes for the fiscal year 1955 be forwarded to His Honor, the Mayor, John B. Hynes:

February 7, 1955

Honorable John B. Hynes
Mayor of Boston
City Hall
Boston, Massachusetts
My dear Mayor Hynes:

In compliance with the provisions of Chapter 513 of the Acts of 1945 and Chapter 224 of the Acts of 1936, as amended by Chapter 117 of the Acts of 1949, and subject to favorable action of the General Court on the petition of the School Committee for increased appropriating power, the School Committee submits its estimates of the proposed expenditures for school purposes for the fiscal year 1955, as follows:

Construction and furnishing of new school buildings, both temporary and permanent, including the taking of land therefor, and for school yards and the preparing of school yards for use, and for use, and for rent of hired school accommodations. $742,481.53

The above sum of $742,481.53 may be obtained in part by the appropriation of an unexpended balance of approximately $798.53 from 1954.

Alteration and repair of school buildings and for furniture, fixtures, and means of escape in case of fire, and for fire protection of existing buildings, and for improving existing school yards $2,559,723.00

General School Purposes $26,113,229.76

The above sum of $26,113,229.76 may be obtained in part by the appropriation of unexpended balances totalling $167,289.56 and estimated income totalling approximately $1,200,000.00. In addition to the unexpended balances and the estimated income, the School Committee will receive credit for approximately $1,762,083.00 which is the estimated amount to be received by the City and credited to the School Committee in 1955 in order to reduce the amount to be raised by taxation for the support of schools, in accordance with provisions of General Laws, Chapter 70.

Total $29,415,434.29

Very truly yours,
AGNES E. REYNOLDS,
Secretary

Chairman: Would you call the roll, Miss Reynolds?

Mr. Lee: First a point of information on this matter—Alterations and Repairs.

As I understand from our last conference, that amount estimated for Alterations and Repairs is sufficient to cover the installation of floodlights in certain school yards.

Chairman: I presume so, Mr. Superintendent, except that the School Committee may have to make transfers later within its Alterations and Repairs Budget.

Isn't that true?

Superintendent: That is a fair statement. It is the total amount that we can appropriate under the statute; and once this amount is appropriated—or any portion of it—then the School Committee—

Chairman: Then it may be allocated?

Superintendent: Then the School Committee may allocate any way it sees fit. Answering the question—

Mr. Ward: Suppose you don't have any money to allocate?

Superintendent: Answering Mr. Lee's question, Mr. Ward, the money will be in the budget; and, if the School Committee wants to eliminate any one item for floodlights, then the School Committee will have that privilege.

Mr. Lee: Wasn't it left that you would have a committee of Assistant Superintendents or the Physical Education Department look over locations? Then it would come before us again and recommendations would go down from us to the School Buildings Department asking for that allocation.

Superintendent: Sometime between now and the time the final budget goes down to the Mayor—that was the final understanding, Mr. Lee.

Mr. Lee: Then, beyond that, Madam Chairman, I would like to offer an amendment to this letter. Perhaps I would do well to pass out copies of it.

Chairman: Is this the total amendment that you wish to give, or do you have amendments to any other portions?

Mr. Lee: I will have another amendment on Item 2, the Bond Issue. This is the only amendment on this matter:

Whereas the citizenry is alarmed by too common breaches of goodwill and of the peace on the part of schoolboys, which is a blemish on an otherwise fine school system; and

Whereas it takes patient work, case by case, to get to the heart of unfriendly attitudes in youth; and

Whereas an adjustment counselor for each 1000 pupils—that is for each of our 100 school administrative districts—would still mean a heavy case load for each such counselor; and

Whereas, for example, the department chiefestly concerned with individual adjustment has only three field workers for our 90,000 pupils today; and

Whereas money spent on preventive work with troubled youth is better than money spent on repair of vandalism or on punitive measures in court or on indemnities for wasted lives; therefore, be it

VOTED, That our Preliminary Estimates of dollars to be taken from citizens to pay for our schools this year be amended by adding the sum of $170,000—to be allocated to such adjustment counselors, or like personnel, as the present committee of assistant superintendents may recommend as needed to help stabilize disturbed lives among our pupils—to cover payments from early next September till next December 31st.

You see, Madam Chairman. I realize that it isn't a full year, and therefore a smaller sum is appearing here than the $500,000 which I mentioned at the last meeting.

Chairman: Is there a second to Mr. Lee's motion?

Mr. Ward: Madam Chairman, the only objections I have to this whole point are these. I think the $170,000 is too small. Now, we sat up there last week and talked about juvenile delinquency and about finding some ways of solving this great problem.

Let us not kid ourselves. This problem is not going to be solved by economy. It is going to be solved by an expenditure of money. It is going to be solved by following the recommendations that these three men are going to bring in to us, and these three men must bring in recommendations. They must bring them in and ask that certain things be done that are going to cost money.

If we are going to solve this problem, it is going to cost money. I have only one objection to Mr. Lee's resolution. I do not believe $170,000 will cover such an important item. Either we are going to appropriate money for this specific, pin-pointed purpose, or else forever we are going to stop talking about juvenile delinquency and how we are to combat it.

We are only going to combat it by the expenditure of money; and, Mr. Superintendent, you recollect that some years ago we had a program here which you were in charge of. Is that correct?

Superintendent: That is true.

Mr. Ward: And I believe one of the newspapers of Boston sent one of its best men to help this. We opened the schools. We had dances. We had parties. We had everything. All that was designed to take these children off the street; and, as I recollect, as a result of that expenditure of money—and it was a large expenditure if I remember compared to the budget of that day—we found that we reduced our delinquency in Boston below any other city in the United States with the exception of St. Louis.

I believe in one particular period, delinquency dropped either 4.8 or 4.9 because the program that we put in was successful. Now the program that we put in there at that particular time was followed by other large cities of the country. I think the present suggestion is a program that perhaps could well be followed by other large cities of the country, and the only objection I have is that $170,000 in a year's time is going to be insufficient to solve such an important problem which we all hold nearer and dearer to our hearts perhaps than anything else.

Madam Chairman, you have sponsored this. You have brought this out very forcefully. You have brought this out and said that it exists. We see it. Now, how are we going to solve it?

Madam Chairman, you are not going to solve it by pinching pennies. You are going to solve it by spending money, and this to my mind is important. If I could do this I would be very happy. If I am in order, I would like to amend the motion to increase this from $170,000 to $250,000.

I only object, Mr. Lee, to the amount of money. I think that the amount of money is, perhaps, in your mind, liberal, but in my mind it is not. $170,000 is a lot of money, but it is not sufficient money when we can bring about a reduction in juvenile delinquency in this city, and we hope that juvenile delinquency in every city in the country will drop.

However, our interest and our responsibility is only in Boston. If delinquency will drop as it did when the Superintendent had charge as Assistant Superintendent of that program, that would be fine. It dropped to such a point it was a pretty good program, but it cost money.

Now I don't know whether Mr. Lee has any objection to my amendment or not; but, if Mr. Lee has objections to it, I wish he would explain it or explain why he comes to the figure of $170,000 and not $250,000 or not $300,000, and why $170,000 is listed and not more.

Mr. Lee: Well, the reasoning was this—that we have something like fifty-eight or sixty elementary school districts, and the Superintendent pointed out a while ago that there is an average of a thousand students to each one. Then we have junior high schools and high schools—about one hundred administrative districts all together. And I thought we have a whole year. . . .

Mr. Ward: Pardon me, Mr. Lee. I have kind of doped this out a little bit. Your thought was $510,000. Is that correct?

Mr. Lee: $500,000 as a round figure.

Mr. Ward: I withdraw my amendment. If your thought was $510,000—

Superintendent: for a full year.

Mr. Ward: And you are not going to figure this for a full year; then I withdraw my amendment.

Chairman: Then we consider Mr. Ward's motion withdrawn.

Mr. Ward: That means that one-third of $510,000, as I figure it here, is $170,000. Am I right?

Mr. Lee: Yes.

Mr. Ward: In other words, your original thought was $510,000, which I think would be the proper sum.

But now it is only to be from September 1st to December 31st. That is all right. I withdraw my amendment. We have already done something about this. This School Committee has done something about this on a motion, if I recollect, by Mr. Carr. He said that for the Columbia Point Project we should put on a full-time attendance officer. And we did that. That was the first step.

Chairman: You have expressed your approval of Mr. Lee's amendment?

Mr. Ward: Yes, definitely.

Chairman: May I just ask the Superintendent a question? Mr. Superintendent, would you say as you look at the budget—and you have been over it pretty thoroughly — that possibly between today and April 1st we might make transfers of money, so that any recommendations requiring money for the prevention of juvenile delinquency could be met out of our regular budget between now and April 1st?

Superintendent: Well, Madam Chairman, as you know, my position is always a very difficult one, if I weigh the different points of view by different members of the School Committee and my own and various other problems that confront me in expressing my opinion.

However, regardless of any points of view by any of the members of the Committee, let me express my own point of view at this particular time. I think the meeting that the School Committee called, bringing together the various persons dealing with the problem of special services, was an excellent one and a fine start.

I have picked up that particular problem now and have asked the Assistant Superintendents of the three levels to take the matter up with their respective levels.

Now as of today when this preliminary estimate is being sent to the Mayor, the problem or the decisions that the committee of three Assistant Superintendents will reach are not formulated.

Now, I don't like to recommend, Madam Chairman and members, putting into a preliminary estimate anything that is, as this is, in my opinion at the present time—intangible and not resolved.

So that if you ask my recommendation whether we should or should not do it as of today, I would recommend against it.

Now for the second part of the problem, there are ways and means of saving boys and girls, and eliminating or overcoming juvenile delinquency, without spending additional money; and I think that that will be one of the outgrowths of the particular meeting that you caused to be called together, Madam Chairman.

I think that we will better integrate these special services. Any such coordination will not, in my opinion, increase our budget.

Now we still have a wonderful program on the part of all classroom teachers, in my opinion, which is attempting to solve this problem of juvenile delinquency. That group of fine classroom teachers and administrators will continue to do that work; and through this committee of three Assistant Superintendents we will try to better tie together these various groups without additional expense.

Now we do have in our present budget the recreational program in the evenings that Mr. Ward spoke of, and he was one of the pioneers at the time in connection with it. We do have in our schools a number of school center programs that do bring in these boys and girls and help tremendously. We do furnish without expense to various groups the CYO, the Y.M.C.A., and certain Jewish groups free use of our halls and gymnasiums for this particular type of work.

So that permeating our school budget, which is presently the figure that was compiled up to today for General School Purposes of $26,113,229.76, at every fork of the road are programs and plans and ideas, all of which are aimed at developing good citizens and, along with it, overcoming juvenile delinquency.

Now let me summarize my thoughts. Since the objectives of this committee of three Assistant Superintendents are not as of the moment crystallized or jelled, I would recommend against putting in any additional money into the budget.

I hope that their ideas will be better jelled before the final budget goes down the 1st of April. Then there will be an opporunity to add to this figure. And if the Mayor vetoes it, that will be unfortunate. But we are in his hands with regard to this amount of money. I think that there will be another opportunity between now and the 1st of April.

Now may I just mention this other point? In the event that we do not ask for this additional money and do not put it in the preliminary estimates today, there is another avenue that we can use here in our administration, and that is the avenue used last year in order to fulfill the single salary schedule and take the step that this Committee took September 1, 1954. You asked me then to make certain adjustments and certain economies, and I in turn asked my assistants to study that whole program. And, if you recall, when we were ready to make the salary schedule in August of 1954 I came right out and recommended that because of these economies the School Committee embark with confidence upon the next step of the single salary schedule, and grant the $120 and the $180, which amounted to $171,000, and that had not been in the original budget.

Was that a budget that was wadded? No. It was a budget that had been readjusted and changed by me with the help of those under me in order that we might bring about what we thought was for the greater good of the entire system.

So that if this money is not put into the budget today and if it is not put into the budget April 1st, this School Committee still has an opportunity to do for juvenile delinquency, if a program warrants it, what they did for the third step of the single salary schedule—namely, say to me: "Try to find that money and try to make adjustments after the budget is passed by the Mayor" and I certainly would exert every effort in April and May of 1955 for this purpose if it needed it, as I did for what appeared to be a need in the next step of the single salary schedule.

Therefore, my recommendation, Madam Chairman and members, is that the budget go down with the figure presently of $26,113,229.76 and that the Committee consider my thoughts between now and the 1st of April or even afterward as the case may be.

Chairman: Then I think I will recognize the author of the amendment first and then Mr. Ward. Is that agreeable to you?

Mr. Ward: Yes, go ahead.

Mr. Lee: As a School Committee that has dedicated itself to meeting this teen-age misbehavior problem, following the Chairlady's inaugural remarks but perhaps reaching somewhat into last year we have tried, I think, five methods of approach to this problem, and only one or possibly two of those involve any money.

We have already approved the idea of teaching our high school girls in a better way how to face the problem of bringing up children, so that they as mothers will guard against some of the unruly acts which we see in the present generation.

A committee, then, is working already on courses on how to bring up children, or child care or whatever you want to call it, which is the most intelligent long-range view, I think, to be found in the country for dealing with making our boys and girls better adjusted to life, at least in the next generation. That is costing us nothing. It will simply be part of our health courses or our civics courses.

Then in the second meeting of this year we brought up the fact that religion seems to have receded too far out of the American schools and a committee is now at work to see if we cannot revive spiritual awareness and spiritual health in our schools, which everyone knows bears on this problem. And then the Chairlady herself, beginning before I was on the Committee, has made efforts to revise the courses in civic education with a view to getting a better point of view and and a better social adjustment, and that is underway, Mr. Superintendent, I am sure—to revise those courses.

Now there are these three major approaches that we are making to this all-important problem, and we have been able to contemplate all of those three courses without any resort to outlays at all. But now we do come to a case, which we don't want to pinpoint but want to leave somewhat general, where we think we should put a backlog of money in where we may need more personnel; and I think that will be a record we can point with pride to; I think we have here a wonderful talking point to the Mayor.

We can say: "We are a committee that has made it its No. 1 project to deal with this question of youthful mischief: we have found three ways which we think will be very effective that cost us nothing; and we are, to be sure, putting in a backlog of $170,000 for possible needs we may have."

And my last point, Mr. Superintendent and Mr. Musco, is this. If it develops that we do not need this money, wonderful — wonderful. We still have said to the Mayor that we are working on this problem of juvenile delinquency, and it gives him a chance to reduce. It gives us all a feeling that things are not going to be as much of a burden on the taxpayer as we thought.

And lastly, Mr. Superintendent, I do point out that you yourself have often stressed that these are the preliminary estimates. They are not meant to be the final last detail on every penny to be expended. They are supposd to give the Mayor an idea of what he may expect or should be prepared to expect.

And so I feel sure that the conservative and sensible thing is to go this small distance financially in readiness to deal with the recommendations of this subcommittee which they will bring before us. I hope you appropriate it.

Chairman: Thank you very much, Mr. Lee. May I remind the members that we have to have these figures down to the Mayor's office by five o'clock.

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman, you have brought out the fact that these figures have to be down to the Mayor by five o'clock, and I am wondering why we have spent so much time on this resolve at this time. I don't think there is any great rush for us to act upon this. As pointed out by the Superintendent and as is known to each member of this Committee, as the year progresses it is possible for the Business Manager to project the expenses of the operation of the system toward the end of the year, and there is no question that he comes up every year with an unexpended balance.

That happened last year; and inasmuch as this is to cover payments from early next September until December 31st, I don't see why there is any rush for us to adopt this program.

We can easily wait until the administration brings in its report; and then, if the conditions are such and the program is such that it warrants an expenditure like this, I feel sure the entire Committee would be glad to go along with it.

Chairman: Mr. Carr, then you are suggesting that we hold this item?

Mr. Carr: I would like to move that it be held until some future date.

Mr. Ward: Madam Chairman, here is one of the things I would like to bring out. We have had a tentative copy of the Jacobs Survey. Now is that or is that not, in the minds of the Committee, going to cost anything that we might have on an expended balance? That is one of the other things you must take into consideration—that we will have to determine this year. There is one of the things that could undoubtedly eat up the unexpended balances.

Here is why we ought to put this $170,000 in the preliminary estimates. The Mayor will say to us, "Why is your budget up?"

We can say: "Here is one of the reasons it is up: to meet this juvenile delinquency problem," and you have the greatest argument in the world.

Chairman: Mr. Carr has moved that it might be held. Shall we have a vote on whether the item should be held for further consideration?

Chairman: The question before us, gentlemen, is whether we should hold Mr. Lee's amendment for further consideration in the future.

Madam Secretary, will you call the roll on that?

Mr. Carr: When you say "future," Madam Chairman, we all know that the final figure will go down April 1st.

Chairman: April 1st.

Mr. Ward: Madam Chairman, I would like to say that if you hold this amendment from now to April 1st you might as well kill it right now, tonight, because it is going to be dead on April 1st. You are not going to bring it in on April 1st, and you are not going to even consider it on April 1st. You might as well kill it right now and say No. I can see no reason why, these being the preliminary estimates, we couldn't put this in. If you leave this to April 1st you have a problem on your hands where you might as well kill it now—either say Yes or No now.

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman, I don't agree with the previous speaker. I feel that we can hold this: and we hope that our professional staff will come up with a recommendation for a program that might be a panacea for this juvenile delinquency, or part of it, anyway. We might find the Mayor perfectly willing, because of the merits of such a program to put it into effect. He might give us three times what we asked. We might be successful in having other agencies, other than the City agencies, such as these community agencies, enthese comunity agencies, endorse dorse our program. We will have that report prior to April 1st, and we might find ourselves in a better position then. I don't see any harm in holding this.

Mr. Ward: Madam Chairman, let me tell you this just from long experience—which I think I have. The Mayor will turn this program immediately over to the Park Department for that department to carry on; and the Park Department won't have made any appropriations for what the Mayor wants, because it is common sense to realize that the Park Department will not carry on any program that the School Department might suggest.

Chairman: Madam Secretary, would you call the roll on holding this question?

Secretary: This is on Mr. Carr's motion to hold Mr. Lee's motion over for future consideration—that is, between now and April 1.

On roll call, the motion passed by the following vote:

YEAS—Mr. Carr, Miss Fitzgerald, and Mr. Musco—3.

NAYS—Messrs. Lee and Ward—2.

On roll call the members agreed to submit the foregoing communication to his Honor, the Mayor, by the following vote:

YEAS—Mr. Carr, Miss Fitzgerald, Messrs. Lee, Musco, and Ward—5.

NAYS—0.

Statement of Chairman

Chairman: The Chair would like to make a statement if there is no objection from the members. It is a very brief one—not even one page, and it is with respect to the budget.

The School Committee feels that the budget figures sent to the Mayor today express the most accurate picture of the school needs of the City of Boston which this Committee could arrive at. Unless we invest an adequate amount of money in teachers' salaries, maintenance of our physical plant and building new schools, the children of Boston will not receive the kind of education to which they are entitled.

For years succeding school committees have scrimped and cut in order to lessen the impact on the taxpayer, but there is a time when economy is more expersive than properly meeting our obligations. A rundown school plant or an unhappy group of employees will result in depression, demoralization, stagnation, and unhappy school children.

In the coming weeks the School Committee will explain in detail to the Mayor, the City Council, and the citizens of Boston the reasons for mounting school costs. We are extremely grateful for past generosity and understanding on the part of the present City administration. We hope we receive this year continued understanding and consideration of school needs. We stand ready to cooperate with Mayor Hynes and all others who are responsible for setting the tax rate to the end that as much prudence as possible will be excercised in the spending of money on school administration.

However, we would be remiss in our duties as elected school committee members if we did not call public attention to the minimum amount needed for giving good, safe, modern buildings and happy, competent teachers to the public school children of the city.

Mr. Ward: Madam Chairman. I kind of object to that statement by virtue of the fact that I served for ten years on the School Committee and we never scrimped on the education of the children. There was a time—

Chairman: I will accept your amendment.

Mr. Ward: Wait a minute. There was a definite and positive amount of money allowed to every School Committee which it could expend. We lived within our appropriating power. That was the law. We obeyed the law. It was not scrimping to obey the law.

Chairman: I certainly didn't mean to reflect on any past School Committee. I had no intention of reflecting on any past School Committee.

Mr. Ward: You said other School Committees have scrimped.

Chairman: I meant no reflection on you or any past School Committee members.

Mr. Ward: Well, I am glad of that because it was not ever a question of scrimping. It was a question of our sitting down here day in and day out—

Chairman: I will be perfectly glad to have the Secretary eliminate that word.

Mr. Ward: We try to live within our appropriating power, which we always did. We cannot do it. We are not trying to do it today because we can't do it today.

Mr. Carr: I might point this out to the Committee, and Mr. Ward in particular, Madam Chairman—that there must have been scrimping done, but I doubt very much if it was done by the school committees.

Now I have a little piece here that is taken from the newspaper, and it points out that in 1953 the major cities of the country devoted the following percentages of their tax dollar to schools:

Philadelphia devoted 43 per cent of the tax dollar to schools; Cleveland devoted 39 per cent; Cincinnati 39 per cent; St. Louis, 38 per cent; Chicago, 36 per cent; and Boston, 17 per cent.

Now that 17 per cent is the percentage of the tax dollar devoted to Boston schools, and the national average is anywhere between 32 and 33 per cent, so it is obvious from the figures that there has been scrimping done some place.

Mr. Ward: Year after year School Committees have gone before the Legislature asking them to increase the appropriating power and the Legislators have said: "No, we will not do it."

Now we have asked them. Mr. Superintendent, am I correct in saying that bills have been filed asking them to raise the appropriating power? Each year that request is filed. I can go further and say that I think in California you will find a higher figure of the tax dollar that is appropriated for school purposes. The State appropriates money and the State, in the case of Boston or other cities and towns in Massachusetts, should appropriate thirty-five or forty per cent of the amount of the cost of running the public schools.

However, if the appropriating power of a school committee is $21,000,000 and they appropriate that $21,000,000, that is not scrimping. They are spending all the money they are allowed to spend under the law—not under our rules.

Chairman: I certainly intended no reflection on you, Mr. Ward, or any committee on which you served.

Mr. Ward: I don't think any school committee even before my time—even long before I was on the Committee—has ever scrimped. We have asked the full limit of our appropriating power.

Chairman: You have been forced to do so.

Mr. Ward: We were forced to do so.

BOND ISSUE FOR NEW SCHOOLS

The following letter to be sent to his Honor, the Mayor, John B. Hynes, with reference to a Bond Issue for additional school accommodations was presented:

February 7, 1955

Honorable John B. Hynes
Mayor of Boston
City Hall
Boston, Massachusetts

My dear Mayor Hynes:

In each of the years 1953 and 1954 the City Council approved a bond issue in the amount of $5,000,000.00 for the purpose of acquiring land for, and constructing public schoolhouses, including originally equipping and furnishing such schoolhouses. Of these bond issues totalling $10,000,000.00 there has been allocated a total of $8,601,590.00 for land, plans, construction and furnishing of necessary new school buildings and in certain cases additions to existing school buildings.

The balance of $1,398,410.00 will be allocated for the construction of an elementary school in the Dwight District, South End, just as soon as a suitable site is selected. The selection of this site is being postponed temporarily with the earnest hope that a suitable location will be eventually obtained at a very reasonable cost to the School Department.

The school system is in need of far more construction than it will be possible to achieve under these two bond issues. The following school accommodations are urgently needed but not necessarily in the order listed:

Agassiz District, Jamaica Plain —Addition to Joseph P. Manning School.

Lowell District, Jamaica Plain —Elementary school to replace Lowell School building.

William E. Russell District, Dorchester—Elementary school to replace Cora L. Etheridge building.

James A. Garfield District, Brighton — Elementary school, McKinney Playground area.

Agassiz District, Jamaica Plain —Elementary school to replace Agassiz and Old Agassiz buildings.

Roger Wolcott District, Dorchester — Elementary school, Franklin Field area.

Boston Technical High School, Back Bay Fens or Franklin Park area, Roxbury—High school to replace Boston Technical High School building, to accommodate 1500 pupils.

Sherwin District, Roxbury—Elementary school to replace Sherwin and Asa Gray buildings.

Harvard District, Charlestown —Elementary school to replace Prescott and James A. McDonald buildings.

William E. Russell District, Dorchester — Elementary school, Columbia Point area (second building).

In order to finance at least part of these urgent projects, the School Committee hereby respectfully requests that your Honor recommend to the City Council that it originate an additional five million dollar loan order for the purpose of acquiring land for, and constructing, public schoolhouses and additions, including originally equipping and furnishing such schoolhouses and additions.

The School Committee will seek to have each new school and addition approved by the Massachusetts School Buildings Assistance Commission under Mass. St. 1948, ch. 645, as amended, and thereby obtain a State grant of approximately 20% of the cost of each school and addition to help meet the payments on the loan.

Respectfully submitted
(Signed) Mary K. Fitzgerald
Chairman

Mr. Lee: Madam Chairman, I have an amendment on this letter which I would like to submit to the Committee now.

Chairman: Go right ahead, Mr. Lee.

Mr. Lee: I might say that there is no need of sharpening your pencils because the amendment is to the letter — to the note that we are going to send down— and has to do with what I hope is a helpful suggestion for raising revenues in the future. It does not alter or in any way affect the figures which Miss Reynolds has just read to us.

The amendment runs as follows:

Whereas a proposition for sound living, put before our youth, is not complete without opportunities for boyish and manly sport; and

Whereas the adult automobile has taken over the streets after school hours and in summer evenings as play-streets or pleasureways for their gasoline-sped quadrocycles; and

Whereas this has deprived every boy of the natural and time-honored playground-of-the-street, in front of his door; and

Whereas the adults seem likely to approve $300,000,000 this year, as recommended to their Legislature by their Governor, for still more highways for use of pleasure cars in Massachusetts, of which approximately $50,000,000 would be paid by Boston citizens through a tax on their gasoline; and

Whereas our parents hold their children as dear as their new roads; and

Whereas replies to the Chairlady's authorized questionnaires to Home and School Associations show that our parents almost unanimously demand more recreation for their children; and

Whereas regular participation for all high school boys in all seasons of the year on playfields around their high schools is the only solution for a City that now has only enough playfields for its high school "first teams", and where the rest of youth must not be allowed longer to sour in idleness on city sidewalks; and

Whereas the average of 700 boys, at each of the fourteen City high schools they attend, calls for seven acres of play space surrounding each such school; and

Whereas each acre will cost about $1,000,000 to procure and prepare; therefore, be it

VOTED, That the letter conveying to His Honor, the Mayor, the request for a bond issue for new schools for 1955 include a footnote expressing our readiness either to seek a Constitutional Amendment — with the Mayor's requested help — whereby our present Constitutional Amendment LXXVIII shall be liberalized to permit diversion of an appropriate fraction of the gasoline tax from the construction of pleasure ways for adults to the construction of playfields for youth, or advising, instead, an increased municipal personal property tax on pleasure cars, which needs no constitutional amendment, to be applied to constructing playfields around our high schools, such tax bill, in the latter case, to bear the following legend:

"Ye that have taken the streets from youth for cars for your pleasure,
Shall now return to youth
sports fields in like measure"

Mr Musco: Madam Chairman, I dislike having a difference of opinion from the honorable member from South Russell Street all the time, but I recall that this subject came up a few years ago under a former chairman, and I believe it was taken to the State House and at that time it was decided that it was unconstitutional and no taxes derived from the sale of gasoline or automobiles could be diverted to schools.

Mr. Ward: Nor to anything else, Madam Chairman — not by an act of the Legislature, but by an amendment by the people. They voted themselves on that particular matter.

Chairman: It was a referendum.

Mr. Ward: It was a referendum.

Mr. Musco: The other situation arises around a bond issue. Maybe Mr. Lee has a point here. Maybe he would rather see this resolution go down separately.

To attach it to a bond issue that we are striving for in order to create new schools is wrong in my opinion. I think he might be a little bit too premature, and let me tell you why.

This Committee belongs to the Massachusetts Association of School Committees, of which I am the representative for this Committee, and among all the school committees in this Commonwealth they have selected me — the Massachusetts Association of School Committees has selected me — to represent the Massachusetts Association at the Commission for Public Schools located at 41 Mt. Vernon Street.

Only last summer that particular Commission selected and asked to serve on a State-wide committee for school aid a group of citizens of all walks of life — professional people, trades, and everything else, and in that way they were to devise a plan whereby they could approach the Legislature and ask for double the amount of money in State aid to construct schools and to modernize our plant, from $21,000,000 to $42,000,000.

I believe it has progressed to a point where only today at three-thirty the Committee is meeting at 41 Mt. Vernon Street, and they will come up with a plan that has been sifted and screened and checked with the Senators and the Governor and the Representatives and everybody else connected with an interest in public school aid.

They have a paid staff from private funds who have made recommendations, and the recommendations will be forthcoming sometime today.

Among the various exertions have been four or five different means of raising funds so that the new building program can be completed, and I would like your indulgence to hold up on this until such time as we have a chance to get the full report from the Statewide committee for school aid. At that time I shall bring it back to you in writing.

Mr. Ward: Madam Chairman, this being State aid and since they have a $54,000,000 deficit in their own budget, I don't know whether they have sifted every way of finding money.

Now this resolution I have not read too thoroughly, and I don't think you are working for the horsebreeders of America or working against Henry Ford and General Motors or anything like that. But I think there was a legislative act and there was a referendum to the people in which they voted that no money could be diverted from the gasoline tax, but could only be used for road purposes and nothing else. It could not be used for any other purpose.

The referendum read: "Shall all monies be used for road purposes?" And the people voted Yes. I think if they had put: "Shall the money be diverted?" the people would have voted Yes. It is one of those things where all of this money is coming in from the gasoline tax for roads, and the money in that particular item is overwhelming. It is a terrific amount of money, and I don't know how much money they have in there. However I think ultimately they will be able to pave roads with solid gold with the money they get from the sales tax.

Therefore, I would like to see money diverted but I would like to see it diverted by means of the same popular vote whereby it is now tied up. I would like to have the people get that chance to say: "Here, we voted to put this money into roads, but now we move that we take it out."

I would like to put a referendum on there and say: "Shall this money be diverted to schools?" I think the people would say Yes.

Chairman: May I ask this of the members?

There appear to be two things before us. First of all is a letter requesting the Mayor for the bond issue. That also, with the rest of the budget figures, has to be down to the Mayor before five. Could we take action now on the letter on the bond issue and then perhaps the members would have some suggestions as to how Mr. Lee could present his item of the possible diversion of gasoline tax funds as an act or an amendment or a resolve to be presented to the Legislature itself for possible consideration as a referendum at the next State election.

On roll call, the Chairman was authorized by the following vote to transmit the foregoing communication to His Honor, the Mayor:

YEAS—Mr. Carr, Miss Fitzgerald, Messrs. Lee, Musco, and Ward—5.

NAYS—0.

Mr. Lee: It is all right with me to vote on the present letter to the Mayor first.

Mr. Lee: Madam Chairman, on my suggested footnote or communication, I would like to clarify a few things. I do have here — and I can give you all copies — the wording of Article 78, the amendment to our State Constitution — which, as Mr. Ward states, was initiated by the Legislature and then submitted by referendum to the people and then became a part of our amended Constitution. It does say that monies from the gasoline tax shall not be diverted to uses alien to automobiles and their roads and their safety and so forth; but it does make clear at the end that it has no reference to the personal property tax on motor vehicles.

So much for the present state of the law.

My second point was to try to be helpful to the Mayor. He, unluckily for him, has the burden of raising revenue. We don't have that burden. I thought it would be a gracious gesture to suggest to the Mayor a possible referendum which might change the Constitution to permit of a source of revenue for schools and recreation, or to suggest to the Mayor, as I have, alternatively that there be a higher personal property tax or excise tax on motor vehicles—which again, like the tax on real estate, can be used for schools or any municipal purpose.

I think it is a nice gesture to get that thought across to the Mayor and one that may bring a rich reward later.

I am cognizant of what Mr. Musco says about excellent work done by the committee he refers to on finding new revenues for the schools. Perhaps that committee, too, would like a copy of this resolution.

However, there is a certain strategy involved. As I said at the other meeting, we did not succeed in reducing tariffs in this country until we began to put the interests of the importer and the exporter side by side, and Cordell Hull arranged for so many imports to come in tariff-free providing so many exports from America could go out to the other countries free of tariff over there.

When those two were placed side by side, everybody could see that we gained and nobody lost, or at least there was no net loss by doing away with that high tariff barrier. So here again if we can put the thought of our children's play side by side with the thought of adult recreation in automobiles, we may have opened up a whole point of view where parents will say: "That's right. We do spend so much on our gasoline tax for these very happy roads we enjoy; and why should we not divert thirty per cent or fifty per cent or 20 per cent of that for playgrounds for our youngsters, since we have taken the roads away from them and they certainly need sports fields?"

It was a point of strategy in raising revenue which I thought might be worth while submitting to the Mayor. Now whatever the Committee wants to do is perfectly all right with me.

Mr. Ward: Madam Chairman, as far as I can see and as far as an automobile owner is concerned — and we get it down to an automobile owner — he has a $52.50 excise tax. I believe $52.50 is the excise tax. That automobile owner is taxed now. I don't object to Mr. Lee's motion to divert the money from the gasoline tax, but again it is the motorist who is paying that tax. It is again the motorist who has compulsory insurance. He has to insure himself.

Now if Mr. Lee were to say to me that an automobile was a luxury in years gone by, I would agree with him, but I cannot come to believe, Madam Chairman, that an automobile today is a luxury. An automobile today becomes a necessity.

Chairman: It is a business vehicle in many cases.

Mr. Ward: It is used in business and is used in everything that we have. You talk about automobiles. When there were 50,000 cars in use on the roads in Massachusetts, you had one thing. Now you have a million and a half cars on the road in Massachusetts.

No matter how good your roads are, I don't think you can use your roads to any great extent because you have bumper-to-bumper traffic, and it is a matter of necessity to get some place.

Of all the people whom we would try to tax, I don't think that the automobile owner should be that particular person who should be taxed because the responsibility and the amount of money that he puts out on what is a necessity is great. I maintain it is a necessity. If I thought for one minute it was a luxury, I would say I am in accord with you. However, it is not a luxury with a million and a half cars on the road. It ceases to be a luxury.

I would not be surprised, if we taxed them any more, if we should have to go back to riding horses and buggies or motorcycles or bicycles.

Mr. Carr: I agree with Mr. Ward. I would vote for this resolution with the exception of that part in it that suggests that they increase the municipal personal property tax on pleasure cars. I think it is discriminatory, and I think that the automobile owner is burdened enough already, as pointed out by Mr. Ward.

The excise tax and insurance, especially here in Boston, is high, but I would have no objections to voting for a diversion of the gasoline tax to be devoted to school purposes. However, in the present form where it suggests that we increase the personal property tax on pleasure cars, I would hesitate very much to vote for that. I think it would be judged discriminatory.

Chairman: Could Mr. Lee work with Mr. O'Connor to bring it back in some form that the members would find more acceptable?

Mr. Lee: I would be perfectly willing to do that. But, Madam Chairman, I would say one thing first. If the automobile or the pleasure car has now become a necessity, let us also lift the sports field for youth out of the class of luxuries and make that a necessity, too. If adults are so used to having their enjoyable moments in their family cars—

Mr. Ward: I maintain it is not a pleasure. If it was pleasure, it would be one thing. I would agree with you. It is not a pleasure.

Mr. Lee: Mr. Ward can describe it on any grounds he names. I think that Mr. Gillis, if he is here, and Mr. Ohrenberger will say that sports for youngsters are not pleasures or amusements in the sense that going to the movies is a pleasure or an amusement for an adult. Sports are things which the youngster works at harder, which he sacrifices more for, and which he takes more seriously, and which he regards more as work than he regards the declination of a Latin verb. They are a very important part of youth, and I am simply trying to lift the need of recreation for youth into the same class of necessity as the recreation hours or the traveling hours—I will put it that way — of the adults in their automobiles.

I am just trying to put them on a parallel.

Mr. Ward: Madam Chairman, I agree heartily with Mr. Lee on elevating this. I agree with him heartily on that. However, on the means of revenue I cannot agree with him.

Chairman: Mr. Lee has agreed to take his proposal and revise his remarks.

Mr. Ward: On the means of elevating sport, I just cannot find that the automobile should be that source of revenue. I think a payroll tax should do it.

JUVENILE DELINQUENCY

It was agreed that the following statement of Mr. Ward at the Conference of Jan. 31, 1955, pertaining to juvenile delinquency, be printed in the record of this public meeting:

Many learned and trained peoples and organizations have attempted to solve the problem that now becomes a scared phrase "Juvenile Delinquency."

Psychiatrists, Social Workers, theorists and talk have been used. All of these have failed, and I have just one suggestion—Draft God. Invite God back into our classrooms, where He was dominant for so many years, and ejected since the time of Horace Mann who proclaimed the principles of secularism in education. God was such an integral part of our school system as laid down by the founding fathers that the phrases in teaching of subjects nearly always used God as the base of their training

A great example of one half trained is Alger Hiss. He knew the subjects of the teachings in our schools. He knew nothing of the obligation he had to God and through God to his Country. Therefore, to him it was no crime according to his knowledge to betray his country, to sell her secrets, to invite rebellion; all of these to him were right because he had never been taught there was a God, who said these things are wrong.

If the Ten Commandments were part of a teacher's course before appointment, she in her experienced way could teach the meaning of God's Law as laid down by God to Moses. Then there would be no Juvenile Delinquents because the delinquent is in rebellion against the law of God, consequently defies the laws of man. Laws laid down by man cannot be perfect and history has shown us man's law is not always respected.

Today we have Freedom of Religion. Freedom of Religion does not and never did mean Freedom from Religion. People are allowed privileges within our schools to say there is no compulsion to believe in God. They are propounding and teaching atheism. College professors have said, "let us give a course in communsm, so we will know what it is about." Let us not; let us as Americans give the history and the story of what God expects of us.

To Know, to Believe and Love God would eliminate treason, hatred, rebellion and all the evils that confront a large nation. Let us not half-train our children. Train both halves, one with God's teaching, the other with the educational fundamentals necessary to succeed in life. A half-trained person is not a good Citizen.

It was agreed that the following excerpt from the Conference notes of Feb 7, 1955 be printed in the record of this public meeting:

Mr. Musco: Madam Chairman, since Friday last at 5 o'clock I have not changed my opinions and my comments I believe at that time they were rather explicit, and I would like to include those remarks in the record.

However, I cannot approve this extra expenditure of money. We are all interested in juvenile delinquency, and its prevention first of all. Certainly everybody in the country is interested but $170,000 is a lot of money.

I think we can find the services and the extra personnel within the system and do the job just as well and probably a little better.

First of all we don't have ten people on the list. We only have five people, I believe — four or five people — on the list, and it will be another year and a half before another list is ready.

Mr. Ward: What kind of list?

Mr. Musco: Teachers of juvenile adjustment. So if the Committee would follow along with their comments of last Friday I think we can more than likely get this amount of money or sufficiently close to it. I think the intent of Mr. Lee's resolution is fine, but I do not think it requires an additional cost of $170,000 I think we can do it without additional money. The reasons I gave last week I would like to continue with at this particular time, too.

The following is the excerpt from the Conference notes of Feb. 4, 1955, referred to by Mr. Musco in the foregoing statement:

Mr. Musco: First of all, Madam Chairman, I want to correct the impression that 2 per cent of the delinquents are in the school system. 2 per cent of these delinquents are throughout this entire area, a great many of them are out of school, a great many, too, are in other private or parochial schools, and a great many are not connected with the school system. Please keep in mind, too, that this delinquency problem has been with us a long time. The City is spending a million dollars, the State is spending a million dollars, the community services are spending a million dollars, and every other organization is spending a million dollars to prevent, to cure, to remedy, to combat juvenile delinquency. I see no reason why we should spend $500,000 for extra personnel and what-have-you where we already have the personnel.

Let's get a plan put them to work on 100 per cent efficiency, Mr. Lee, and we can do it without spending any money and we can do a good job We don't have to spend the money. All we have to do is use our experienced people and the great number of people we have around here. We have a tremendous force for doing this thing. All we need is a plan of getting it into action.

We have a splendid organization here and let's put it to work. $500,000 will throw this thing all out of kilter. I agree with you on your playgrounds I agree with you on your play, and I agree with everything else you have said but let's be reasonable We have so many people in the system — directors, supervisors, and teachers —who can do the job. Let's get a plan. Let's put it to work. It won't cost us a dime

The School Committee of the City of Boston
15 Beacon Street
Boston 8, Massachusetts

Dear Miss Reynolds:

Since receiving your letter of January 4, I have conferred with Commissioner Desmond with respect to the occupancy by the Girls' Latin School of classrooms in the State Teachers College at Boston.

I am in receipt of a communication from Commissioner Desmond, a copy of which is enclosed, in which are set forth very clearly his views as to why the State cannot further modify the agreement entered into in 1952. I concur with Mr. Desmond's views.

Most sincerely yours,

January 20, 1955

His Excellency Christian A. Herter
Governor of the Commonwealth
State House
Boston, Massachusetts

Dear Governor Herter:

The communication of January 4, 1955, addressed to you by the Secretary of the School Committee of the City of Boston concerning the occupancy by the Girls' Latin School of classrooms in the State Teachers College at Boston has been received.

The Board of Education under Chapted 618 of the Acts of 1952 were assigned the responsibility for the operation of an additional teachers college in Boston to replace the institution which had been conducted by the City of Boston for a period of one hundred years. The action was taken to furnish financial relief to the City of Boston by having the Commonwealth assume the cost of maintaining and operating an additional teachers college for the training of teachers. In order that the State might be protected from a large capital outlay expense which would result from an increased enrollment in the State Teachers College at Boston when it became a state institution, the Board of Education stipulated that in addition to the property then occupied by the Teachers College the whole property including that occupied by the Girls' Latin School be acquired by deed by the State. In accordance with the statute the transaction was completed and the deed duly recorded. A second transfer of land from the Park Department of the City of Boston was accomplished in accordance with section 4 of chapter 618 so that the State now holds the whole property bounded as described in section 4. In addition the Board of Education requested that the City of Boston also convey to the Commonwealth all of the personal property held or used for the purposes of the Teachers College of the City of Boston, without consideration, to the Commonwealth. This was accomplished in accordance with the provisions of section 5.

The Board of Education agreed that the Girls' Latin School might occupy the unused portion of the property for classes until June 30, 1953 and a "Use Permit" for Girls' Latin School in Boston was duly executed on the 25th day of August, 1952 between the Commonwealth acting through the Department of Education and the City of Boston acting through its School Committee. Under the terms of this agreement the City of Boston was charged as rental for the school year 1952-53 the sum of $22,935.18 which included nine items of maintenance totalling $22,402.48 plus five items of ordinary repairs made exclusively to the Girls' Latin School building totalling $532.70. In the year 1953-54 the rental charged to the Girls' Latin School totalled $32,868.04 which comprised $30,225.69 for maintenance and $2,641.35 for repairs made exclusively to the Girls' Latin School building.

At the time when the "Use Permit" was drafted the City of Boston understood that progressively the increased enrollment in the State Teachers College at Boston would necessitate the reduction in the number of rooms to be occupied by the Girls' Latin School, and it was further understood that some provision would be made for the housing of the school in other school property of the City of Boston.

The Board of Education at that time forecast future enrollments in the State Teachers College at Boston as follows indicating progressive reduction in the number of rooms available for the Girls' Latin School:

Year	Enrollment	Number of rooms used by the Girls' Latin School
1953	619	30
1954	750	23
1955	925	15

The Board of Education notified the School Committee of the City of Boston on December 15, 1953 that beginning in September, 1954 the increased enrollment in the State Teachers College at Boston would necessitate the use of seven additional rooms in the Girls' Latin School in the Collins building. These rooms are now in use for teachers college classes.

On November 30, 1954 the Board of Education notified the School Committee of the City of Boston that the anticipated increase in enrollment in the State Teachers College at Boston in September, 1955 would necessitate the use of eight additional rooms in the space then rented by the City of Boston for use by the Girls' Latin School. The Board of Education has confined its demand for additional rooms to the minimum which would allow the anticipated increase in the State Teachers College at Boston. The actual enrollments in the State Teachers College at Boston have been somewhat in excess of the conservative estimates of the Board of Education so that there is no possibility of using fewer rooms for teachers college purposes without placing limitations upon the development of the institution which the present condition of teacher shortage would not warrant.

It is obvious that this situation was well understood by the School Committee of Boston in 1952 when they had under consideration plans for the accommodation of the Girls' Latin School students. It would not be wise or feasible for the Commonwealth to limit its enrollment of prospective teachers because of the fact that provision has not been made for the classes in the Girls' Latin School which are occupying the rented quarters in the State Teachers College building. The result would be to further delay a decision which the City of Boston must definitely make since the School Committee did not contemplate occupying indefinitely any space in the property which had been acquired by the Commonwealth.

In view of the complete understanding and meeting of minds at the time when this legislation was passed in 1952, it would appear that the interest of the Commonwealth would not be served by refusing admittance to hundreds of prospective teachers in the greater Boston area who were anticipating confidently the opportunity for training in the State Teachers College at Boston.

I shall be very glad to furnish further records, statistics, and documents which will support the position which the Board of Education assumes in this matter.

Sincerely yours,
(Signed) John J. Desmond, Jr.
Commissioner of Education

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

A new means of refuse disposal for the East Boston district has been tried for the past year and proved so advantageous to the city that it is proposed to continue the same method under the Refuse Collection and Disposal Contract for the period April 1, 1955, to March 31, 1958.

For many years the dump for disposing of the refuse from East Boston was under control of the refuse collection contractor in that district. In order to encourage competition and thereby reduce the cost of this function, I investigated the possibility of finding a dump in or close to the district and over which the city would exercise control. No suitable tract of land was found within East Boston, but about one year ago I found a privately-owned dump on the marshes in the town of Saugus being used by other communities for refuse disposal.

The owner is engaged in reclamation of the marshes by rubbish fill; the property is licensed by the town of Saugus for rubbish fill and is ideally situated for this function, being located on a vast expanse of marsh easterly of the Salem Turnpike and very remote from any residence. It is only a relatively short distance from East Boston, and the trucking route is entirely upon state highways.

The total cost for collection and disposal of refuse in East Boston for the period April 1, 1953, to March 31, 1954, was $124,716. The cost of collection for the period April 1, 1954, to March 31, 1955, was $81,264, and the cost of disposal at the Saugus dump for the same period was $8,400, making a total cost for collection and disposal of the refuse from East Boston for the past year $89,664. Therefore, using the dump in Saugus for the disposal of the East Boston refuse resulted in a reduction in cost of $35,052 over the prior year.

However, if the Saugus dump had not been available, the contract would have had to be awarded to the only bidder having a suitable dump and at his bid price of $130,524 for the year, so the actual saving over the past year by using the Saugus dump was $40,860. It should be noted that this saving was obtained while requiring the contractor to furnish the modern, sanitary, enclosed steel body trucks not previously furnished in the East Boston district.

CONTRACT FOR DISPOSAL OF REFUSE AND GARBAGE IN EAST BOSTON.

The low bids obtained from publicly advertised proposals for collecting and removing garbage and refuse in East Boston, opened on March 9, 1955, based on the city furnishing the dump at Saugus, make it most advantageous for the city to again enter into an agreement whereby it can provide said dump and thereby award a collection contract to the lowest bidder.

Therefore, I respectfully request your approval to dispense with advertising and enter into an agreement with Dewey E. Daggett, for the use of land located easterly of the Salem Turnpike in the town of Saugus, owned by said Daggett and licensed by said town.

The agreement shall provide that all the refuse (including street sweepings) from the East Boston district may be deposited on said land for a one-year period from April 1, 1955, to March 31, 1956, and that Dewey E. Daggett shall operate the dump as specified in the agreement for the amount of nine hundred dollars ($900) per month, and the agreement shall include an option whereby, if the city so elects, it can extend the contract into a second year and also into a third year, upon the same terms and conditions.

Respectfully yours,

George G. Hyland,
Commissioner of Public Works.

CHARLESTOWN BRIDGE BADLY IN NEED OF REPAIR.

the most important drawbridge in Boston, as it carries not only heavy volumes of vehicular traffic but also many thousands of M.T.A. passengers entering and leaving the city daily. The M.T.A. elevated structure, which is located over the main highway bridge, is supported on granite piers that are also used for supporting the highway bridge. The M.T.A. is solely responsible for the control, maintenance, and care of the elevated structure that is used by the trains operating on the Forest Hills-Everett line, and the city is responsible for the highway bridge.

The bridge was constructed in 1899, and no major repairs have been made since that time. It is imperative, due to the importance of this structure, that it be kept in A-1 condition at all times, so as not to unduly inconvenience the thousands of motorists and M.T.A. passengers that use this facility daily. Recently, mechanical failure of the operating machinery caused several lengthy openings of the drawspan that seriously delayed the M.T.A. passengers and disrupted a substantial part of the entire M.T.A. system. The operating mechanism of the drawspan has been defective, and, unquestionably, a general overhauling of said mechanism, or its entire replacement, should be made before the end of the current year. In addition, the condition of the approaches to the drawspan, and the drawspan itself, has reached a point where it is absolutely essential to effect major improvements during the current year.

It is our intention to remove the existing granite block surface and wooden deck of the approach spans and replace them with a reinforced concrete deck and a bituminous concrete wearing surface. In addition, we intend to effect whatever repairs are necessary to the steel superstructure and repair or replace most of the steel members included in the existing floor system of both the approach spans and the drawspans. It is estimated that it will cost approximately $1,200,000 to do all the work necessary to reconstruct the Boston and Charlestown approach spans, including, as stated, the repair of the entire said superstructure of said spans and the repair of the floor system of the drawspans.

In addition, it is most essential that steps be taken during the current year to effect whatever repairs are necessary to the superstructure of the drawspans and to the operating mechanism that has caused so much trouble recently. It is difficult, at this time, to determine the exact cause of the failure of the operating mechanism of the drawspan to function properly. The draw is operated by a hydraulically-controlled end lift system that is obsolete, and we have not been successful in having the nature of the defect pin-pointed.

The trouble might be in the end lift system or it might be in the pin-connected steel trusses of the draw. In any event, we must have a thorough and detailed study made of the operating mechanism and the trusses before preparing the necessary plans and specifications for their repair. A study of this kind should be made only by an experienced and capable firm of consulting engineers, as it involves matters of a highly technical and specialized nature. I feel that the firm of Charles A. Maguire & Associates possesses the qualifications to conduct the type of study and investigation needed on the Charlestown drawspan. This firm is recognized as being one of the best in the structural field, as evidenced by the Mystic River Toll Bridge, the East Boston overhead highway, and the Boston Central Artery, all of which were designed by the Maguire Company alone or by a combination of consultants that included the latter-referenced company as a principal. I have, therefore, been negotiating with representatives of said firm concerning the preparation of plans and specifications affecting the work to be done on the approach spans and floor system of the drawspan, and I have also discussed with them the matter of conducting a complete study and investigation of the drawspan structure, including the fender system and the operating machinery for controlling the openings of the drawbridge.

The above-referenced firm has agreed to undertake the work involved in the preparation of plans and specifications for the effecting of repairs to the floor system of the drawspan and the reconstruction of the approach spans, for the checking of shop drawings, and for consultation and advice during the construction period, at a fee equal to 4½ per cent of the construction cost of the work designed, with the proviso that if all of the work designed is not constructed the engineers shall be paid only at a rate of 4 per cent for that part of the work designed but not constructed.

For conducting the study and investigation of the drawspan structure, including a study of the fender system and the operating mechanism, the engineers have agreed to make such a study and investigation and submit a report of their findings, with the understanding that they will be paid on a per diem basis at rates in accordance with the "Manual of Professional Practice for Civil Engineers," as prepared and approved by the American Society of Civil Engineers. Due to the nature and character of the study, it would be most impractical to have it made except on a cost-plus or per diem basis. Incidentally, the above-referenced fees of 4 per cent and 4½ per cent are also in accordance with the latter-referenced manual.

There obviously is no advantage to the City of Boston in publicly advertising for proposals for professional services of engineers to undertake the above-referenced study and the preparing of the necessary plans and specifications. It is my unqualified opinion that this is the type of contract that should not, in the best interests of the public, be awarded on the basis of publicly advertised proposals, and as a matter of fact, it is contrary to the code of ethics established by the American Society of Civil Engineers for any professional engineer to participate in competitive bidding to obtain professional work of the type under consideration in connection with the improvements to be effected at the Charlestown Bridge. The firm of Charles A. Maguire & Associates is eminently qualified to render the service required and the rates, as stated, are in conformity with those established by the American Society of Civil Engineers.

I respectfully request, therefore, your authority to dispense with advertising and to award a contract to Charles A. Maguire & Associates for the preparation of final designs, contract plans and specifications for the reconstruction and redecking of the approach spans and drawspans of the Charlestown Bridge and for the checking of shop drawings and consultation during the construction period on the basis of a fee equal to 4½ per cent of the construction cost of the work designed, provided that if any or all of the work designed is not constructed the engineers shall be paid a 4 per cent fee on that part of the work designed but not constructed. It is estimated that the cost of these services will not exceed $54,000.

I also respectfully request that the subject contract for the preparation of final designs, contract plans, and specifications for the above-referenced bridge also include the conducting of a study and investigation of the drawspan structure, including the fender system and the operating mechanism, and the furnishing of a complete report to the department containing the engineer's recommendations and the estimates of cost to accomplish the recommended improvements. This phase of the contract will be done on a cost-plus basis at agreed rates established in accordance with the "Manual of Professional Practice for Civil Engineers," as adopted by the American Society of Civil Engineers. I also, therefore, respectfully request your authority to dispense with advertising and to include in the subject contract provisions for the conducting of the above-described study on a cost-plus basis, with the understanding that the total contract sum will not exceed $10,000 for said study.

Respectfully yours,

George G. Hyland,
Commissioner of Public Works.

REPORT OF JOSEPH McKENNEY, DIRECTOR OF PHYSICAL EDUCATION.

the present time they differ only in the substitution rule.

The Massachusetts high schools will continue to play the so-called two-platoon football in 1955. It has been found that this type of football has increased the number of participants on the high school level. The colleges have amended their substitution rule for 1955 so that a player starting in any period may return once during that period.

One of the most interesting sessions of the Rules Meeting is the one on safety and equipment. The representatives of the leading manufacturers presented all the new features in equipment they intend to introduce this year. Last year we adopted a mouthpiece shown at this meeting. Not one player lost a tooth while wearing this equipment during the 1954 season.

The N.C.A.A. Football Rules Committee membership is as follows:

H. O. Crisler, University of Michigan, Chairman.

E. E. Weiman, University of Denver, Secretary.

Alonzo A. Stagg, Stockton, California.
Lloyd Jordan, Harvard University.
Dr. Ellwood Geiges, Pennsylvania.
Gen. Robert R. Neyland, University of Tennessee.
Carroll C. Widdoes, Ohio University.
M. M. Mullins, University of Kansas.
Raymond Eliot, University of Illinois.
L. R. Meyer, Texas Christian.
Jack C. Curtice, University of Utah.
Frank G. McCormick, Pacific Coast Conference.
Lou Little, Columbia University.
George Munger, University of Pennsylvania.

The four high school representatives were: Lee K. Anderson of Oklahoma; H. W. Emswiler of Ohio; Ray Mattingly of Texas; Joseph McKenney of Boston, Massachusetts.

The Intercollegiate Commissioners were represented by K. L. Wilso, Big 10 Conference; Bernie Moore, Southern Conference; and Emil Larson, Rocky Mountain Conference.

It was a privilege to serve as a high school representative. It is of utmost importance that our football rules give maximum protection to the student at the high school level. The close relationship and cooperation now existing between our intercollegiate and high school administrators is proof that they have one aim—rules and contests that are for the best interest of our American youth.

Yours very truly,

Joseph McKenney,
Director of Physical Education.

CHANGES IN SOCIAL SECURITY LAW.

Changes in the Social Security Act now make Old Age and Survivors Insurance benefits available to all municipal employees, except firemen and policemen. The procedure varies, however, for those who are eligible for membership in existing retirement systems and those who are not.

The most important point to remember is that the municipality must take the initiative to secure OASI coverage for its employees and must act through the state government. Proper enabling legislation and contractual clauses in state documents are "musts." They secure coverage as part of the state's contract with the Bureau of Old Age and Survivors Insurance, U. S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES DEPARTMENT.
Purchasing Division.

BOSTON, March 18, 1955.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

This office is in receipt of requisitions from the Boston City Hospital for the immediate delivery of Randall Marcus spinal needles and Randall puncture trays. Prices for this equipment have been received directly from the manufacturer, Randall Faichney Corporation.

Inasmuch as Randall Faichney Corporation is the manufacturer and can make prompt delivery, authority is requested to dispense with publicly advertising for prices and award a contract, without public advertisement, to this company. It is my opinion that, in this way, the best interests of the city will be served.

Approximate total amount of contract will be $2,804.75, less 1 per cent discount for payment within ten days.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN V. MORAN,
Purchasing Agent.

BOSTON, March 24, 1955.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The Traffic Commission has submitted an estimate of their requirements for parking meter repair parts and also miscellaneous materials required for the operation of the parking meters which do not fall into the category of repair parts. These estimates are for the period of one year from April 1, 1955.

Authority is requested to dispense with publicly advertising for prices and award contracts, without public advertisement, to the following companies at the amounts as stated:

Mi-Co Meters Eastern Sales Company, 211 State street, Bridgeport, Connecticut, prices are f.o.b. Covington, Kentucky, total amount of contract not to exceed $4,600, net.

M. H. Rhodes, Inc., 30 Bartholomew avenue, Hartford, Connecticut, total amount of contract not to exceed $3,500, net .

Apahouser Corporation of New England, 104 Brookline avenue, Boston, Mass., total amount of contract not to exceed $3,000, net.

Period of all contracts will be from April 1, 1955, to March 31, 1956, inclusive.

Mi-Co Meters Eastern Sales Company is the sole exclusive distributor in New England for the Michaels Art Bronze Company, Inc., who is the manufacturer of some of the materials requested. M. H. Rhodes, Inc., is also a manufacturer. Apahouser Corporation of New England has submitted much lower prices for some materials as compared to those of the manufacturer. In view of these facts, it is my opinion that the best interests of the city will be served by awarding the contracts as requested.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN V. MORAN,
Purchasing Agent.

BUILDING DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, March 24, 1955.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On March 22, 1955, the attention of the department was called to a serious condition on the premises at 38 Newcomb street, Ward 8. The rear wall of the building is seriously defective and in imminent danger of falling. The entire building which has been vacated will have to be razed.

I have secured your Honor's permission to enter the premises and remove the building. Invitation bids were solicited from eight wrecking contractors who customarily do such work for this department. Three of the wreckers have submitted bids as follows:

City Building Wrecking Company, $1,200; New York Building Wrecking Company, $1,250; American Building Wrecking Company, $1,850.

Accordingly, since the public safety requires immediate action, I ask your Honor's permission to award the contract to the City Building Wrecking Company, the lowest bidder, at $1,200. The condition is so serious that the work must begin at once.

Very truly yours,

CHARLES A. CALLANAN,
Building Commissioner.

CITY PLANNING BOARD.

BOSTON, March 16, 1955.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On Tuesday, March 15, 1955, at a meeting of the City Planning Board the following vote was taken:

"That Leo Schwartz, an attorney, One State street, Boston, be engaged by contract covering the period of nine months from April 1, 1955, to December 31, 1955, at a total cost of one thousand dollars ($1,000) to provide and perform research on legal aspects of the Board's Rezoning Study now being conducted, and that the Chairman be authorized to sign the contract."

Therefore, if this meets with your approval it is respectfully requested that your authorization be given for the awarding of the proposed contract, without public advertising, to Leo Schwartz, attorney, to cover the period from April 1, 1955, to December 31, 1955, for furnishing the above-mentioned services at a cost not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000).

It is felt that in view of the nature of the professional services involved nothing would be gained by publicly advertising for bids for this work.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On Tuesday, March 15, 1955, at a meeting of the City Planning Board the following vote was taken:

"That Adams, Howard & Greeley, City Planning consultants, 15 Ash street, Cambridge, be engaged by contract covering a period of nine months from April 1, 1955, to December 31, 1955, at a total cost of three thousand six hundred dollars ($3,600) to furnish its services, guidance and assistance as consultant to the Board in the Rezoning Study now being conducted, and, further, that the Chairman be authorized to sign the contract."

Therefore, if this meets with your approval it is respectfully requested that your authorization be given for the awarding of the proposed contract, without public advertising, to Adams, Howard & Greeley, City Planning consultants, to cover the period from April 1, 1955, to December 31, 1955, for furnishing the above-mentioned services at a cost not to exceed three thousand six hundred dollars ($3,600).

It is felt in view of the nature of the professional services involved, as well as the fact that this firm has so satisfactorily and efficiently performed a similar service for the Board during the past year, that nothing would be gained by publicly advertising for bids for this work.

Very truly yours,

THOMAS F. MCDONOUGH,
Chairman.

HOSPITAL DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, March 11, 1955.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

I respectfully request your authorization to dispense with public advertising and to award a contract to the Eastern Massachusetts Street Railway Company, a Massachusetts corporation, with offices at 165 Devonshire street, Boston, Mass., providing for the furnishing of daily bus service from the rapid transit station at Fields Corner to Long Island Hospital, Boston, Mass., commencing with April 1, 1955, and ending December 31, 1955, at a cost not in excess of $35,000. The proposed contract will contain the same reasonable rates as appear in the contract having a termination date of March 31, 1955.

The aforenamed firm has operated this bus service since its beginning in the summer of 1951 and has performed the work efficiently and satisfactorily.

On the basis of the foregoing and as this company holds the franchise over the route and since it proposes to continue its services under the existing terms and conditions, it is my opinion that public advertising for performance of the subject bus service would be of no avail.

Respectfully yours,

BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE HOSPITAL DEPARTMENT,
by RICHARD J. CONDON,
President.

BOSTON, March 16, 1955.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On February 11, 1955, your Honor approved a contract with M. Solimando, 584 Columbia road, Dorchester, Mass., in the sum of $18,380, providing for alterations and renovations to Ward I, Pavilion 3, Boston City Hospital, this contractor having been the lowest eligible and responsible bidder therefor following the receipt of publicly advertised proposals.

The work has been in progress since February 15, 1955, and it has now been determined that certain additional plumbing, electric, and other work, the same being incidental to the principal project is necessary to be done.

The contractor proposes to perform the aforementioned additional work at a cost of $4,052, which figure is deemed to be a fair and reasonable price for the extra work.

In view of the foregoing, and in the interests of getting the entire project completed as expeditiously as possible, it is felt that nothing would be gained by publicly inviting bids for the extra work, therefore, your authorization is respectfully requested to dispense with publicly advertising for the subject additional work, and to amend the subject contract to include the additional work, and to increase the contract sum in the amount of $4,052, making the total contract sum $22,432.

Respectfully yours,

BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE HOSPITAL DEPARTMENT,
by RICHARD J. CONDON,
President.

Amendment.

Whereas, A publicly advertised contract in the sum of $18,380, providing for alterations and renovations to Ward I, Pavilion 3, Boston City Hospital, was executed on February 11, 1955, between the City of Boston, acting by its trustees of the Hospital Department and of the Boston City Hospital, and M. Solimando, 584 Columbia road, Dorchester 25, Mass., and

Whereas, Additional work over and above the work specified to be done by the terms of the said contract and the specifications annexed thereto, the same being incidental to the work covered by the contract and specifications has become necessary; and

Whereas, The contractor is ready and willing to perform the aforementioned additional work consisting of plumbing work, electric work, and certain other work, at a total cost of $4,052; and

Whereas, The reasons in detail for the additional work and cost have been set forth in a letter to the Mayor dated March 16, 1955, and approved by the Mayor on March 18, 1955, and subsequently published in the City Record, which letter, approval and publication are included herein and made a part hereof to the same extent as set forth in its entirety; now, therefore,

It is mutually agreed by the parties hereto, that the contract specifications be amended to include the above outlined additional work and further that the contract sum be increased by an amount not in excess of $4,052 to cover the added cost thereof making the new contract total amount $22,432.

Excepting as modified hereby, all provisions of the said contract shall remain in full force and effect.

Signed and sealed this 22d day of March, 1955.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE HOSPITAL DEPARTMENT,

President.

BOSTON, March 25, 1955.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

We respectfully request your permission to dispense with publicly advertising for bids, and to award a contract to Portland Elevator Company, Inc., 133 Oliver street, Boston, Mass., for maintenance of two (2) electric passenger elevators, Vose House, Boston City Hospital, for the period from April 1, 1955, to March 31, 1956, inclusive, at a monthly cost of $180.07, the total cost for the contract period not to exceed the sum of $2,160.84.

This firm has performed this very technical service in a satisfactory and most efficient manner for the past four years.

The rates this year represent an increase of $5.14 per month over the rates as stated in the contract which is to expire on March 31, 1955, however, the increase is one that has been determined in accordance with the terms of certain option provisions contained in the contract under which the city could have required the contractor to perform these services at the new rate for the period of the proposed contract, namely, April 1, 1955, to March 31, 1956.

Furthermore, it is the opinion of the Board of Trustees that the interests of the city will best be served by awarding the new contract, without advertising, to Portland Elevator Company, Inc., and the Board is further of the view that nothing would be gained by publicly advertising for proposals for this work.

Respectfully yours,

BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE HOSPITAL DEPARTMENT,
by RICHARD J. CONDON,
President.

B. See elevators at the Boston City Hospital, for the period from April 1, 1955, to March 31, 1956, inclusive, at a monthly cost of $266.01, the total cost for the contract period not to exceed $3,192.12.

This firm has performed this very technical service in a satisfactory and most efficient manner for the past four years.

The rates this year represent an increase of $7.43 per month over the rates as stated in the contract which is to expire on March 31, 1955, however, the increase is one that has been determined in accordance with the terms of certain option provisions contained in the contract under which the city could have required the contractor to perform these services at the new rate for the period of the proposed contract, namely, April 1, 1955, to March 31, 1956.

Furthermore, it is the opinion of the Board of Trustees that the interests of the city will best be served by awarding the new contract, without advertising, to Westinghouse Electric Corporation, and the Board is further of the view that nothing would be gained by publicly advertising for proposals for this work.

BOSTON, April 1, 1955.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

A serious power failure occurred at Boston City Hospital on March 16, 1955. Intensive study has been made of all the factors which contributed. It was evident that temporary water lines would need to be installed in order to make extensive repairs. It is now evident that valves, pipes and fittings in a critical area are now leaking so badly that new materials must be immediately installed. The temporary water line installation now becomes an emergency procedure. If the present defective and leaking fittings burst, the hospital will be without steam for power and heat.

The trustees have therefore voted to request your Honor, in view of this emergency, to dispense with the delay incurred by public advertising and to award a contract, without advertising, for this immediate emergency work to P. J. Riley & Co., 295 Highland street, Roxbury. An upset price of $6,000 has been submitted by this firm on request.

The work consists in removing headers from pumps, the installation of necessary tees and piping from the same to run across the power house to feed temporary make-up water to the Nos. 1, 2, 3, and 5 boilers. A fire connection for emergency purposes will be installed leading outside. Necessary piping and valves will be installed from the filter so compound may be put into the heating system.

The 3-inch elbows on supply lines to boilers are to be removed and 3-inch tees installed. Valves, 3-inch outside screw and yoke type, are to be installed on the No. 2 pump, the compound filter pump (2), on the main line from the pump, and each at the Nos. 1, 2, 3, and 5 boilers.

Work is to include removing valves and blanking off the main water feed to make the installation. Work includes installation of necessary hangars, welding, 3-inch OS and four 250-pound pressure valves, fire connection and necessary pipe covering.

It is impossible to proceed with the project of the removal of a conversion heater at the cat walk above the boilers until this emergency work is completed. The work should be started without delay.

Respectfully yours,

RICHARD J. CONDON,
President, Board of Trustees.

Sanatorium Division.

BOSTON, March 25, 1955.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

YOUR HONOR:

We respectfully request your permission to dispense with publicly advertising for bids and to award a contract to Otis Elevator Company, 130 Clarendon street, Boston, Mass., for maintenance of two Otis push-button electric passenger elevators, one Otis car switch electric passenger elevator and one Otis push-button electric dumb-waiter, located at the Sanatorium Division of the Boston City Hospital, for the period commencing April 1, 1955, to March 31, 1956, inclusive, at a monthly cost of $208.73, the total cost for the contract period not to exceed the sum of $2,504.76.

This company is in the unique position of having both manufactured and installed the elevators and dumb-waiter and has access to all the necessary parts, materials, and employs the skilled personnel essential to properly carry out its services as provided for in the proposed contract.

It is the opinion of the Board of Trustees that the interests of the city will best be served by awarding the contract, without advertising, to Otis Elevator Company, and the Board is further of the view that, in the light of all the circumstances, nothing would be gained by publicly advertising for bids for this work.

Respectfully submitted,

RICHARD J. CONDON,
President, Board of Trustees.

This company is in the unique position of having both manufactured and installed the elevator and dumb-waiters and has access to all the necessary parts, material, and employs the skilled personnel essential to properly carry out its services as provided for in the proposed contract.

LIBRARY DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, March 24, 1955.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The trustees respectfully request that your Honor approve the award of a contract, to the Dickson Truck Service Company, Inc., 26 Reading street, Roxbury, Mass., to provide bookmobile service for the library. The bookmobile service, involving the use of two completely equipped vehicles, brings library facilities to certain sections of the city for which adequate library service is not now available.

For the past five years the Dickson Truck Service Company, Inc., until March 18, 1953, known as the H. B. Church Truck Service Company, Inc., has provided the bookmobile service on a contractual basis. The two bookmobiles which serve the library were built by this company to the library's detailed specifications. They have been kept in excellent condition and the service rendered has been always prompt and efficient. The drivers of the vehicles have become thoroughly familiar with the library's requirements. The cost of the service to be rendered for the period from April 1, 1955, through March 31, 1956, will be approximately $28,000.

This year the library sought, by publicly advertising, to obtain competitive bids for the provision of bookmobile service. The specifications called for the furnishing of completely new vehicles. The bids were scheduled to be opened January 18, 1955. Inasmuch as no bids were received the trustees decided to continue the bookmobile service on the present basis of operation. The trustees on March 18, 1955, therefore "Voted, That there be awarded, without public advertising, to the Dickson Truck Service Company, Inc., 26 Reading street, Roxbury, Mass., the contract for providing bookmobile service, using two bookmobiles built to the specifications provided by the library for the period April 1, 1955, through March 31, 1956, at the rate per bookmobile, of two hundred and fifty-three dollars ($253) per week (Monday, through Friday), plus three dollars and sixteen cents ($3.16) for each hour beyond forty (40) hours in any one week (Monday, through Friday), and for all hours worked on Saturday at the rate of one dollar and twenty cents ($1.20) per hour for the first four (4) hours and three dollars and sixteen cents ($3.16) per hour for all hours worked thereafter."

Inasmuch as the total cost of the bookmobile service will exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000), there is requested permission of your Honor to enter into this contract, without publicly advertising for bids.

Respectfully,

THE TRUSTEES OF THE PUBLIC LIBRARY OF THE CITY OF BOSTON,
BY JOHN CONNOLLY,
Assistant to the Director, and Chief Executive Officer.

PARKS AND RECREATION DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, March 21, 1955.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR:

On February 19, 1955, this department publicly invited bids in the City Record for drainage and grading at the Franklin Park golf course, West Roxbury, Mass. Bids, opened March 1, were as follows:

D. F. Frangioso & Co., $18,596.50; Sylvester A. Ray, $19,440; Martin J. Kelly Company, Inc., $19,882.50; Defina & Sons, $20,228.66; James A. Freaney, Inc., $21,857.50; Louis Recine Construction, Inc., $22,390; William P. Capone Corporation, $22,835; John J. Amara & Sons, $23,000; Joseph P. McCabe, Inc., $23,452.50; John McCourt Company, $23,610; Carriere Construction Company, $24,595; S. J. Tomasello Corporation, $24,910; Z & S Construction Company, Inc., $25,025; Doerico Construction Company, Inc., $25,696; Roslindale Contracting Company, $26,060; J. Gavigan & Co., $27,395; James A. Munroe & Son, $28,515; J. A. Susi & Sons, Inc., $28,867; J. D'Amico, Inc., $51,697.50.

Due to an inadvertence in the preparation of the proposals, six of the aforenamed bidders were given proposal forms wherein item No. 6 showed the quantity as "20 linear feet of 12-inch drain pipe." The remaining bidders were handed proposal forms with the quantity for the said item No. 6 correctly set forth as "200 linear feet of 12-inch drain pipe."

The lowest total figure for the entire project, including a unit price on item No. 6 based on the lower quantity, was submitted by D. F. Frangioso & Co. In fact, this firm's total price for the subject work, computed at its unit prices, is the lowest of all who participated in the bidding, whether item No. 6 be taken at a quantity of 20 or 200 linear feet.

On account of the foregoing, therefore, and in order that the city might take advantage of the available favorable figure for the work, your authorization is respectfully requested to reject all the bids submitted on March 1, 1955, to dispense with public advertising, and to award the contract for drainage and grading at the Franklin Park golf course, West Roxbury, Mass., to D. F. Frangioso & Co., 155 Savannah avenue, Mattapan, Mass., at the unit prices submitted on the above date, which D. F. Frangioso & Co. now offers anew, the contract sum being $18,596.50, plus $4,649.13, which amount represents 25 per cent of $18,596.50, this 25 per cent additional expenditure being customarily permissible under our standard contract provisions.

The total contract cost shall not exceed $23,245.63, same to be charged to Parks and Recreation Department budget, "Park and Playground Improvements, etc., 1-11-41-812."

Respectfully yours,

FRANK R. KELLEY,
Commissioner of Parks and Recreation.

BOSTON, March 31, 1955.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR:

It is vitally necessary that we start immediately on our program of spraying all trees throughout the park system and on city streets. This first spraying must actually be done before the trees come into bud or flower. In order to expedite the work, rather than advertising, we asked bids from four concerns equipped with the necessary equipment and personnel for doing this work. Bids were received as follows:

Eastern Tree and Landscape Corporation, $11.75 per hour.

Superior Tree Service, Inc., $11.75 per hour.

Blueview Nursery, $13 per hour.

Fred Ralston & Co., Inc., $14 per hour.

The lowest bid received was submitted by two concerns, namely the Eastern Tree and Landscape Corporation and Superior Tree Service, Inc. Under the terms of the proposal the successful bidder is required to furnish a truck and hydraulic sprayer with three men to operate the truck and sprayer, and all necessary equipment for spraying, including oil and gasoline for the truck.

The spray material to be used is to be furnished by the Park Department. Both low bidders submitted a unit price of $11.75 per hour. This is the same low price that has been bid in the last few years. In view of the present labor market we feel it is an extremely fair one.

In order to have the spraying completed before the spring season is too far advanced, I feel it is necessary to divide the work between the two low bidders, at the same unit price quoted by both.

Accordingly, I respectfully request that we be permitted to dispense with public advertising for bids and to award a contract to Superior Tree Service, Inc., 15 Littlejohn street, Arlington, for spraying trees throughout the park system and on city streets, at the unit price of $11.75 per hour, the total amount of this contract not to exceed $6,500, to be charged to the regular budget, Item 299, Parks and Recreation Department.

Respectfully yours,

FRANK R. KELLEY,
Commissioner.

BOSTON, March 31, 1955.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR:

During recent years we have been spraying the larger tree areas of the park system by airplane. These areas are located in sections of the park system where the cost would be prohibitive if the spraying was done by ordinary methods, because of the time and effort that would be required to effect an entrance into the heavily-wooded areas with trucks and standard spraying equipment.

The sections that we plan to spray by airplane are Franklin Park, George Wright Golf Course, and the larger cemetery areas under control of the city. It is necessary that we start this work immediately, because with the coming of the warmer spring weather the trees will soon be in bud. In order to save time, we asked bids from four concerns equipped to do this type of work. The bids received are as follows:

Eastern Tree and Landscape Corporation, $1.85 per acre.

Blueview Nursery, $2.25 per acre.

Fred Ralston & Co., Inc., $2.50 per acre.

Superior Tree Service, Inc., no bid.

The areas to be sprayed contain approximately 885 acres. The spray material, 6 per cent D.D.T. solution in oil, will be furnished by the contractor. The total cost of spraying these areas is not to exceed $1,650.

Therefore, I respectfully request your approval to dispense with publicly advertising for bids and to award the contract to the lowest invitation bidder, Eastern Tree and Landscape Corporation, 280 Bridge street, Dedham, Mass., for a sum not to exceed $1,650, to be charged to Item 299 in the regular Parks and Recreation Department budget.

Respectfully yours,

FRANK R. KELLEY,
Commissioner.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, March 31, 1955.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Under date of October 27, 1954, a contract in the amount of $14,317.08 was awarded to the S. J. Tomasello Corporation for covering abandoned streetcar rails with bituminous concrete in various main highways located in Wards 1, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, and 9.

Up to the present time, the value of the work done by the contractor on this contract is in the approximate amount of $6,900. I was hopeful that the entire work provided in the contract would be completed in 1954, in order that the track areas involved would be reasonably safe for the passage of motor vehicles during the winter months. However, the contract is less than 50 per cent completed, and I do not feel that we should do any more work of covering rails at this time, as most of the main highways included in the contract will be completely resurfaced before the end of the current year, and it does not appear advisable to cover, at this time, only the small areas involved in the abandoned rails. Therefore, I have informed the contractor not to do any more work on this contract. However, in fairness to said contractor, I feel that we should include some additional work in the contract, in order that the total amount of work done will approximate the total value of the work provided originally.

At the present time, the roadway surface of P street, South Boston, between East Fourth street and East Sixth street, is in a very poor condition, and the same can be said for the roadway of Boston street, from Dorchester avenue to the bridge located over the right-of-way of the New Haven Railroad. Both of these streets have abandoned streetcar rails located in them, and the roadway areas should be covered with bituminous concrete, from curb to curb. It is estimated that the cost of the work in P street and Boston street will total approximately $8,200, and will offset the value of the work which we are not doing, but which was included in the original contract of October 27, awarded to the Tomasello Corporation. The latter-referenced has agreed to do the work in P street and Boston street on the basis of prices established by department engineers, and which conform, in general, to prices that we have received for similar work after publicly advertising for same.

In view of the circumstances, I respectfully request your authority to dispense with advertising, and to amend the above-referenced contract so as to provide for the reconstruction of P street, South Boston, between East Fourth street and East Sixth street, and for the construction of Boston street, South Boston, from Dorchester avenue to the railroad bridge, at agreed prices in accordance with the applicable provisions of the current contract, and at a total amount not to exceed $8,200.

Respectfully yours,

GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

REAL PROPERTY DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, March 29, 1955.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The Real Property Board from time to time engages the services of contractors to clean refuse from vacant lots of land under its jurisdiction. During the course of a year the total cost of such cleanings will total over $1,000. However, it is impossible to determine or even approximate the cost, due to the fact that we order the cleaning generally upon complaints of the Complaints Department, Health Department, Fire Department, Police Department, and of private citizens. In each case the cleaning job is an emergency at the time of the complaint, necessitating the employment of a contractor at that specific time to do emergency work.

In view of the above-mentioned facts, it would be impractical to advertise for bids, and it is respectfully requested that permission be given this department to employ such contractors as are necessary from time to time, to clean lots of land without public advertising.

Respectfully yours,

HERMAN CARP,
Commissioner of Real Property.

WELFARE DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, March 2, 1955.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,

SUFFOLK COUNTY.

COURT HOUSE.

BOSTON, March 10, 1955.
HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.
DEAR MAYOR HYNES:

Your approval is hereby requested for the award of a contract, without public advertising, to the Otis Elevator Company for the complete maintenance and servicing of the ten control passenger elevators in the Suffolk County Courthouse, in service continuously during courthouse hours, at a monthly cost of $1,210.72, exclusive of an added charge of $4.41 per man-hour for any ordered overtime work for the period commencing April 1, 1955, and ending March 31, 1956.

The contract shall include provision for the required annual drop test and the replacement of all parts, and, in addition, to include monthly supervisory inspection of the three intermittently operated passenger elevators at the courthouse and the two electric book lifts, including also the annual drop test for foregoing apparatus. The approximate total amount contemplated for expenditure under the proposed contract is $14,528.64.

All of the ten continuously operated signal control passenger elevators, the three other elevators used intermittently for passengers, and the two electric book lifts were manufactured and installed by the Otis Elevator Company, in view of which the Courthouse Commission believes that nothing would be gained by public advertising for the foregoing service, particularly with the existing and increasing difficulties in procuring the mechanical parts specially designed for use in these machines unless in stock by the firm furnishing the maintenance service as is the case in the present instance since the contractor is the manufacturer of the same.

It is to be noted that the foregoing rate of $1,210.72 per month for these services, and the charge for overtime work of $4.41 per hour reflects an increase of $33.55 per month and 12 per cent per hour for overtime. It is felt, however, that these proposed charges are fair and reasonable for the work involved and, furthermore, these increases are not in excess of the rates determined under the terms of the option provisions contained in this contract in accordance with which the contractor could have been obliged to perform the services during the 12-month period of the proposed contract.

Respectfully yours,
COURTHOUSE COMMISSION,
by ARNO I. DREW,
Chairman.

BOSTON, March 10, 1955.
HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.
DEAR MAYOR HYNES:

Because of the satisfactory service rendered over a period of years by the W. C. Holmes Cleaning Company, of Boston, in supplying window cleaning service to the Suffolk County Courthouse, the Courthouse Commission believes that it would be for the best interest of the City of Boston and the County of Suffolk to continue this service with the W. C. Holmes Cleaning Company, and requests your authority for awarding the contract, without advertising, to the W. C. Holmes Cleaning Company, for the period commencing April 1, 1955, and ending March 31, 1956.

The total amount contemplated for expenditure under the proposed contract is $2,800.

The aforesaid company carries the required Public Liability and Workmen's Compensation Insurance.

The W. C. Holmes Cleaning Company has all the necessary equipment and the necessary experience enabling it to perform this service with the least possible disturbance to the daily functions at the courthouse.

Respectfully yours,
COURTHOUSE COMMISSION,
by ARNO I. DREW,
Chairman.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.
DEAR MAYOR HYNES:

Because of the satisfactory service rendered over a period of years by the Federal National Linen Service Company, Inc., of Boston, in supplying towel service to the Suffolk County Courthouse, the Courthouse Commission believes that it would be for the best interest of the City of Boston and the County of Suffolk to continue this service with the Federal National Linen Service Company, Inc., and requests your authority to dispense with advertising and to award a contract to the Federal National Linen Service Company, Inc., on the basis of supplying one thousand (1,000) towels weekly for the period commencing April 1, 1955, and ending March 31, 1956.

The total amount contemplated for expenditure under the proposed contract is $1,800, the rate being $150 per month.

The deliveries and collections of towels at the Suffolk County Courthouse have been made with the utmost cooperation and efficiency. The Federal National Linen Service Company, Inc., owns the towels, bears the losses and replacements, and guarantees the suitableness of the towels furnished, and undertakes to save the county from any claims arising through the performance of the service.

Respectfully yours,
COURTHOUSE COMMISSION,
by ARNO I. DREW,
Chairman.

MUNICIPAL COURT, SOUTH BOSTON DISTRICT.

SOUTH BOSTON, March 29, 1955.
HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.
DEAR MR. MAYOR:

I respectfully request your authorization to dispense with a public solicitation for proposals in the City Record and to enter into a new contract with Mary R. Gibbons, 180S Columbia road, South Boston, to provide for the transportation of prisoners to and from this court, as directed, with the county, for the period April 1, 1955, to March 31, 1956, inclusive, thereby arranging for a continuation of these necessary services on behalf of this court. The contractor proposes that the service for the ensuing 12-month period shall be paid for at the monthly rate of $155, the total contract cost not to exceed $1,860, tunnel fees included.

It is believed that nothing would be gained by publicly inviting bids for the subject work, as the monthly charge is fair and reasonable for the services involved. Furthermore, the contractor has for many years always carried out the work in an efficient and satisfactory manner.

Respectfully,
LEO H. LEARY,
Justice.

PROCEEDINGS OF CITY COUNCIL.

Monday, March 28, 1955.

Regular meeting of the City Council held in the Council Chamber, City Hall, at 2 P.M., Senior Member WHITE in the chair. Absent, Councillor Hurley.

The Reverend Charles X. Leahy of St. John's Roman Catholic Church, Peabody, was escorted to the rostrum.

INVOCATION BY REV. CHARLES X. LEAHY.

Let us pray. Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, by Whom kings govern and lawmakers discern just things, deign so to bless the political freedom of our beloved country that it will ever be regulated by obedience to Thy Holy Law on the part of rulers and subjects, by a wise and just administration of authority, and by a manly and prompt obedience to it.

Thou art a God of power, of wisdom, and of justice. Help us all to feel that there is no one else of whom we can ask so much, for Thou art of all counselors the most prudent; of all companions the nearest; and of all helpers the ablest and the most willing to meet our every need.

In the spirit of gratitude we come to Thee with faith, and with confidence in those great virtues which make for righteousness in man and stability in government. Humbly we implore Thee to aid the members of this Council with Thy constant protection; to richly endow them with clearness of understanding and courage of heart to meet and match the challenge of difficult problems and great responsibilities, that they may be worthy leaders of the people, and that each one, at the close of the day's deliberations, in the quiet of his room may sense Thy words of commendation—"Well done, good and faithful servant."

O Almighty and Eternal God, we humbly beseech Thee to inspire the people of this fair city with an earnest desire to cooperate with their chief magistrate and with the members of this Council, to help them and to strengthen them that happiness and contentment may come to all. We ask these blessings in the name of Christ Jesus, our Lord. Amen.

The meeting was opened with the salute to the Flag.

Coun. PIEMONTE in the chair.

VETO OF ORDER RE ADDITIONAL COMPENSATION FOR FIRE FIGHTERS WORKING CERTAIN LEGAL HOLIDAYS.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, March 28, 1955.

To the City Council.
Gentlemen:

I return herewith disapproved and without my signature the order adopted by your Honorable Body on March 14 for acceptance of chapter 640 of the Acts of 1953.

The acceptance of this act, and its companion act, chapter 546 of the Acts of 1953, would increase the annual expenditure of the city for extra holiday pay for firemen and policemen to the amount of $175,000. Obviously, there is no such amount available in this year's budget and there is very little possibility that any supplementary appropriation to this extent could be provided

As a matter of fact, if it were possible to provide this amount of money, I would much prefer to devote it to a salary increase for policemen and firemen. The salary scale of both of these groups should be increased. Unfortunately, to give any increase, no matter how much, this year would further increase the tax rate. However, it is my hope that we might find ways and means sometime in the not too distant future to raise the scale of pay of both firemen and policemen.

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE MAYOR.

With reference to the attached order of the City Council accepting, under date of March 14, 1955, chapter 640 of the Acts of 1953, relative to additional pay for fire fighters required to work on certain legal holidays, the following report is submitted.

On September 17, 1953, in connection with this same act, I informed you as follows:

"The first part of this particular chapter reads word for word the same as chapter 2 of the Ordinances of 1950, which grants fire fighters either time off or pay for ten specified holidays occurring in a calendar year.

"The second part of chapter 640 grants to fire fighters the same consideration as that given to police officers under chapter 546 of the Acts of 1953 by providing for an additional day's pay in the event one or more of the ten specified holidays fall on one of their days off."

Under date of September 29, 1953, in a message to the City Council you vetoed an order passed by the City Council for acceptance of chapter 546 of the acts of 1953. You informed the Council that acceptance would result in a further annual expenditure to the amount of $50,000 in addition to the $350,000 now expended annually for this purpose in the Police Department. You also advised the Council that the Police Commissioner was vigorously opposed to the acceptance of this act. You further advised the Council that the acceptance of this act would result in the acceptance of the above chapter 640 of the Acts of 1953, resulting in an additional expenditure of $125,000 annually in the Fire Department.

To accept this act now would still require an additional expenditure of at least $120,000 annually in the Fire Department in addition to the anticipated expenditure of $175,000 annually for this purpose in 1955. Of course, pressure would be exerted to revise chapter 546 of the Acts of 1953 which you vetoed, as indicated above.

JOHN A. SULLIVAN,
Supervisor of Personnel.

The lot in question is bounded by Farragut roads East First, East Second, and P streets. Permit, have been granted for the removal of the structures presently on the lot. It should be noted that although several inquiries have been made in this department, the filing of this application is the first tangible evidence of the project.
The proposed building will be approximately 178 feet x 252 feet, one story in height, and the cost has been set provisionally at $200,000. The owners are the Albany Garage Corporation, 210 Albany street, Boston.
The property was owned formerly by the Metropolitan Transit Authority and is 125,000 square feet in area. Somewhat more than one quarter of this lies within an I-80 (industrial, 80-foot) zone and the remainder is in an L-65 (local business, 65-foot) zone. Since a trucking business is not a permissive use within a local business zone, the application will be refused. The representatives of the owners have already indicated their intention of taking the case to the Board of Appeal, which Board, under the law, will schedule a public hearing.
The Committee on Licenses has at this time received no application for the garage license. Such application undoubtedly will be contingent upon the action of the Board of Appeal. In any event, a public hearing before the Committee on Licenses will also be required for the garage license and due notice of such hearing is customarily sent to your Honor and to the City Councillors.
Very truly yours,
CHARLES A. CALLAHAN, Building Commissioner.

City of Boston,
Real Property Department,
March 28, 1955.
Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.
Dear Mr. Mayor:
Portions of the first floor of the Municipal Building, Curtis Hall, South street, Jamaica Plain, are presently occupied by the local draft board pursuant to a lease which expired December 31, 1954. The General Services Administration of the United States of America has requested that it be permitted to lease this space for draft board purposes for a term of one year commencing January 1, 1955, and renewable for an additional year at an annual rental of $1,463.
I respectfully request your Honor to submit to the City Council an order which will authorize the execution of a lease with the United States of America for the above-stated purposes.
Respectfully,
GEORGE P. DONOVAN,
Assistant Commissioner.

Whereas, The City of Boston is the owner in fee of premises at 20 South street in the Jamaica Plain district of the City of Boston known as Curtis Hall, in the care, custody, control and management of the Assistant Commissioner of Real Property of the City of Boston; and
Whereas, The United States of America desires to lease a room in said building for office space and related uses; now, therefore it is hereby

Said lease may contain such further terms and conditions as in the opinion of the Assistant Commissioner of Real Property are required and not inconsistent with the foregoing.

FUNDS TO PLAN PUBLIC WORKS PROJECTS.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, March 28, 1955.
To the City Council.
Gentlemen:
I transmit herewith in response to the order of the City Council of March 7, 1955, a report from the Director of Administrative Services concerning the securing of advance planning funds for city departments through the Community Facilities Administration of the U. S. Housing and Home Finance Agency.
Respectfully,
J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Administrative Services Department,
March 28, 1955.
Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.
Dear Sir:
Under date of March 7, 1955, the following order was adopted by the City Council:
"Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor bring to the attention of his department heads the opportunity of securing through the Community Facilities Administration of the U. S. Housing and Home Finance Agency interest-free advances to plan public works projects, and that his Honor the Mayor report to the City Council on the extent to which city departments have submitted applications for such advance planning funds."

Contact with the local field office of the U. S. Housing and Home Finance Agency has produced the following information:

Public Law 560, 83d Congress, approved August 2, 1954, authorizes the Administrator, Housing and Home Finance Agency, to advance funds to public bodies with which to plan needed public works. Of the total of $10,000,000 authorized by the Congress, the sum of $1,000,000 has been appropriated. The law limits the total amount available for advances in any one state to not more than 5 per cent of the total appropriated funds. This limitation means that at the present time only $50,000 may be advanced to public bodies in Massachusetts. A circular of information issued by the Agency states that "preferential consideration will be given to applications from communities of less than 25,000 population—for construction of urgently needed water supply and distribution systems or sewage collection and disposal systems."

In view of the limited amount of funds available for advances at the present time and the stated preference for small communities and special types of projects, no action has been taken by city departments with respect to the submitting of applications for such advance planning funds.

Respectfully,
CHARLES J. FOX,
Director, Administrative Services.

PUBLIC WORKS COMMISSIONER GEORGE G. HYLAND MAKES REPORT TO MAYOR JOHN B. HYNES ON FEDERAL-AID HIGHWAY BILLS NOW UNDER CONSIDERATION BY CONGRESS —UNITED STATES CONFERENCE OF MAYORS DISCUSSES VARIOUS FEATURES OF PRESIDENT'S $100 BILLION HIGHWAY PROGRAM — COMMISSIONER REPRESENTS MAYOR HYNES AT CONFERENCE.

The following is, in part, the report of the Public Works Commissioner, representing Mayor John B. Hynes at United States Conference of Mayors in New York in March:

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.
DEAR MR. MAYOR:

I respectfully submit the following report of the meeting that I attended as your representative which was held in New York City on Tuesday, March 8, for the purpose of discussing with other representatives of the United States Conference of Mayors various features of the President's $100 billion highway program, with particular reference to the President's Bill, S. 1160, and the so-called Gore Bill, S. 1048:

The following were in attendance: Mayor David L. Lawrence of Pittsburgh; Mayor Norris Poulson of Los Angeles; Mayor Raymond R. Tucker of St. Louis; Mayor Frank P. Zeidler of Milwaukee; Mayor J. W. Morgan of Birmingham; Mayor Andrew Broaddus of Louisville; Mayor Roy Hofheinz of Houston; Mayor Walter H. Reynolds of Providence and the Director of Public Works; Mayor Anthony Celabrezze of Cleveland; Mayor Robert Wagner of New York City; Robert Moses, Construction Coordinator of New York City, and two assistants; and Paul V. Betters, Executive Vice-President, United States Conference of Mayors.

The meeting was held at 5 East 66th street, and convened at 10.30 A.M.

Mr. Betters explained the purpose of the meeting and his desire to get an expression of opinion from the various mayors concerning both of the above-referenced bills affecting the federal-aid highway program. Mr. Betters outlined the general provisions of the bills, and it was apparent that the mayors in attendance had a good general knowledge of them. At least two of the mayors in attendance felt that the President's Bill, S. 1160, was reminiscent of the New Deal days, and, in general, favored the Gore Bill, which incidentally contains, in substance, the same provisions as the existing federal highway legislation, except that it allocates increased appropriations to the program.

Advantages of Bills Discussed.

A general discussion ensued as to the respective advantages of both bills, and throughout the day we received the benefit of having Mr. Moses of New York in attendance. He probably is one of the foremost highway men in the world, and his comments on the various phases of both bills were of great benefit to all in attendance. From the start, he unquestionably favored the Administration's bill, as he stated that it enunciated and spelled out a very definite policy that provided for a long-range highway construction program which was based on a thorough study made of the problem by the Clay Committee.

He was ably supported in his views by Mayor Celabrezze of Cleveland and by Mayor Hofheinz of Houston. The latter-referenced impressed me as being a very able and progressive executive, and I am certain that he could sell the President's Bill to Congress, if he were given the opportunity.

REPORT OF PUBLIC WORKS COMMISSIONER ON FEDERAL-AID HIGHWAY BILLS NOW BEFORE CONGRESS.

He is aggressive and a born salesman who talks sense. He pointed out very clearly the advantages that had accrued to the City of Houston by the construction of the expressway in said city, and he produced figures showing that the savings to the motorists in the first three years that the expressway was opened more than justified the initial cost of construction. He is completely sold on the President's Bill, although unquestionably it was agreed by everyone in attendance that it will have to be amended in many ways before it will be passed by Congress.

Mayor Celebrezze of Cleveland also is a strong advocate of long-range highway planning, and he pointed out that the City of Cleveland already has spent many million dollars on expressways, and is contemplating further extensions in the future. He likewise presented some very sensible arguments for the adoption of a highway program similar to that provided in the President's Bill, and I am certain that his remarks had a great deal of influence on those in attendance.

It was apparent as the day went on that those mayors who had come to the meeting opposed to the President's Bill and favoring the Gore Bill had reversed their positions and were now favoring the long-range construction program provided in S. 1160.

I became so interested in the entire subject that I have studied both the President's Bill, S. 1160, and the Gore Bill, S. 1048, in detail, and I have analyzed both bills, in order that I would have a thorough understanding of the advantages and disadvantages of each. I am attaching my breakdown and analysis with my comments on certain features of them. I will not, therefore, incorporate in this section of my report any references to the various provisions of the bills. Suffice it to say that, at the conclusion of the meeting, Mayor Lawrence of Pittsburgh, who acted as chairman, appointed the following committee to represent the United States Conference of Mayors at the hearings in Washington that will be held by the various committees on both bills: Mayor Lawrence of Pittsburgh; Mayor Poulson of Los Angeles; Mayor Tucker of St. Louis; Mayor Hofheinz of Houston.

Basic Provisions Favored.

It was also unanimously voted to put the Conference of Mayors on record as favoring the basic provisions of the President's Bill, with the exception of the provision that provides that states shall be given credit for monies previously expended for the construction of toll highways or free highways located on or parallel with routes of the Interstate Highway System. The mayors — for some reason that I could not determine — felt that these provisions should be eliminated, and on the vote that was taken concerning this matter I recorded Boston as dissenting on this particular matter. As you well know, Commissioner Volpe has expressed the opinion that a major part of the Central Artery in this city will be designated on the Interstate Highway System, and that a large part of the $100 million to be expended on the Artery will be credited to the state by the federal government. The amount credited will be allocated to the construction of other major highways included in the Federal Aid Primary System, with particular reference to the proposed construction of the section of the Boston belt-line route which will parallel Massachusetts avenue and extend from Storrow Parkway to Old Colony Parkway. Therefore, for these reasons, I opposed recommending to the Highway Committee in Washington the deletion of the existing provision in S. 1160 which will grant such credit to states for the construction of facilities that measure up to the standards for interstate highways, and which are located on the Interstate Highway System. This provision is particularly advantageous to the cities that have had the foresight to expend large sums on express highways.

The meeting adjourned at 4.30 P.M.

As stated hereinbefore, I submit herewith addenda which describe the various features of the President's Bill, S. 1160, and the Gore Bill, S. 1048, with my comments thereon.

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

JOHN A. MURPHY REPORTS ON ATTENDANCE AT MEETING OF ELEMENTARY SCHOOL PRINCIPALS.

General Session.

The several speakers to address this session expressed their opinions of just what role the elementary school and the elementary school principal should play in a broad-scale community improvement program.

The point was established that in trying to make school community relations more productive, it must not be assumed that the school is a service agency for everyone but the children who attend it. On the contrary, development within the school of the kind of curriculum and instruction that will be in harmony with the best elements of the community school concept must not be neglected, for the first responsibility of an elementary school is to the children who attend it.

The Education of Boys and Girls Is a Community Enterprise.

What can we do to make the education of boys and girls a more enlightened, self-conscious, carefully planned, cooperative, and experimental type of community enterprise?

The following points were developed by one of the speakers:

1. The problems involved in the education of boys and girls by the community should be more carefully identified and defined than they are at present.

2. An unusually thorough and cooperative search should be made to discover ways and means for dealing with these problems.

3. When innovations are introduced to improve the education of the community's boys and girls, they should be introduced experimentally.

4. Strenuous and enlightened efforts must be made to appraise the worth of these innovations.

Elementary School Principal As Leader.

The following activities were suggested as being included in the principal's role in helping the community become more cooperative and enlightened in the way it educates its youth:

1. Earnest study of small groups actively interested in some pertinent phase of community life.

2. A study of ways and means to improve competence in group procedures.

3. Initiation and participatiou in some group work training for teachers and parents.

Special Workshops.

The remainder of this report has to do with the problems, discussions, and recommendations of the twenty-four principals who comprised the "Special Workshop for Presidents of Elementary School Principals Associations in Large Cities."

At the first meeting of the group each member introduced himself and stated the question or problem he wished to have discussed by the members of the group. From these introductory remarks the secretary, Dalton L. Eads, of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, compiled a list of subjects, which the group in its entirety attempted to solve, or assigned to committees for further study.

The list which evolved from the exchange of experience and sharing of ideas finally numbered eight items, as follows:

1. How can we establish lines of communication between elementary school administrative groups in the nation?

2. Is there a necessity for an administrative workshop?

3. What is the attitude toward a single-salary schedule for all school-site administrators (elementary school, junior high school, and senior high school)?

4. What are the advantages of the ratio (percentage) plan in establishing salaries for administrators?

5. What should be the policy in relation to the appointment of elementary school principals?

6. How can the elementary school principal best use the special service departments within the school system to lessen the trend toward juvenile delinquency?

7. What are the best policies with regard to "sick leave" and "terminal leave?"

8. What attitude shall we take concerning playground supervision and accident responsibility?

When the group looked over the above list, we realized that many of these topics would require the concentrated attention of a special committee for adequate study. However, in the time at our command, we decided to take each problem or question individually. If a solution could be reached and agreed upon by the majority immediately, well and good; such agreement could be offered as a recommendation.

Conclusions.

The following recommendations were made:

1. It is evident that the position of elementary school principal has grown in stature tremendously in recent years; that strength may be found in numbers and in cooperation; that communication between organizations will foster and promote a continuing upgrading and improvement in our professional status.

We heartily endorse such national meetings as the Department of Elementary School Principals, National Education Association, particularly the section devoted to the "Principals in Large Cities." We recommend that two members be sent from every large city to the National Convention. Each year one member shall drop out, leaving one member with experience to insure the continuity of our program.

2. We believe in and recommend that there should be a workshop for administrators in elementary schools to exchange ideas on administrative and teaching procedures.

3. We are on record as favoring the single-salary system. We deem it unwise to differentiate salaries on the basis of school size. Where enrolment is large, extra administrative help should be assigned.

4. We favor the ratio (percentage) plan in establishing salary schedules for administrators. For principals, we favor the ratio 1.75.

5. A principal should be assigned to every elementary school district.

6. Every elementary district should have a full-time secretary.

The foregoing recommendations as approved are to be sent to all superintendents in large cities by direct communication and are to be published in the Journal of the National Education Association.

REPORT OF LEO C. RENAUD ON ATTENDANCE AT CONVENTION.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 2.

I attended the three meetings held on Thursday, December 2, with the directors of the vocational and trade schools at the local city level.

The discussion at these three meetings concerned itself with General Public Relations, School Buildings, the Development of Architectural Standards for the Vocational Programs, and Better Use of the Advisory Committees at the Local Level.

It was the consensus of the panelists and the delegates that the local school officials must make better use of their advisory committees not only by accepting their advice with regard to the program and schools, but by making the members of these committees active participants in the operation of the schools.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 3.

Friday, December 3, was devoted entirely to the apprenticeship program, and was called "Apprenticeship Day."

MORNING MEETINGS.

The morning meetings were devoted to the discussion of curriculum development for the apprentices.

AFTERNOON MEETING.

The afternoon meeting concerned itself with the presentation of new materials in the building trades, particularly in the plumbing, steamfitting, and bricklaying areas. This discussion had to do with the importance of the local vocational schools keeping abreast of new developments so that the apprentices and the journeymen could come to the local trade schools to improve their knowledge in these matters.

Atomic reactors for generation of electric power was introduced for discussion, including construction costs, new metals used, the operational function, cost of maintenance, etc. It was brought forth that one uranium charge for the operation of the unit would cost $9,000 per pound, or $324,000 for the complete charge—a charge weighing about 36 pounds. A one-pound unit is about the size of a baseball. Each charge would last about two years and generate enough electric current to supply an entire city of 125,000 people for that period. The metals used in the reactors are new, and little is known about them as yet, except by government scientists and engineers.

One of these engineers mentioned that one 4-inch valve in this reactor was made by the Crane Valve Company at a cost of $54,000, so that the workman (welder) who welds this valve in the system only gets one chance at its installation. This further emphasizes the need for research by the staff of the vocational schools to keep abreast of these new developments.

D. C. Wilkens, Industrial Relations Manager for the Convair Division of General Dynamics, San Diego, California, stated that his company spends $1,500,000 per year for training that could best be done in the vocational schools of the country. It was also cited that General Motors is spending $27,000,000 on a five-year program for new schools in automotive work for the upgrading of the mechanics in the dealers' garages. The feeling seemed to be that if the local school administrators and their staffs were alert to the situation these schools would never have been built, but rather this instruction could have been received under the auspices of the local programs; however, the criticism was made that the schools' programs are standpat and are not keeping up with the developments in the automotive industry.

Evening Meeting.

In the evening a graduation program was held in the Civic Auditorium for all the apprentices in the San Francisco area who had completed their training programs during the past year.

This program was a joint affair of the California Vocational Association, the American Vocational Association, the California Apprenticeship Council, and the members of the various craft unions. The list of graduates comprised more than 650 young men. The program was very interesting, with Mr. Douglas Whitlock, General Counsel, Structural Clay Products, Washington, D. C., as the main speaker. (The brick, cinder blocks, and tile products used in our program at the Frothingham School are given to us through the courtesy of Mr. Whitlock.)

Saturday, December 4.

The Saturday meetings on "Labor and Management Interest in Vocational Education" were very well attended and the panelists left some very strong feelings as to the need for closer relations between labor, management, and the schools, and placed much of the blame for this lack of coordination on the school officials. The challenge was thrown to the delegates by the representatives of management to state one instance where management had refused one request from the school people as regards equipment, material, etc.; all agreed they could not point to one instance.

Mr. James A. Brownlow, President of the Metal Trades Department, A. F. of L., and chairman of the A. F. of L. Subcommittee on Vocational Education, Washington, D. C., stated emphatically that there was not enough training being done in America to maintain the factor of safety in our national defense. In the United States, out of a population of 160,000,000 people, only 46,000 persons are being trained in the vocational schools of America and the apprenticeship program, although 250,000 are needed each year for replacement. West Germany, with a population of 43,000,000 people, on this date has 2,000,000 apprentices in the trade groups.

Sunday, December 5.

I attended the breakfast meeting with the officers of the State Vocational Associations held at the Bellevue Hotel at 9.30 A.M. The discussion at this meeting stressed the importance of increased membership at the state level as a means of developing a strong program of public relations.

The officers of the State Association were requested to promote a more effective use of the personnel serving on the Local Craft Advisory Committees.

Monday, December 6.

Monday was a day devoted to the agricultural part of the vocational program with a tour conducted by the Sears Roebuck Foundation, which took us through the fruit country of the Santa Clara Valley with stops at the food processing plants in the valley.

Tuesday, December 7.

Tuesday was a day devoted to the business meeting of the convention, its discussions, reports, election of officers, and the selection of the convention city for 1955.

The 1955 American Vocational Association Convention is to be held at Atlantic City, New Jersey, from November 28 through December 2.

Wednesday, December 8.

I attended a meeting of the National Officers of the Local Administrators Association, an affiliate of the American Vocational Association. Observation: I am serving my second term as president of this association in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

This meeting was called for the purpose of summarizing the activities and functions of the convention so that we in turn could disseminate the information in our own states.

It was also suggested that the discussion pertaining to "School Plant Facilities" be continued at the next convention in Atlantic City in an endeavor to create a closer relationship with the American Institute of Architects on School Building Projects.

Respectfully submitted,

Leo C. Renaud,
Assistant Supervisor.

MAYOR'S EASTER MESSAGE.

The story of Easter is old but ever new. It symbolizes for us God's love for man—a love that knew no bounds. The life, the death, the resurrection of Jesus Christ have opened for us the doors of unending happiness in the world beyond the grave. If, by our own efforts, we keep those doors open wide, the ignominious death on the Cross becomes a glorious victory.

To all my fellow citizens I wish a glorious, happy, and joyous Easter Day.

CIRCULAR LETTER NO. 7.

City of Boston,
Mayor's Office, April 7, 1955.

To All Department Heads.

I have designated Thursday, April 14, as "City of Boston Red Sox Day," an occasion for the city to pay tribute to the Red Sox, who spread the name and fame of Boston throughout the world.

All city employees who have tickets for the opening day game between the Red Sox and the New York Yankees on that date will be given time off from work so that they may attend the ball game at Fenway Park.

Tickets for this game will be on sale at special booths at City Hall between the hours of noon and 2 P.M. on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, April 11, 12, and 13.

Let's help start the Red Sox en route to the pennant in 1955.

John B. Hynes,
